Past Grands Are Complimented By Crystal Rebekahs

Past Noble Grands' night was observed at Crystal Rebekah lodge last night with Mrs. Emma Harding, past noble grand, presiding and all offices filled by past noble grands.

Routine business was transacted. Sixty member, including 38 past noble grands, and five visitors were present. Tribute was paid to the honored group and corsages were presented to those who were holding office for the evening.

After lodge a program was enjoyed. The group sang "America," and Mrs. Alma Carroll and Mrs. J. O. Anson gave readings. Mrs. Julius Clausen played piano solos.

A skit entitled "A Rosedale Sewing Circle in A Business Meeting," was presented by Mrs. Howard Bull, Mrs. Fred Young, Mrs. Ralph Teall, Mrs. Charles Anson, Mrs. Ralph Asla, Mrs. Kenneth Workman, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. H. G. Halsey, Mrs. Lola Carroll and Mrs. Mervin Mortensen.

Closing the program, Mrs. S. A. Robertson sang "The End of A Perfect Day." Mrs. John Bowery and her committee served refreshments at a table decorated with spring flowers. Large bouquets decorated the lodge hall for the meeting.

La Grande Pioneer Returns For Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Huffman of Newton Station, British Columbia, are in La Grande visiting his brother, Marshall Huffman, and will visit at Enterprise with his sister, Mrs. J. H. Dobbin, and with his brother, Guy Huffman. Bert Huffman is an early day resident of Union county, having been an old-time scout, and publisher of a newspaper in La Grande, and an engineer for the O-W railroad here in the 1900's. After leaving La Grande he published the Pendleton East Oregonian for two years. Since 1907 he has made his home in British Columbia.

His last visit to this vicinity was in 1923. Members of the family will hold an open-house reception from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday in the small ballroom of the Sacajawea hotel, so that Mr. and Mrs. Huffman may again meet his friends in the valley.
