US Supreme Court Gives Setback to Nevada Divorces

WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—The supreme court held today that each state may decide for itself whether to recognize the validity of the six-weeks residence under which Nevada grants divorces.

The 6 to 3 ruling, written by Justice Felix Frankfurter, affirmed the convictions of a Pineola, N. C., couple for "bigamous cohabitation."

The couple—O. B. Williams and Lillie Shaver Hendrix—twice were convicted in North Carolina courts.

They went to Nevada in 1940, established residences there for six weeks, obtained uncontested divorces at Las Vegas from former spouses, then got married and returned to North Carolina. The state of North Carolina refused to recognize their Nevada divorces.

"North Carolina was entitled to find, as she did, that they did not acquire domicile in Nevada and that the Nevada court was therefore without power to liberate the petitioners from amenability to the laws of North Carolina governing domestic relations," the court opinion said.

We're cured now of driving with our fingers crossed. We all feel a little guilty that such a faithful friend should have been so shamefully neglected. Never again!
