

Member's Birthdays Are Celebrated By Crystal Rebekahs

Crystal Rebekah lodge met last night at the IOOF hall for a short lodge session, presided over by Mrs. W. H. Gooderham, and the social hour which followed.

A birthday program was presented by a committee headed by Mrs. Fannie Carter. It was dedicated to members having birthday anniversaries in May.

"The Star Spangled Banner," "America the Beautiful" and "America" were sung by the audience which also joined in the salute to the flag. Readings were given by Mrs. Lucille Ansell, Mrs. Mabel Anson and Mrs. Tom Ruckman. Mrs. Bertha Osborn paid a tribute to the late President Roosevelt and the national prayer was given by Mrs. Ida Beery. A flag drill was presented, during which R. J. Kitchen recited "In Flanders Field," and Mrs. Alma Carroll offered a short prayer.

Members having birthdays were Mrs. William Shade, Elizabeth Grider Allen, Mrs. John Bowery, Mrs. Howard Ball, Mrs. T. H. Gaither, Mrs. Mollie Moss, Mrs. Effie German, Mrs. O. May Noyes, Mrs. Zelpha Doney, Mrs. Cordelia Davis, Mrs. Ethel Dawson, Mrs. Elizabeth March, Mrs. Cynthia Thompson, Mrs. Fred Balms, and Mrs. H. M. Halsey. Fifty-one members and two visitors were present as well as the Odd Fellows who joined the Rebekahs for the program. Refreshments were served in the dining room at tables decorated with spring flowers.

Memorial Service Is Conducted By Eastern Star Group

An impressive memorial service for departed members was held last evening by Hope chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple. Mildred Winters and Bruce Morehead, worthy matron and patron, presided, and pro-term officers were Helen Richardson and Ida Cherry.

The courtesy girls, assisted by Marie Wheeler, Electa, presented a degree, at the close of which Edyth Worley sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."
Among the visitors and members from out of town who were introduced were Martie S. Brown and W. Brown of Santa Ana, Calif., Sylvia McBride, Bessie Lumsden and Jennie Thompson. Marie Sherrill and Mary Folson reported on their recent trip to Waitsburg, Wash., where they attended a meeting of Rainbow chapter.

Eva German, mother advisor of the Rainbow assembly, announced the meeting to be held Monday night, and invited all Eastern Stars and Masons.

Mrs. Winters announced the meeting of Hope chapter June 13th will honor past matrons and patrons. Minnie Zweifel is chairman of the hostess committee.

Officers Are Chosen By Altar Society

Mrs. Clarence Becker was elected president of St. Mary's Altar society at a meeting in the parsonage. Mrs. Dan Turley was elected vice-president, Mrs. Arnold Geber, secretary, and Mrs. Joseph Grant, treasurer.

The group's meetings will be held the second Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p. m. in the USO center, beginning June 13.

Marian Nelson's Betrothal Told as Parents Entertain

Announcement of the betrothal of Miss Marian Nelson to Robert Emmett Jordan was made last evening when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August P. Nelson, entertained at their home.

The wedding will be solemnized June 19 in Our Lady of the Valley Catholic church.

Jordan is the son of the late John P. and Mrs. Marjorie V. Jordan of Seattle. He received his education in that city and is employed as a fireman for Union Pacific in La Grande. Miss Nelson received her education at Sacred Heart academy and La Grande high school and St. Joseph's school of nursing in Tacoma. She is employed at St. Joseph's hospital in La Grande.

The announcement was made with a clever arrangement, a tall pot bearing Jordan's name tied to a nurse's cap inscribed with the name of the bride-elect. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Guests were Mrs. E. P. Shrock, who presented musical numbers, Helen Smith, Dora Morton, Ava Harper, Rexa Winburn, Anetta Johnson, Florence Prescott, and Miss Nelson.

Women of Country Club Have Luncheon

Mrs. George Wilson was introduced as a new member at the Wednesday luncheon of women of La Grande Country club.

Mrs. Bessie Lumsden and Mrs. Heloise Stewart were guests. It was announced that last week's winners at bridge were Mrs. B. W. Tillotson and Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp.

There will be no luncheon or tournament next Wednesday, Memorial day.

Society Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fleshman returned Monday morning from Boise, Ida., where they visited their son, Lt. George Fleshman who is stationed at the Gowen army airfield. They attended church services in the field chapel and were permitted to inspect the bomber on which he is a navigator.

Mrs. Edna Owsley and her granddaughter, Phyllis Sherwood will leave tomorrow for Summer Lake, near Bend, to visit relatives. Mrs. Owsley will spend the summer there, but Phyllis plans to return in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Smythe, who recently sold their farm on the foothill road southeast of La Grande to the Smutz brothers, have moved to The Dalles.

Mrs. Dwight Fleshman, who was released from the Grande Ronde hospital Saturday, was a guest at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fleshman until Monday when she left for her home near Wallawa.

Lynn and Carl Fleshman, of near Wallawa are spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fleshman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter returned Wednesday from a business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Webb are expected to arrive in La Grande this weekend from Portland to visit relatives and friends. He has recently been discharged from the army under the point system. Webb, a former La Grande resident, was employed as a clerk at the Foley hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Turley and their sons today moved into the home at 802 M. avenue, which they recently purchased from Mrs. Edna Seitz. They have sold their property on Highway avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hatmaker.

Inside or Outside Picnics

Picnics and Spring holidays go hand in hand. A novelty all the family will enjoy is a home picnic with a hot dish for the main attraction. Or you may want to pack all the fixin's in the old-fashioned way and let the family prepare their own in the wide open spaces. The suggestions below will give you a head-start for a leisurely day with a minimum amount of time in the kitchen.

Inside Picnic
HOT POTATO SALAD CASSEROLE
Make your favorite potato salad, place in casserole and layer with sliced frankfurters or diced luncheon meat, sliced onions, cooked peas or string beans and dot with mustard and mayonnaise. Top with potato salad and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 30 minutes.

Outside Picnic
SANDWICHES—"Make Your Own"
Take along—
Assorted Bread
Head of lettuce Mayonnaise
Meat or fish salad Hard cooked eggs
Peanut butter and jelly

MACARONI AND CHEESE SALAD
Marinate macaroni in French Dressing. Combine with diced cheese, sliced olives, sliced radishes, diced onion and mayonnaise. Garnish with tomatoes.

Pickles and carrot circles
Devil's food cup cakes with white icing or cookies
Hot Coffee or Lemonade
(Carry lemon juice and sugar in jar. Combine with water and ice at time of picnic.)
