

Today We Pay Tribute to—

Earl L. Evans, 27, coxswain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Evans of 1966 Q avenue, who is with the amphibious forces of the U. S. navy, and has spent a year and a half in the Pacific area. He attended Riveria school and graduated from the local high school in 1941. He enlisted in December, 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Puckett of La Grande have received a letter from their son, Winton H. Puckett, radio man on a destroyer with the Pacific fleet, advising them of some of his experiences in several of the major engagements against the Japanese.

He said his ship was in action at Saipan, Tinian, Guam, the Philippines, and other points. The craft also was among those caught in a typhoon.

Before he entered the service, Puckett was a telegrapher for the Union Pacific in La Grande. His wife, who formerly lived here, now resides in Portland.

State Leader Of Eastern Star Is Hope Chapter Guest

Mrs. Catherine E. Felger of Portland, associate conductress of the Eastern Star grand chapter of Oregon, was the honor guest at the meeting of Hope chapter last night in the Masonic hall, and also conducted a school of instruction for officers.

George T. Cochran, past patron of the grand chapter of Oregon and present member of the jurisprudence committee, also was present. Mrs. Felger was given a floral design and presented with a gift by the courtesy girls and Mrs. Ruth Dahlstrom, marshal. Mrs. Gladys Maxwell sang "Daisies Will Tell" during the degree.

Visitors were Mrs. Netta Eakin of Corvallis and Mrs. Laura Grande Ronde Valley chapter of Union. Mrs. Ella Russell was French, associate matron of welcomed back after her recent illness.

Mrs. Mildred Winters, worthy matron, and Bruce Morehead, worthy patron, presided. Mrs. Florence Bacon was a pro-tem officer.

The room was decorated with bowls of daffodils and spring flowers. A social hour followed the meeting and school of instruction during which the lights were turned out and the tea table brought in, brilliantly lighted with white tapers and centered with a large basket of spring flowers. Mrs. Marie Ritter and Mrs. Myrtle Hill presided at the coffee urns.

Refreshment committee chairman was Mrs. Myrtle Salmon and members of her committee were Lucille Dixon, Bess Gardner, Atrilla Ingerson, Pauline Lederle, Gladys Harris, Fay Bailie, Tom Salmon, H. E. Dixon, Walter Ingerson and Thomas Harris.

The meeting of Hope chapter to be held on April 11 will feature initiation of candidates.

Meeting Held By Pioneer's Daughters

Mrs. Orin Larson was hostess to the Daughters of Utah Pioneers Wednesday evening in her home.

Mrs. Otis Veal presented the lesson, "Indian Wars in Utah." Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Horace J. Nelson.

Ann Sothern Has New 'Maisie' Role

Ann Sothern and John Hodlak have the leading roles in the current attraction at the Liberty theater, "Maisie Goes to Reno," the humorous story of the Reno vacation of a girl aircraft welder.

Maisie becomes involved with a gang of forgers and with Hodlak, a gambler who enters the picture when she seeks to help the wife of a soldier who is being victimized by the forgers.

More than 350 cities in the United States now have direct air express service as compared with a total of 85 a decade ago.

Mrs. Robert Clark Is Hostess As Church Group Meets

A general meeting of the Women's society for Christian service of the First Methodist church was held yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Robert Clark, with Mrs. Frank Jasper, as chairman.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. W. M. Pierson. Mrs. Emma Kiddle presented the devotionals on the theme "Hast Thou Not Known." H. E. Dixon, spoke on the trial of Christ from a lawyer's viewpoint. Readings were presented by Mrs. A. W. Lefel and Mrs. Etha Wallisinger.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee. The next meeting will be held with the Wesleyan and evening circles at 8 p. m., April 17, in the Neighborhood clubhouse.
