Bad Weather May Cut Field For Kentucky Derby
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 8 (UP)—They came down to the money-costing stage of the Kentucky derby today with the weather the deciding factor in the size of the field.
With more rain forecast it was indicated that the field for the 71st annual running of the Blue Grass classic would be cut from 17 probable starters to 13.
The 13 which seemed certain to go were Jeep, Hoop, jr., Pot O' Luck, Alexis, Darby Dieppe, Air Sailor, Fighting Step, Bymeabond, Sea Swallow, Foreign Agent, Tiger Rebel, Misweet and Bert G.
Four May Not Start
Track conditions seem certain to result in the withdrawal of Burning Death, Col. E. R. Bradley's hope for his fifth Kentucky derby victory, as well as Fair Jester and Kenilworth Lad. Jacobs, who did not weather the shipping from New York, was put in the class of doubtful starters, regardless of track conditions.
As they came down to the case of putting up the $500 entry fee or cancelling their colors in the biggest race of the year, Darby Dieppe was winning the belated support of those turf followers who like the horses that prefer heavy going.
But no matter what the conditions of the track come tomorrow evening, it's certain that the customer will choose their mutual favorite from either of the three currently better choices—Jeep, Hoop, jr., and Pot O' Luck.

Italian Premier Delays Resignation
ROME, June 8 (UP)—Premier Ivanoe Bonomi today postponed his expected resignation "for a few more days," although he told his cabinet a new government should be formed quickly.
(The Exchange Telegraph agency reported that Bonomi resigned today but withdrew the resignation at the request of the cabinet and agreed to stay on for two or three days.)
Before he entered the cabinet session this morning, Bonomi said he definitely would resign, but he would not say when.

Braves' Chances Are Boosted by Holmes

NEW YORK, June 8 (UP)—Tommy Holmes is reviving pentant hopes of the Braves today and is one of the most sought after players in the majors with reliable reports saying the Cubs have offered as much as $80,000 for him, possibly to replace Bill Nicholson, their own ace slugger, if he goes into military service.
Holmes made five hits yesterday as the Braves won twice, 3 to 1 and 7 to 3, extending the Phils' losing streak to 11 games, longest of the season. He drove in three runs and scored two himself.
The Giants won a "gift" victory from the Dodgers at the Polo grounds, 10 to 5, scoring eight unearned runs on eight Brooklyn errors. Dodger pitchers also contributed to the delinquency with two wild pitches, seven walks and a hit batsman. Catching Clyde Sukeforth had a passed ball and the winning Giant pitcher, Van Mungo, got into the "spirit" of things with two wild pitches and three walks.
Errors also helped Cincinnati to a 7 to 3 victory at Pittsburgh, three misplays giving the Bucs three runs in the third as veteran Joe Bowman had it easy in winning his second game since coming from the Red Sox.
Cardinals Down Cubs
The Cards topped the Cubs at St. Louis, 6 to 4, to go into second place, Cub third baseman, Stan Hack, made his first error of the season on a hard ground ball after handling 150 chances clearly. Rookie Jack Cregel, with relief help from Harry Breechen, gained his fourth victory. Elvin (Buster) Adams hit a two-run homer, his eighth of the season, for the Cards.
The Browns knocked the White Sox out of the first division for the first time this season, winning two at Chicago, 6 to 0 and 6 to 2.
The Tigers closed in on the leading Yankees, winning 3 to 2 behind Hal Newhouser at Cleveland, to go within a game of first place. Detroit made five of its 11 singles in the seventh to score all its runs.
The Red Sox swept their four games with the Athletics at Boston, winning the finale, 5 to 4, as outfielder Bob Johnson provided the margin with a two-run homer. Bob Garbark broke up the game in the 10th with a bases loaded single which scored Pete Fox. Veteran relief pitcher Mike Ryba was the winner.
New York and Pittsburgh had an open date in the American.
