Wall Street Rallies After Sharp Decline

NEW YORK, April 26 (UP) — Stocks suffered their worst decline since March 26 in the early trading today and then rallied substantially from the lows to finish irregular.

Trading was fairly active on the decline and in smaller volume later when the list steadied.
Early selling was attributed to further talk of possible margin increases and the subsequent recovery followed a statement by Secretary Morgenthau that there might be some action soon on tax relief.

Union Pacific rose 3/4 points from its low to a new high for the year when its report for the first quarter showed net profit at $3.55 a share compared with $3.39 a share in the corresponding quarter of last year. This recovery helped other rails regain part of early losses that had ranged to more than 2 points.

Aircrafts displayed outstanding strength from the early part of the session.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 26 (UP)— Grain futures rallied to moderate gains after early easiness on the boards of trade today. The permit order governing movement of grain from the midwest added an unknown market factor. Some buying, however, stemmed from the belief that grain transport would be hampered by the order.

Rye made a strong advance on the close, finishing up 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 cents a bushel. Wheat finished the day up 1/2 to one cent; corn up 1/4 to 3/4; oats up 3/4 to 1 1/4, and barley up 5/8 to one cent.

Truman Approves Principles of CVA

WASHINGTON, April 26 (UP) —Sen. Hugh Mitchell, D., Wash., said today President Truman has given him "an endorsement in principles" of his bill to establish a Columbia valley authority.

"The president did not necessarily endorse my bill specifically, but he certainly gave me the green light to push ahead and move toward a Columbia valley authority," Mitchell said.

Mitchell talked with Mr. Truman yesterday at the White House and said the president was deeply interested in the meaning of a CVA to the Pacific northwest.

Wife of Marine To Get Unusual Okinawa Souvenir

marines and a year overseas.
He's a veteran of combat and still he's only 17 years old. He has one brother in the marines and another in the army in Germany.

Dick writes letters to movie stars and not long ago he got back a picture of Shirley Temple, autographed to his company just as he had asked her to do.
Dick is very shy and quiet and I had a feeling he must be terribly lonesome. But the other boys say he isn't and that he gets along fine.

One of the marines who drives me around in a jeep whenever I have to go anywhere is Pfc. Buzz Vitore of the Bronx, New York.

Buzz has other accomplishments besides jeep driving. He is known as the Bing Crosby of the marines. If you shut your eyes and don't listen very hard you can hardly tell the difference.

I first met Buzz on the transport coming up to Okinawa. He and a friend would give an impromptu and homegrown concert on deck every afternoon.

They would sit on a hatch in the warm tropical sun and pretty soon there would be scores of marines and sailors packed around them, listening in appreciative silence. It made the trip to war almost like a Caribbean luxury cruise.

Buzz's partner was Pfc. Johnny Marturello of Des Moines, Ia. Johnny plays the accordion. He sings too, but he says as a singer his name is "Frank Not-So-Hotra."

Johnny plays one piece he composed himself. It is a lovely thing. He sent it to the GI publishing co., or branch or whatever it is in the states and I feel positive if it could be widely played it would become a hit.

The piece is a sentimental song called "Why Do I Have to Be Here Alone?" Johnny wrote it

British Move To Speed Security Parley Planned

a satisfactory basis of world co-laboration can be achieved. Mr.
Truman, who is being described by word of mouth hereabouts as "a very firm fellow," reminded the delegates that their task would not be easy when he opened the conference with an address broadcast from Washington.

"We, who have lived through the torture and the tragedy of two world conflicts," he said, "must realize the magnitude of the problem before us. We do not need far-sighted vision to understand the trend of recent history.
Its significance is all too clear.

"With ever-increasing brutality and destruction, modern warfare, if unchecked, would ultimately crush all civilization. We still have a choice between the alternatives: continuation of international chaos—or the establishment of a world organization for the enforcement of peace," the president said.

Formation of Cub Unit is Planned

Rev. R. S. Miller of Nampa, Idaho, scouting director of the Nazarene church for the Idaho-Oregon district, will address a meeting of mothers of Cub scouts at the Nazarene church, Birch and Y avenues, at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Rev. O. A. Crofford, the pastor, invited all mothers having boys between the ages of 9 and 12 years to attend. Steps will be taken to organize the cub scout program on the north side of the city at that meeting.

for his girl back home, but he grins and admits they are "on the outs."

Johnny came ashore on Love day and his accorion followed two days after. Now in his off moments, he sits at the side of the road and plays for bunches of Okinawans that the marines have rounded up. They seem to like it.

Johnny had a lot of trouble with his accorion down south in the tropical climates. Parts would warp and stick and mold and he continuously had to take the thing apart and dry and clean it.

By it was worth the trouble.
It had kept Johnny from getting too homesick. He brought it along with him from America just for his own morale. He knew the accorion would probably be ruined by the climate, but he didn't care.

"I can always get a new accorion," Johnny said, "but I can't get a new me."

Former Premier Of France Freed

LONDON, April 26 (UP)—A Soviet communique reported today that former French Premier Eduard Herriot, twice reported dead during this war, has been freed by the Red army.

No details of Herriot's liberation were given immediately.

Herriot was placed under house arrest by the Vichy government in December, 1942, after he warned Laval against trying to push France into war "against our allies."

Twice during his confinement he was reported dead by axis radios, which later retracted the reports. At the time of the liberation of Paris, it was reported he had been removed to Germany in mid-August, 1944.
