

PERSONALS

Return To La Grande—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Playle returned last evening to their home after having spent the past two weeks at various points in the northwest—Portland, Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle.

In San Francisco—Mrs. Jerry Kimmell, accompanied by her daughter, Jerry Jeanne, and her son, Freeman, are visiting in San Francisco with Mrs. Kimmell's sister, Mrs. Minnie Burch. Freeman has enrolled in the University of San Francisco.

From Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Graham and family returned Sunday from a vacation trip to Eugene, Newport, Portland, and other points of interest in Western Oregon. They went first to Eugene over the John Day highway and the McKenzie Pass and then to the coast, returning to Portland on Saturday and back to their home here on Sunday morning.

Returns Home—Miss Bess Gelbel returned last night from Eugene where she has been attending the summer session of the University of Oregon. Following the closing of school she spent the weekend at the Christian Endeavor summer conference at Turner, Oregon. Miss Gelbel will remain here for about two weeks visiting with her mother, Mrs. Bess Gelbel, before going on to her school at Albany, where she is a teacher.

In La Grande—Miss Dorothy Barker, of Cove, was shopping and visiting friends in La Grande Monday. Miss Barker will teach the Shanghai school the coming year.

Complete Summer Study—Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and their daughter, Marguerite, have returned to La Grande from Pullman, Wash., where they have been spending the summer, reporting that Pullman was not as hot as it has the reputation of being and that their home there proved to be very comfortable. Mr. Miller, who is on the faculty of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, took week during the summer term at the Washington State college. At the conclusion of the summer session, the Miller's drove to Seattle and visited on a number of the islands in the Sound and later came down to Portland for a short visit.

Visits In Valley—Mrs. Maggie Ackles Couch was a house-guest last week of her friend, Mrs. A. J. Holden on her ranch.

To Seattle—Miss Sally Siegrist has gone to Seattle for a vacation visit in company with Miss Jane McDonald, of Ponderosa, Miss Elizabeth Cromwell, of Pendleton, Miss Dorothy Panton, of Portland and Miss Peggy Chessman, of Astoria.

To Oswego—Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegrist expect to leave La Grande this week for Western Oregon, where they will make their home at Oswego, near Oregon City.

Home From Trip—L. H. Norton returned the latter part of last week from an extended trip to the middle west. He was accompanied by Mrs. Norton and together they visited at the World's Fair in Chicago, at Bryce Canyon, in Eastern Oregon Normal school, took Mrs. Norton came as far as Portland and is remaining there for several days' visit with friends and is expected to return here Thursday morning.

Day In La Grande—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Antles and Mr. and Mrs. Archer Antles and son, of Cove, are spending the day in La Grande.

Come From Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. William Hall arrived this morning from Eugene where they have been attending the university this summer. Mr. Hall will teach in the Richland schools this next year.

In Pendleton—County Agent H. G. Avery and Mrs. Avery have been in Pendleton over the weekend and plan to return home late this afternoon. Mr. Avery went particularly for the ram sale while both have been visiting with friends in the Bound-Up city.

Returns to Los Angeles—Miss Muriel McKinlay returned this morning to her home at Los Angeles, Cal., after spending the last two weeks in La Grande visiting her sister, Mrs. William Miller, and other relatives and friends.

Examiner Coming—C. M. Bentley, state examiner of chauffeurs and operators, is to be in La Grande at the city hall from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on Tuesday, Sept. 11.

In Portland—Miss Virginia Shepherd is expected to return tomorrow morning from Portland and the coast where she has spent the last weekend visiting with friends.

BOY KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR ON M AVENUE

Dale E. Anderson, 7, son of Mrs. B. E. Anderson of M avenue, was bruised at 7:45 p. m. Monday when he was knocked down on M avenue between Second and Third streets by a car driven by L. Stumpenhaus.

In reporting the accident to the police, the driver said he was driving slowly and that children were playing in the street. One ran in front of his car, and he swerved to the left, his car swiping the child and knocking him to the pavement. Mr. Stumpenhaus reported that he picked the boy up, called the doctor, had him examined and paid the bill.

MURDER HEARING SET
PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 28 (AP)—The probe into the slaying of James Conner in a labor riot here Aug. 20 will shift next week from police investigation rooms to the court rooms.

At a conference of prosecutors and defense attorneys it was decided late yesterday that hearings will start September 5 for the 28 men charged with first degree murder in connection with the slaying.
