NAZISM TOTTERS AS ALLIES CLOSE IN—This, the latest map of the European battle zones, shows how the American, British and Russian forces are closing in on the Nazis in central Germany. Three American armies are reported smashing defenses of Berlin, Leipzig and Dresden, one being reported in striking distance of the capital and expected to enter the ruined city at any moment. Reinforcements for this Ninth army vanguard were today pouring across the Elbe river between Barby and Magdeburg.

First and Third army troops cut the route between Berlin and the Hitler "last stand" region in the Bavarian Alps and British legions are reported closing on Hamburg, Wilhelmshaven and Emden, great German naval centers.

La Grande Pays Silent Tribute To Roosevelt Memory

Land said all American merchant ships throughout the world have been ordered to lower their flags for 30 days.
In the Pacific, American battleships will also observe the flag-lowering tribute where battle conditions permit. In Europe, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower proclaimed a 30-day mourning for the armed forces.
Postoffice shortened their day to end at noon.
New York's only formal memorial service was held in City Hall park. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university, a life-long republican, was the speaker.
Most state and municipal governments closed their civic departments until Monday. Municipal buildings in Hyde Park and Poughkeeps, county seat of Mr. Roosevelt's beloved Dutchess county, were draped in purple and black.
Churches and synagogues planned for unprecedented numbers of Saturday worshippers for moments of prayer throughout the day.

Russian Armies Reported Only 26 Miles From Berlin

levelled on German orders and the women and children taken into slavery.
Lt. Hans Labocek, German correspondent first to report the start of the Red army's Vistula-Oder offensive on Jan. 12, said that between Stettin and the Sudeten mountains "the enemy is trying to smash the German dam on the eastern front with every tank and every man at his disposal."
Labocek, indicating that the die is cast for the showdown battle in the east, said that when the fighting mounted to full fury, as he evidently expected it to do momentarily, "then we must realize that the final decision is at stake."
Hours earlier the German high command said the "enemy continued his offensive preparation in Silesia and on the lower Oder"—the same stretch of eastern Germany referred to by Labocek.
The pigstails which were so common in China years ago are now almost extinct.

Nation Pays Final Homage to Memory of Franklin Roosevelt

sixth psalm, "God is our hope and strength," and the 131st psalm, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills."
St. John's church is the "President's church." It was to this little chapel, across Lafayette square from the White House, that Mr. Roosevelt went to pray for guidance the morning he took the oath of office, March 4, 1933.
Favorite Hymn is Sung
The lessons were read by the Rev. Howard S. Wilkinson, rector of St. Thomas church, and another of the president's favorite hymns was sung, the old ringing "Faith of Our Fathers! Living Still..." Then Bishop Dun prayed:
"O God of peace... remember thy servant, Franklin Delano..."
"Strengthen those on whom have fallen new responsibilities in the high tasks of government..."
"Watch over the men and women of our forces, by sea, by land and in the air..."
"Quicken and knit together in common loyalty the wills of this whole people..."
"Keep us in this land and those peoples who struggle at our side, steadfast and united in the unfinished task of war..."
Nation Pays Homage
At the hour of the last service the whole nation was paying homage to Mr. Roosevelt. The armed forces, scattered to every corner of the earth, paused for silent prayer—unless engaged in actual combat. Factories fell silent and the great wheels of war production were stilled for a fleeting moment.
The ceremony brought to a close a day in the capital as solemn and silent as could be remembered. The mourning of the people was deep. Not a few recalled the curious circumstance that just 80 years ago to the very day the nation had plunged into mourning for another war leader, Abraham Lincoln.
The president's casket arrived in Washington just before 11 a.m. from Georgia.
A mile-long procession, led by honor contingents of the fighting forces, escorted the casket on its last journey to the White House.
It was a hot and sultry day—much as it had been that exact 80 years ago when the country lost another wartime leader.

Death Toll Grows As Wreckage Of Twister Is Cleared

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 14 (UP)—A least 111 persons were dead as the result of tornadoes which ripped through Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri Thursday night and if reports from isolated communities are confirmed the total may exceed 129, disaster officials said today.
Rescue squads continued to dig through the ruins of dozens of shattered communities for missing. Late reports showed that the series of twisters had struck 14 separate areas, killing 88 persons in central and southeastern Oklahoma, 17 in western Arkansas and six in southwestern Missouri. More than 700 persons were injured.
Property losses will run into millions of dollars, officials said.
The tornado that struck Antlers, a village of 3,200 population in southeastern Oklahoma, left the greatest havoc in its wake. A large portion of the business section was levelled and scores of homes were flattened.

City News In Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Staker have returned from Los Angeles where they have spent the past few months, and have resumed operation of their business here.
F. H. Cosner, Ladd canyon farmer, and his family were to leave today for Irrigon, where they will engage in raising field crops, including watermelons and potatoes. They have lived in the Grande Ronde valley for nine years during which Cosner has been engaged in the dairy business.
George Francis McCann, who yesterday was fined $15 in the municipal court by City Judge C. M. Humphreys on a charge of drunkenness, last night was again arrested by city police on a similar charge. He was sent to jail for the night and today was ordered to leave the city.

School Leaders Meet Here For Area Conferences

mentary school principals of the teachers' association, and the state department of education.
The conference theme was "Improving the Administration and Organization of the Elementary Schools."
Speakers were George W. Lusby, president of elementary principals' association, Putnam, Manassas, James Turnbull, superintendent of schools at Ontario, Fred J. Patton, superintendent of schools in La Grande, Millar, and Dr. Ivan C. Milhous, of the state department of education.
Harvey Carter, president of the association, presided at the session. Music was directed by Mrs. Pauline Johnson and Larry Brunette. national anthem, Wallace, hat on his breast, crossed the White House lawn and stood alone under a tree. As he watched the casket was carried in. As the anthem ceased, Wallace dropped his hat on his breast and slowly walked across the White House grounds.
