Garden Party Theme Is Adapted to May Day Dinner of Women's Group

A garden soiree was the theme of the annual May dinner that closed the year's programs of the Young Women's Educational association Tuesday evening in the social rooms of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Lester Blokland and Mrs. Virgil Wallsinger were in charge of the event.

During a business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. Bert Hanson, the nominating committee report was presented by Mrs. Ruby Skien, nominating Mrs. Harvey Carter for president, Miss Eva Daugherty for vice-president, and Maude Wallsinger for secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hanson expressed appreciation to the 28 officers and committee chairmen for their work during the past year, and presented each with a gift.

Mrs. Hanson in return, was presented with a gift from the organization, Mrs. Lyle Johnson making the presentation.

At the dinner table each guest found at her place a May day basket of flowers and lacy fans. The fans, it was later explained in the program, depicted the spirit of friendship throughout the world.

Mrs. John Dahlstrom announced the standing chairmen and officers who served during the year, who were honored guests of the evening. Dinner music was provided by the college orchestra under the direction of Dr. Henry Ehlers.

Lois Hill and Dorothy Swart, accompanied by Ehlers, played a flute duet. Doris Blokland read about the etiquette of various groups, the vivacious French being enacted by Jean Williams in the greeting of a guest, Marie Ledbitton, in the French manner, and the formal Chinese being depicted by Ann Johnson and Mrs. Fred Henning, with Mrs. William Britt assisting in the role of the tea vendor.

Mrs. Tom Rubkman, portraying Emily Post gave a lecture on her "favorite topic" etiquette. The Modernettes, under the direction of Larry Brunette, presented three vocal arrangements. Customs in marriage were told in a Spanish dance arrangement by Kathryn Tsiatsos and Janet Coats. Etiquette of the animal kingdom was portrayed in a cat and dog acrobatic dance by Kay Ruckman and Carolyn Brachet.

Railway Groups Are Entertained At Dinner Party

More than 80 members of Union Pacific Old Timers No. 17 and the auxiliary were present for a dinner party last evening in the depot club rooms.

The tables were decorated with miniature May poles and bowls of tulips and forsythia. Mrs. Harry Folsom and L. H. Norton welcomed the guests.

L. A. Collins, general superintendent of the northwest district, spoke on experiences of the early days of railroading. Angus McAllister, general superintendent of the northwest district, and former city manager of La Grande, and Harry A. Withrow, secretary-treasurer of the general committee, also spoke.

Mrs. Lewis Wetzel gave a resume of the history of the local auxiliary.

Musical numbers were presented by three of the log scalars, Jack Aker, Bob Aker and Mert LeGore. Marlene Roe sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Della Parkinson-Schrock, and readings were presented by Mrs. John M. Miller.

Members of the hostess committee were Mrs. Robert L. Norris, chairman; Mrs. Ward Van Dolah, Mrs. Charles Hoak, Mrs. Everett Walker, Mrs. B. B. Johnson, Mrs. Claude Puckett, Mrs. Ed Hall, Mrs. D. B. Lefebvre, Mrs. Denver Charlton and Mrs. Harry M. J. Turner.

Guild Activities Ended for Summer

St. Peter's guild members gathered yesterday afternoon at the guild hall for their last meeting of the season. The next will be September 5.

They contributed $5 donation to the cancer fund, and Mrs. Henry Hill reported on the flowers and cards committee.

It was announced that St. Peter's parish will have a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 14, when Bishop Remington of Pendleton will be a guest.

Mrs. Ona Scriber was appointed to represent the guild on the Do-Nut committee and it was arranged to provide food for the hut the 18th day of each month.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Tutveson and Mrs. Hill.

The White Temple Baptist church in Portland May 7 and 8. Refreshments were served by Mrs. M. T. Walter, Mrs. S. Kasinger and Mrs. Dierks.

Society Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds have returned from Salem where they spent four days visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Marion (Bud) Reynolds. He is having a 30-day leave after extensive active duty in the Pacific area.

Mrs. E. G. Harvison has sold her apartment house at 1511 Adams avenue to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peebler, and is moving to an apartment at 1307 Penn avenue. Mrs. Harvison's daughter, Kathryn, a Portland school teacher, will come to La Grande for the summer months to attend Eastern Oregon college, and in the fall they will move to Portland to make their home.

Miss Edith Lovan has returned to La Grande after visiting the past week with her sister, Mrs. Walter McKay and family in Juntura. Her niece, Janice McKay, returned with her for an indefinite stay.

Miss Ethel Daniels Becomes Bride in Florida Ceremony

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Ethel Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Daniels of La Grande to Frank Cromwell, pharmacist, mate first class, U. S. navy, on April 25 in Jacksonville, Fla.

The double ring service was read by Rev. E. H. Shaw. Mildred Roberts of Jacksonville was the bride's attendant, and John Terrill was the groomsmen.

The bride chose for her wedding ensemble a pastel yellow eyelet embroidery frock with a white Juliet cap and white accessories.

The bride is a former resident of La Grande and Wallowa, and has made her home in Spokane for several years. Cromwell in civilian life, is a pharmacist in Detroit.

University Women To Have Luncheon

The American Association of University Women will have a luncheon meeting at 12:30 o'clock Saturday in the Stein Coffee shop. A Disney picture, "The Bridge," on South America, will be shown. Reservations should be made with Mrs. C. L. Gilstrap or Mrs. L. L. McBride by Friday evening.

Country Club Group Meets at Luncheon

The Wednesday luncheon for the women's division of the La Grande Country club was held yesterday at the club house with Mrs. James Kisselburgh as a guest.

Mrs. Frank Ralston was selected to represent the group in the Blue Mountain council of the camp and hospital unit of the American Red Cross.

It was announced that the May eclectic tournament has been started and that golfers have through May 16 to qualify for ladder places.

Last week's winners in golf sweepstakes were Mrs. Fred Lutzer and Mrs. Glenn Larison, and bridge winners were Mrs. H. E. Dixon and Mrs. A. J. Stange.

YES, SALLY HAD THE ANSWER!

YOU GIRLS TALK ABOUT THE PRICE OF FOOD! WHY, I REMEMBER WHEN . . .

WE KNOW NOW! NOWADAYS NO ONE EXPECTS PRICES TO BE SO CHEAP.

BUT AS I WAS SAYING, SALLY, THIS FAMILY SPENDS TOO MUCH FOR GROCERIES AND I SWEAR, I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT!

IN MY PART OF TOWN, SISTER SUSAN, WE HAVE A STORE WHERE I SAVE MONEY ON FOOD!

AND I NOTICED A STORE JUST LIKE IT, AS I CAME ALONG THE STREET DOWN THERE.

IF SALLY CAN SAVE MONEY THERE, IT MUST BE QUITE A STORE! I BETTER FIND OUT ABOUT IT, SUSAN!

YOU SEE, IT IS QUITE A STORE JUST LIKE AT THE END OF THE MONTH YOU'LL FIND ITS COST YOU LESS!

I HAD TO BE LED RIGHT INTO 'SAFeway' TO SEE THE ANSWER!
