

Veterans Groups Honor Members At Birthday Party

The United Spanish War Veterans camp and auxiliary held their quarterly birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August P. Nelson recently, with a chicken dinner and birthday cake featuring the occasion.

A roll call of members having birthdays during the first quarter of the year was accompanied by the lighting of a candle on the cake for each one. They were H. E. Coolidge of Stevensville, Mont., and Guy Baker, who is in the veterans' hospital in Walla Walla. Adolph Sonnenburg, Frank Torbrack, A. C. Parker, Miss Marion Nelson, Lillian Egert, who is in Portland, Florence Prescott, Mrs. Nelson and Anna Pitt.

A candle also was lighted for Glen John, junior past commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who with Mrs. John were the special guests. His birthday occurs in January.

F. M. Rich, department inspector, paid a surprise visit to the group. The members celebrated Muster Day which is April 21, by again taking the oath which was administered by William E. Ross, camp commander.

Queen's Ball of LDS To Be Held Tomorrow Night

The annual Queen's Ball will be held at 8:30 p.m. Friday, in the LDS first ward recreation hall.

Elma Larson, queen of the Green and Gold ball, will be presented, escorted by Capt. Walter Buckley.

A feature of the event will be a floor show. All members and their friends are invited.

Face Cream Can't Be Used as Base

By ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Writer. A lot of shifty noses and messy make-ups are plights that could be averted if women would not use a face cream as a powder base.

That's Hollywood's Perc Westmore, studio make-up man, speaking, who explains that under stress of exertion or emotion face creams liquefy on the skin, wreck a make-up or let loose a shine. They do, according to our expert, because they are created at a melting point of body temperature for quick cleansing and lubrication; are not intended to be used as a powder base.

Those creams or liquids that are intended to be used as a powder base, says Westmore, are so formulated that they can absorb oil excretions and a certain amount of perspiration. To use that kind is to be safe against a streaked or runny make-up or an overwhelming shine.

Legion Auxiliary Hears Discussion Of Pan-American Art

The American Legion auxiliary met last evening in the small ballroom of the Sacajawea hotel for their regular meeting.

Since April is child welfare month and Pan-American month, Mrs. Beatrice Young, chairman of Pan-American month, arranged the program, presenting George Nightingale of the college art department, who talked on Pan-American art. He displayed pictures of Mexican artists.

O. P. Weil of the high school music department, presented two of his grade school students in violin duets.

Mrs. Ray Ragsdale, a guest, spoke on camp and hospital activities, and agreed to assist Mrs. O. B. Maxam in sending the auxiliary's gifts to McCaw hospital. The auxiliary is sponsoring the April birthday party in one of the wards at the hospital and members are to take cookies, and gifts to the USO, April 17. The articles will be shipped to the hospital that afternoon.

It was reported that 11 members of the auxiliary assisted in sorting used clothing for the current drive, and it was announced that Red Cross sewing will be done by the members on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

Mrs. Miles Fallow was chairman of the committee that served refreshments and were in charge of the social hour.

Lud Denny Solves the Locust Problem

Lud Denny may not be much of a farmer, but most folks allow he's pretty smart at solving other people's problems. Like Alvin Blake's locusts.

For years Alvin has been trying to get rid of a grove of locusts. They aren't doing any good, but they annoy Alvin. Every time he goes to his grove, up they shoot again.

"What'll I do about them locusts?" Alvin asks Lud. "Well, if you can't get rid of 'em," says Lud, "I'd say you better get to like 'em."

Church Group Has Business Meeting

The Women's society for Christian Service of the Fir street Methodist church yesterday afternoon held their business meeting in the parsonage.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. W. E. Saunders, the president. Quarterly reports were made and it was announced that $20.00 had been received from the rummage sale. Reports were given on calls made to sick and strangers and on flowers sent to members, and also on clothing for the national drive.

The annual Mother and Daughter dinner was set for May 8 at 6:30 p. m., in the church.

After the business meeting Rev. Floyd White spoke on the war in Europe.

Lud Denny Solves the Locust Problem

From where I sit, that's sound philosophy—applied to people just as much as locust trees. You can't always change folks to your way of thinking—some may prefer beer to butter, or a double harness to a single one—but you can get to like them (if you take the trouble). And first thing you know, the little differences don't matter.

Legion Auxiliary Leaders Confer With U. S. Leader

Mrs. Charles B. Gilbert of Norwich, Conn., national president of the American Legion auxiliary, is in Pendleton today on an official visit to the auxiliary units in Eastern Oregon.

