Demonstration of Day in School Is Staged by Children

Children of second grade of the J. H. Ackerman elementary school today invited the other children and their parents and friends to a program, "A Day in the Second Grade."

They told and showed many of the things they have been doing during the year. The first scene was "In the Morning" showing all the children in the room at work. During the language activities period they dramatized the story of "The Three Little Pigs."

The children taking part were Barbara Carter, mother pig; Benny Neer, first little pig; John Williamson, second little pig; Richard Arends, third little pig; Gary Wood, the man with the straw; Fred Booher, the man with the sticks; Vern Bean, the man with the bricks, and Lynne Olsen, the wolf.

For the physical education period they presented a May pole dance. Participating were Roger Williams, Ann Lynch, Janete Sherwood, Joan Garity, Tim Todd, Rita Glen, Gaylee Briggs, David Sigler, Elaine Barney, Kay Rundell, Carol Norby, Dale Standley, Dickie Raff, Jeannine McPherson.

Announcers were Ann Lynch and Vern Bean. Mrs. Freeda Gray is the supervisor for the second grade and

Adventists Plan District Session

COVE, May 2 (Special)—Preparations are being completed by the Adventist church for the annual district meeting May 4 to 8.

Elder G. S. Belleau will be the speaker at the opening session. Other speakers will include Elder Klement, Elder V. G. Anderson and Dr. George F. Shankel.

Twenty-four young people from Cove attended the youth fellowship district meeting Sunday in Union.

There were 29 persons present at the annual junior-senior dinner Friday evening. Decorations were in a patriotic theme, with a White House as the centerpiece.

Mrs. Thomas Towle entertainer Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Adrian See and family of La Grande. Their son, Norman, who is home on furlough from overseas, also was a guest.

Crystal Rebekah lodge members voted to make a cash donation to the current cancer fund drive, when they met last night at the IOOF hall. Mrs. W. H. Gooderham, noble grand, presided. Plans were made for a past noble grand's night to be held June 6. Guessing contests were conducted after the meeting.
