In the cabarets, at the Red Cross Rainbow corner and along the boulevards swarming with khaki the reaction was heartfelt.

At fashionable Ciro's the band was silenced and the lead- er read a brief announcement of Mr. Roosevelt's death. All allied troops left immediately.

A tank brigade sergeant on furlough tried to get through to his commander officer to arrange to return to the front.

"I voted for him four times for president," he said. "Since I can't vote for him a fifth time, the least I can do is to go back up there and fight for him."

Americans Invade Last Jap Outpost In Philippines

MANILA, April 13 (UP)— American invasion troops battled inland today on Bohol, the last of the major Philippine islands held by the Japanese.

Elements of the veteran Ameri- can division landed on the south- west corner of Bohol, which lies between Cebu and Leyte island in the central Philippines, Wed- nesday against light resistance.

Warships and planes covered the assault forces as they went ashore and drove rapidly inland to seize the town of Tagbilaran. Although most of the Japanese garrison on Bohol was believed to be in the vicinity of Tagbilaran, the American troops met only slight opposition.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said his troops, aided by guerilla forces, were moving rapidly in an attempt "to secure control of the entire island before the surprised enemy could rally his strength."

MacArthur's communique also disclosed that troops of the 14th corps made another 30-mile ad- vance down the eastern coast of Luzon from Atimonan to Calauag in the Bicol peninsula.

Early and Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, the president's phy- sician, brought the tragic news to her sitting room. McIntire of course had not expected anything to happen to Mr. Roosevelt, else he would have been in Warm Springs instead of here.

The president has "slipped away" they told her.

"I am more sorry for the peo- ple of the country and the world than I am for us," Mrs. Roose- velt said.

President's Death Causes Stock Drop

NEW YORK, April 13 (UP)— Stocks dipped momentarily at the opening today on the death of President Roosevelt and then resumed their rise for the fourth consecutive session.

Volume increased on the re- covery with the utility depart- ment surging the greatest group turnover. This section ac- counted for about one-third of all the business done on the ex- change. The utility average rose