She will confer with district leaders on the three-fold project assumed by the auxiliary throughout the nation, as their contribution to the rehabilitation program for returning veterans.

Mrs. Gilbert also will visit McCaw hospital in Walla Walla.

Going from La Grande to Pendleton for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas.

Mrs. Wilkins, district president of the auxiliary, will go to Portland for the activities planned by the auxiliary tomorrow, when preparations have been made for Mrs. Gilbert to launch a ship.

The La Grande unit of the auxiliary is planning to contribute substantially to the support of a national program to aid disabled veterans, especially those who have lost limbs.

The program includes funds for the purchase of dual-controlled automobiles in which these men can be trained to drive; a fund of $10,000 for research work in prosthetic appliances, and a fund of about

Women Smarter Than Men? Could Be! Or Maybe They Just Study Harder

EUGENE, Ore. April 12 (UP)—Women seem to be smarter than men, at least on the University of Oregon campus.

Or else they study harder. When the grade points were added up for the winter term just concluded, the women's clubs had the best mark, non-organization women were next, women as a whole third, then in order, women's sororities, women's dormitories, non-organization men, all men, men's dormitories and men's clubs.

For the third straight year, University house, a women's cooperative, won first place with an average of 2.93 grade points. The house scored 2.81 for the fall term and 3.0 for the spring term last year.

Highland house was second with 2.83, the same position it held last year, while Hilyard house was again third, with 2.73.

The women's sorority, Delta Gamma, headed Greek organizations the second consecutive term with 2.68.

Eastern Star Has Initiation Ceremony

Hope chapter of Order of Eastern Star conferred the initiatory degree upon four candidates during the meeting last night in the Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hatmaker were visitors.

Mrs. Mildred Winters, worthy matron, announced the next meeting, April 25, has been designated as friendship night, when members of chapters in surrounding communities will be guests.

Mrs. Herbert Davies Is Hostess As WSCS Group Meets

Circle No. 2 of the Women's society for Christian service of the First Methodist church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Davies.

Mrs. W. P. Ballard, president, conducted the meeting, and devotionals were given by Mrs. Frank Jasper. The lesson, "Comparative Religion," was presented by Mrs. Etha Wallsinger and Mrs. I. S. Motz.

Assisting Mrs. Davies in serving refreshments were Mrs. Ray Fuller and Mrs. E. R. Head. The next meeting will be May 9, in the home of Mrs. Lucien Whealy, 803 M avenue.

Sorority To Meet Saturday Evening

Delta Kappa Gamma will meet at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the home of Mrs. Mary Heessler, Walla.

with Mrs. Norma Mayger as co-hostess. Part of the evening will be devoted to preparing a box of gifts to go to McCaw hospital at Walla Walla.

Foreign Dishes with an American Accent

For variety and zest why not prepare the famous dishes of other countries? You'll find they offer subtle, delicate flavor... appealing to the whole family. Here are three recipes for famous international dishes, none of which makes inroads on your ration books.

RUSSIAN BORSCH
2 lbs. beef stew meat 1 cup finely diced onion
2 1/2 tsp. salt 2 cups thinly sliced celery
1/2 tsp. allspice 2 cups canned tomatoes
4 cups coarsely grated raw beets 3 cups finely shredded cabbage
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup finely diced green pepper or cut parsley

Slowly cook meat with salt and allspice in cold water to cover 3 hours. Strain; measure broth, adding enough water to make 4 cups. Combine grated beets and lemon juice. Cook green pepper, onion and celery in just enough boiling water to cover 15 minutes; add cabbage, beets and tomatoes; cook 15 minutes longer. Drain vegetables thoroughly; add vegetables to broth; heat to boiling. Serve with shredded or plain sour cream; sprinkle with parsley. Serves 6 generously.

MEXICAN CHILI BEANS
2 cups dried pink or red beans 1 bud garlic
2 medium-size onions 3/4 cups cooked tomatoes
1 large green pepper or 2 small chili peppers 1 tsp. salt
1 to 2 tbsps. chili powder

Pick over beans; wash; place beans in large kettle; add water to cover; partly cover kettle. Cook slowly 1 hour. Add sliced onions, peppers, minced garlic, tomatoes, and salt. Continue cooking slowly about 2 hours longer, or until beans are tender but still hold their shape. Add more water as needed to keep beans well covered with liquid. Add chili powder to taste just before serving. Serves 6 generously.
