Natural Beauty Of Oregon Has Big Cash Value

the highways to the popular parts of the state.

But there is still another question—about the maintenance of Oregon's beauties, themselves.

What of the billboards, it is asked, the slums and auto wrecking establishments along the highways? And what of the large forest burns and cut-overs which spoil so many of the virgin forest stands.

There are some organizations in the state devoted to the eradication of this type of thing, such as the Oregon roadside council and the Oregon Coast Highway association.

But it seems to be the consensus of informed opinion that it is up to the individual citizen of Oregon to start and finish what plans may be needed to "clean up" the state, and make it a place we'll be proud to show our neighbors.

County Keeps Pace In Sales Of Bonds

ing made to reach every employed person at places of employment, to insure that no potential buyer is missed in the campaign, which has a higher E bond quota than any of the six loan campaigns in the past.

Railroad Drive Starts
Organization of bond campaign among employees of the shops and stores departments of the Union Pacific railroad here, was announced today by W. C. Perkins, county war finance committee chairman.

Four $25 bonds have been put up as prizes during the drive, for which District Foreman A. Rau is chairman. Serving with Rau are G. L. Waite, Clarence Michel, J. C. Murphy, W. J. Briggs, C. Millinger, N. R. Jordan, A. J. Cook, O. R. Romine and F. F. Yeske.

Former Doorkeeper Of Senate Dies

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9 (UP)—Funeral services will be held Monday for Frank M. Compton, who as doorkeeper of the U. S. senate for many years was intimately acquainted with three vice presidents and many senators. He died in the Portland veterans hospital yesterday at the age of 77 years.

Compton served in the national capital during the vice presidential terms of Charles Dawes, Charles Curtis and John Garner. He was a close friend of Garner. Except for his years in Washington, D. C., Compton had lived in Oregon since 1909.

Passenger Injured In Auto Accident

Mrs. W. P. Rose, 19, was slightly injured yesterday when an automobile in which she was a passenger went out of control and ran into the ditch at the roadside on highway 30, 18 miles west of La Grande.

Mrs. Thomas P. Cawley, 22, of Truckville, Pa., the driver, re-pinned them to the ground about 16 miles north of here yesterday. The elder Parker is survived by his widow and six other children, all of Colville.

Trucker Killed, Boy Injured By Logs

COLVILLE, Wash., June 9 (UP)—Harry Parker, 50, logging contractor, was killed and his 15-year-old son Everett suffered a broken arm and shoulder when logs which they were loading on a truck rolled off a ramp and pinned them to the ground about 16 miles north of here yesterday.

The elder Parker is survived by his widow and six other children, all of Colville.

RUSSIA REVEALS ITS GERMANY ZONE—A map published in Moscow showed the Russian occupation zone as including all areas shaded in this map. Flags mark areas it is believed that British, U. S. and French will occupy. Exact boundaries have not been disclosed.

Demands of Mars Give Cupid Setback GI Brides Face Long Wait To Get To U. S.

LONDON, June 9 (UP)—Four thousand British brides of American GIs have applied for transportation to the United States in the month since V-E day.

But love has no priority on transatlantic shipping. During May the army was able to find passage room for only 80 of the thousands of clamoring GI brides.

There are now 25,000 British wives awaiting transportation to their new homeland, and many of them have been waiting more or less patiently for 18 months.

During that entire period the war shipping situation has been so critical that the army never was able to transport more than 500 women.

The corridors of the American embassy are jammed daily with soldier's wives trying to file visa applications. The quiet decorum of the establishment has been somewhat ruffled by the lusty squalling of a spanking new generation of Anglo-Americans—most of them still in the three-cornered pants stage.

The embassy has a staff of 30 persons who do nothing but handle these applications, and one harried official said they could use 30 more.

Most of those who have applied for visas in the past month are wives of servicemen being shipped back to the United States or out to the Pacific.

Before V-E day, applications were coming in at the rate of about 1,500 a month, but the rush is really on now.

Britain is Blamed For Syrian Trouble

BEYROUTH, June 9 (UP)—French Gen. Paul-Etienne Beynet said today that his countrymen acted only in self-defense during the recent Damascus outbreak and hinted that British arms and money had encouraged the Syrian stand against France.

Beynet, delegate on the French committee to Syria and Lebanon, said he has proof that the British sent machine guns and tommy guns to the Syrian police who later used them against the French.

Truman To Take Three-Day Rest

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 9 (UP)—Gov. Mon C. Wallgren said today that President Harry S. Truman plans to spend three days at Olympia.

Wallgren said that a change in plans would not permit Mr. Truman to arrive Monday. However, the president expected to arrive in Olympia later in the week, depending upon the progress of the San Francisco conference.

The president is scheduled to address the final plenary session of the United Nations conference.

Wallgren told his press conference that several suggested itineraries have been submitted to Mr. Truman, including possible visits to Grand Coulee dam, Mount Rainier and a cruise on Puget Sound.

Harry Bridges' Wife Files Divorce Plea

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9 (UP)—Mrs. Agnes Bridges filed a divorce cross-complaint today charging her husband, labor leader Harry Bridges, of being the father of a child assertedly born in New York City two years ago to another woman, identified as a night club dancer.

Bridges is Pacific coast director of the congress of industrial organizations and president of the international Longshoremen's & Warehousemen's union.

Stock Sales Drop As Prices Harden

NEW YORK, June 9 (UP)—Stock prices hardened in today's short session. Sales were less than in the preceding week.

Sugars, firm spots Friday, scored gains ranging to nearly two points in Central Violets. The group responded to reports that producers may get a higher price as a result of current negotiations in Cuba for U. S. purchase of 1946 crop and probably that of 1947.

Leading stock groups, such as the motors and steels were extremely narrow movers. Allegheny Corp. common and preferred rose fractionally to around new 1945 tops as the rail group edged into new high ground for more than eight years.

Montgomery Ward sagged a small fraction on the court decision. A number of selected shares scored substantial gains.

Sales totaled 660,000 shares compared with 980,000 shares last Saturday. "Big board" bond sales totaled $5,310,000 against $5,075,100. Curb stock sales aggregated 220,000 shares compared with 214,935.

CHICAGO FINAL GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 9 (UP)—Grain futures displayed a stronger tone on the board of trade today. Late prices fell from best levels.

Active mill-buying stimulated wheat, prospects of additional sales of cash rye lifted rye and an advance in the Canadian export tax on oats firmed these futures. Corn reached new season highs in deferred deliveries under short-covering.

Prices finished the day mixed. Wheat was unchanged to off 1 1/2 cents a bushel; corn off 3/4 to up 1/2; oats up 3/4; rye off 3/4 to up 3/4; and barley unchanged to up 3/4.

Profit-taking and hedging pared wheat prices from one to two cents before the close. Milling interests bought heavily of September wheat early and commission houses took July deliveries.
