War Dogs Help Soldiers Find Hidden Enemies

By LEE G. MILLER

WITH 25th DIVISION AT BALETE PASS, Luzon—Jim Head used to hunt with falcons in Saudi Arabia. Now he hunts with war dogs on Luzon. And this time it's not birds he's hunting but Japs.

I was chewing the rag with him here. A German shepherd named Captain lay under the cot on which Head sat. Somebody tossed a cigarette on the floor without putting it out.

Head spoke softly: "Captain!"

The dog emerged and stood attentively.

"Put out the cigarette!" said Head.

Captain sniffed and looked around, spotted the smoking butt, slapped a paw on it, and the deed was done.

Captain has other tricks, but Head emphasizes that this stuff is extracurricular and has nothing to do with the war-dog business.

Head—First Lieut. James S. Head, Carlyle, Ill.—is commanding officer of the 26th infantry scout dog platoon. His outfit came over seas in June of '44 and saw action at Biak, Aitape and Morotai before coming to Luzon, where it has been working with the 25th or "Tropic Lightning" division around Balete Pass.

Jim brought 31 dogs to the Pacific. Now there are only 12. Three have been killed—two of them by grenades in the Baletes fighting. Most of the other losses have been due to shellshock.

"Dogs are very sensitive to artillery," Jim said. "We usually give a shellshocked dog to some outfit further back, as a mascot."

A war dog can detect enemy soldiers as far as 800 yards away if the wind is right, Jim said.

The dogs are specialists—some serving as scouts with patrols, some as messengers. They have carried battle messages as far as three miles here. They are also used in sentry duty.

"We've run more than 700 patrols," Jim said. "Until we came

Cleveland Rookie Humbles Tigers In Final Game

NEW YORK, June 6 (UP) — Rookie Charley (Red) Embree made his valedictory appearance with the Cleveland Indians one to be remembered last night by shutting out the Detroit Tigers on six hits, 9 to 0. After the game Embree left for California to be inducted into the armed forces.

Pinch hitter Joe Schultz, third-string Brownie catcher, singled in the ninth to hand the White Sox a 2 to 1 defeat at Chicago. Al (Boots) Hollingsworth, Brownie veterans, pitched a three hitter.

Yanks, Senators Split
The Senators split with the Yankees at Washington on the comeback pitching of little Marjono Pieretti, who gained a 7 to 3 victory after the Yankees took the opener 12 to 3. Pieretti, knocked out Sunday by the White Sox, returned with only a day of rest to pitch a steady nine-hitter.

For the second time in a week Goodwin Rosen's extra base hitting helped the Dodgers to an extra-inning victory, his two-run homer highlighting a three-run rally in the 14th which produced a 6 to 3 win over the Giants at the Polo Grounds. He hit a triple to give the Dodgers a 13-inning victory at Pittsburgh last Thursday.

Ed Heusser ended a three game Pirate winning streak with a 4 to 0 shutout for the Reds, but Max Butcher countered to end Cincinnati's string of victories at nine, with a seven-hit 9 to 1 job in the second game.

The Boston and Philadelphia double bill and Chicago at St. Louis night game were rained out in the National as was Philadelphia at Boston in the American.
