Red Cross Work For Service Men Told Church Group

The Wesleyan Circle of the First Methodist church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Adler, with Mrs. Harvey Carter, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lester Van Blokland and Mrs. William Bark.

The highlight of the meeting was a talk by Miss Jean Williams on the Red Cross and its service to the armed forces.

Mrs. H. I. Hettrick gave the devotionals, using as her title "We Acknowledge Thee to be Lord".

Miss Berta Lloyd, Miss Evelyn Masten, Mrs. P. O. Sigler and Mrs. Samuel Walker, were welcomed as new members.

Guests were Mrs. Freeman Dull, Mrs. Joseph Gaiser, Mrs. Roy McKown, Mrs. I. S. Motz, Mrs. Fred Patton, Mrs. Frank Tyler, Mrs. Emerson Renzie, Mrs. Roy Skeen, Mrs. Herbert Ravis, Mrs. Forest Zirkle and Miss Williams.

Daffodils and pussy willow were used throughout the rooms for decoration, and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

An invitation was extended to all members and guests to attend the combined meeting of all the circles in the Neighborhood club house, April 17.

The next meeting of the Wesleyan circle will be May 8, with Mrs. George Moats.

Royal Neighbors Have Card Party

Eleven tables of pinocle were arranged at a recent card party of the Royal Neighbors in the Neighborhood club house.

Prizes were won by Alma War and Ed Hoffman for high score, Ella Gulzow and Ernest Case for fourth, and traveling prize went to Melba Metsker.

Bertha Johnson, chairman, and her committee including Ella Koeter, Marian Hofmann, Aven Wilson and Erma England, served refreshments.

New Officers Are Chosen By High School P-TA Unit

Mrs. Estelle Garrison was elected president of the high school parent-teachers association last night when the group met in the school for the final meeting of the school year.

Other officers for the coming year were elected and installed as follows: Mrs. Mildred Snider, first vice-president; Mrs. Reid Blacker, second vice-president; Mrs. Roy Skeen, secretary; Mrs. R. E. Gerards, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Greene, historian.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Ehlers led the community singing and the high school string ensemble, under the direction of O. P. Weigel, presented a group of numbers.

Mrs. H. A. Decker, retiring president, was presented with a Parent-Teacher pin by Principal Ralph Jones, in recognition of her work during the past year.

Two awards were earned by the study group of this unit, one from the state president for completing the state course, and the other from the national association for using the national parent-teacher magazine. The units also leads the county in the number of subscriptions to the national publication.

Members of the faculty of Eastern Oregon college were guests, and the freshmen mothers were hostesses. Refreshment were served.

An announcement was made of the annual senior reception which will be May 18 following the commencement exercises.

MOLYBDENUM PRODUCTION
Bulk of the world's supply of molybdenum, one of the most important of alloys, is produced at Climax, Colo. It was widely used for the first time during World War I.

UNCLE SAM TO HAND OUT 44,200,050 EXTRA RED POINTS
The greatest windfall of extra red points ever is going this month, and each month following, to American housewives throughout the country.

44 million extra red points, approximately, will be handed out by most dealers to customers who turn in used fats in a great Victory drive for this essential of medicines, gunpowder, synthetic rubber, soaps, paints and a hundred other necessities on the battlefield and home front. For each pound of fats turned in, every housewife is entitled to 2 red points.

The need for used fats is still urgent. Women are urged to save every drop, every spoonful of grease possible and keep saving until Final Victory over both Germany and Japan.
