

SEATTLE TACKLES PORTLAND BEAVER CLUB THIS WEEK

By The Associated Press
Much to the surprise of all parties concerned, the second half of the Coast League primary chase booms into its eighth week of play today with the first five teams whirling about in dizzy fashion in their battle for the driver's seat.

Following in the footsteps of her famous father, Patricia Ziefel, above, daughter of Pio Ziefel and Billie Burke, is picking the beauties for a new film which will glorify her father as he glorified the American girl.

Over The Valley Personals

Gives Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herrmann entertained a company of friends Sunday at dinner at their home on the Island City-Cove road in honor of their daughter, Miss Anita, who is leaving Wednesday for Quincy, Ill., to enter business college.

The Annual Picnic—Members of the many 4-H clubs in Union county are looking forward eagerly for the annual club picnic which is to be held at the Eastern Oregon experiment station, Wednesday, Aug. 22 and likewise, they are busy preparing for it.

Hulse Reunion—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Hulse, of the Iowa district, are announcing the annual Hulse family reunion which is to be held at their home "Shadowpoint" ranch on Saturday and Sunday, August 25 and 26.

To Wallowa—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. Orin Amson, all of near Island City, drove to Wallowa Sunday where they attended the Wallowa County association picnic.

Island City Aid—There were 13 members in attendance at the meeting of the Island City Ladies Aid held Thursday at Riverside park. Mrs. Beba Davis had charge of the devotionals and Mrs. Emma Kintle the program.

Wed. of Walla Walla—According to word from Walla Walla, two couples of young people from this valley were married there during the weekend: Dale W. Hagey and Fay Holcomb, both of Cove, and Jess McMaster and Chrystal Barnard, both of Union.

Happy Hour Circle—Mrs. Paul Knautz will be the hostess to the members of the Happy Hour Circle, Wednesday afternoon at her home in the Iowa district. The hour is 2:30 o'clock.

To Idaho—Mrs. Margaret Oliver, of Portland, who has been making an extended visit among her valley and town relatives, left Thursday for Moscow, Idaho, to visit her son and family.

Makes Visit—Mrs. George S. Hoffman, of Union, had as her guest over the weekend Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman and their daughter, Jean. Mr. Murphy, Sam Benson, and Mrs. Murphy formed a group which enjoyed a picnic dinner Sunday at Benson's island up Catherine creek.

Miss Margaret Taylor, Mrs. Carl Fuller and Mrs. Bruce Clark were joint hostesses when the Allot Ladies Aid society met Thursday with Miss Taylor at the Playle home on Fourth street. There was a splendid attendance of the members.

Death Deplored—The death of Frank McKinnis, for many years a resident of the Imbler and Summerville communities in a hospital at Tracy, Cal., Saturday last, is greatly deplored in this valley. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnis and some of their family went to Tracy, a few years ago seeking benefit for Mr. McKinnis' health as he was a great sufferer from asthma. He was some better there. At commencement time last spring, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnis drove back to Imbler to witness the graduation of their son, Keith, prominent athlete at Imbler high. Shortly after their return to California accompanied by Keith, Mr. McKinnis has many relatives hereabouts and many friends.

There'll Never be a "Last Round-Up"! Famous Pendleton Show 25 Years Old

The Round-Up, Pendleton's historic show that keeps the glamour of the old, wild West alive, will celebrate its twenty-fifth (Silver Jubilee) anniversary September 13, 14, and 15. An honorary order of "Pendleton Top Hands" is now being organized in Pendleton, with its members pledged to perpetuate the Pendleton Round-Up through succeeding generations.

The brilliant pageantry of range sports that made the shout of "Let 'er Buck!" known around the world in the Round-Up's quarter of a century of history will thrill its throngs at Pendleton again this year. Having weathered the past three trying years with colors flying and the dauntless spirit of the Taylor still in the saddle, the Pendleton Round-Up emerges this year with a greater show than ever.

A new thrilling event, the "Wild Ride," will be added to this year's three day show with 12 vicious bucking horses mounted and bucking in the arena simultaneously, all released from the snatching horses at the same instant.

Perhaps the greatest parade ever held at Pendleton will be seen this year, for George Strand, director of parades, is collecting additional historic buckboards, stage coaches, freight wagons, pack train equipment and other priceless relics of early day transportation.

The usual colorful Indian features of the parade will be maintained. The "Westward Ho" parade will be held Friday, September 13, instead of Saturday as has been the custom at previous Round-Ups. To those who have attended the Round-Up for years, this is of special importance, for real die-in-the-wool Round-Up visitors never want to miss the spectacle of the great "Westward Ho" parade.

In 1910 when Pendleton citizens felt that the modern West was arriving and the old, wild West was disappearing, the first Round-Up was held. The incorporators were Max Beer, an Indian in the present heavyweight champion, Will Ingram, Leon Cohen, J. H. Gowan and J. H. McAllister. The first president was J. Roy Raley and the first treasurer was Roy W. Rimer, this year's business manager of the Round-Up.

Frank W. Staley, now in the United States Senate, was on the first Round-Up board, with T. L. Taylor, one of the truly great riders of the old West, Roy Bishop of the Pendleton Woolen Mills, and L. C. Frazier, who is now serving on the Round-Up board. This year's president of the Round-Up is Dr. Wilson D. McNary, who served also in 1933. The past presidents were Henry W. Collins, Thelma D. Taylor and J. Roy Raley.

The first year's Round-Up surprised Pendleton with a gathering of 19,000 visitors which taxed the housing facilities of the city until every private home was filled. The budget for the first year's Pendleton Round-Up was only $2,650, whereas budgets of succeeding years were between $20,000 and $30,000, as the show grew in size and world-wide renown.

The first "Happy Canyon" night pageant was held in 1911 and, depicting the conquest of the West, has proven, year after year, a worthy emulsion to the thrilling arena events of the day. This year, as in previous years, some of the world's greatest cowboys—bucking horse riders, bull-doggers, ropers and relay riders will be competing for generous cash prizes and coveted championship trophies.

Shields Advances To Fourth Round
NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 14 (AP)—Francis X. Shields, member of the U. S. Davis cup singles force and the defending title in the current Newport tennis play, today qualified for the fourth round by breeching through Eddie Jacobs of Baltimore, 6-3, 6-3.

House of David Wins Tournament
DENVER, Aug. 14 (AP)—With first money in the Denver Post baseball tournament safe in their bag, the House of David club was ready today to continue its diamond barnstorming.

A superb exhibition of baseball enabled the bushwhacker travelers to win the tourney by shutting out the Kansas City, Mo., Monarchs, 3 to 0, behind the dazzling pitching of "Spike" Hunter.
