WALLOWA PERSONALS

The McLean theatre which has been closed for the past year is expected to open for business on August 17. The building has been leased by Mr. Nielson of Boise, who has been here to see about the installing of a Holmra portable machine in the theatre at an estimated cost of $1500. This machine, he says, will give Wallowa the latest and best sound equipment on the market. Vern Collier, of Harper, accompanied Mr. Nielson to Wallowa and will be placed in charge of the show house when it gets in operation. Mr. Collier and his family will occupy the house just east of the theatre building.

Lee Bell, of Enterprise, grain buyer for the Pacific Continental Grain Co. of Portland, was in Wallowa Friday paying 75 cents a bushel for soft white wheat.

Mrs. J. B. Gregory, son Jack, and daughter, Kathryn, left Friday to make their home in La Grande. Dr. Gregory expects to remain in Wallowa until the first of September.
