Miss Vina Conley, Dr. Webster K. Ross Wed In Quiet Ceremony Sunday Eve At The Presbyterian Manse

Miss Vina Conley, for the past seven years a teacher in the La Grande schools, and Dr. Webster K. Ross, local practicing physician, were the principals in a quiet wedding last evening at the Presbyterian manse, 909 Penn avenue. Rev. J. George Walt read the beautiful single ring service at 8:00 o'clock in the presence of only the necessary witnesses. The bride, always beautiful, wore a gown of egg-shell color with accessories to match.

Both the interested parties are prominent locally. Mr. Ross, the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley of the valley, is a graduate of Whitman college, Walla Walla, and has ever since been connected with the local school system. She has been quite prominent socially. Dr. Ross, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, of Dallas, is a graduate of the University of Oregon and the University of Oregon Medical school. He has been practicing in La Grande for seven years and during that time has become identified with various civic and service projects and organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross leave tomorrow for a trip of two weeks, going to the coast by way of Crater Lake. They will also visit at his parent's home at Dallas before returning to La Grande where they will establish their home.

Van Blokland-Gibson Marriage Event Of Saturday Evening

A quiet home wedding, yet very beautiful and very impressive throughout, was the marriage Saturday afternoon of Miss Mildred Lurline VanBlokland and William L. Gibson at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary VanBlokland, near Island City. Present to witness the ceremony were the members of the immediate family of the bride, and a few close friends. The home was very attractive with quantities of garden flowers—sweet peas, gladioluses, asters—used for decorations.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Ethel Hansen, who sang Chadman's "At Dawning" and then played the Lohengrin Wedding March as the bridal party approached the bower of greenery and yellow blossoms. The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Lester VanBlokland. The flower girls were two nieces of the bride, Marjory VanBlokland, of Island City, and Joan Perry, of Lostine, who wore peach colored organdie dresses. Miss Esther VanBlokland, who wore blue organdie and carried an arm bouquet, attended her sister as bridesmaid.

Valley Couple Wed Yesterday

Rev. J. George Walt, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated at the marriage yesterday afternoon of Dick Hibberd and Miss Laurose Harris, solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Harris at Elgin. The beautiful service was read by the clergyman at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Miss Marie Harris, C. R. Hibberd, the groom's father and Mr. Hibberd, and Mrs. Walt. Following the ceremony Mrs. Harris and Miss Marie served refreshments. The home was decorated with taste, many garden flowers having been used, and here as well as in the refreshments, a color arrangement of pink and white was observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd left at once on a month's honeymoon, their destination being Chicago. En route they will visit with relatives in Nebraska and will have a tour through Yellowstone park. On their return they will establish their home on the groom's farm in the Imbler vicinity. Both the young people are very well known in the north end of the valley, where the groom is a very thrifty and capable farmer. Mrs. Hibberd is a graduate of the Elgin high school.

Former Teacher Is Complimented

Mrs. A. W. Nelson had open house at her home, 1804 Cedar street, Saturday afternoon and evening honoring Mrs. N. Lucille Allen Garth, of Little York, Ill., who was her house-guest for the day. Many of Mrs. Garth's friends and pupils when she was a teacher here in the La Grande High school welcomed the opportunity to meet and visit with her again. The visitors were refreshed with punch and cakes served by the hostess assisted by her niece, Miss Natalie Massee, of Portland. Mrs. Garth continued on her journey to the middle-west Sunday morning.

or 30 of the Columbia longshoremen were meeting today when they received a tip that a group was on its way to attack.

Police were notified, but did not arrive until after the shooting. A barrage of rocks was hurled at the structure in which the meeting was held. While the battle raged someone started shooting.

Even after the shooting the rock barrage continued, and more windows were shattered. Only when the siren of an approaching ambulance sounded did the attackers flee.

During the recent waterfront strike the Columbia longshoremen's group claimed a membership of several hundred and declared the members would return to work here without awaiting coast strike settlement action. Some of its organizers and members were attacked by "beat-up" gangs during the strike.

Insult Is Refused Severance By Judge

U. S. District Judge James H. Wilkerson himself raised the question today of the continuation of the trial of the elderly defendant, should he be too ill to attend. Well enough now to venture out to the world's fair occasionally and listen to symphony orchestra concerts, insull's physicians nevertheless have pronounced his condition fragile because of a weak heart and diabetes insipidus.
