SPOKANE, Wash., June 13 (UP)—The two-day June annual meeting of the Pacific coast conference was in adjournment today after adopting a schedule which provides for an almost complete revival of conference football next fall subject to the office of defense transportation.

Eight of the conference's 10 members will compete in a full slate of from five to 10 games each, and for the first time since 1943 there will be at least a modified renewal of competition between northern and southern divisions.

Acorns Welcome New Pilot With Victory Over Seals

By United Press
Billy Raimondi got off to a flying start as manager of the Oakland Acorns last night as the Oaks nosed out the San Francisco Seals 3-2 in the Pacific coast league feature contest.

Raimondi, who took over the reins from Dolph Camilli, collected two singles in two trips to the plate. In all the Oaks collected eight hits off Frank Seward and Tony Buzlich to give Red Mann his sixth victory.

As Seattle and Portland idled, Manager Buck Faust of the Hollywood Stars drove in the 11th inning run that gave the Twinks a 5-4 victory over the Los Angeles Angels. Faust crashed through with a single to center field in his first trip to the plate since he pulled some rib muscles two weeks ago.

The Sacramento Solons dropped to fourth place in losing a 5-4 decision to the San Diego Padres, who notched their winning run in the second on Jack Dunphy's single, a sacrifice by Tony Crescola and a double by Lou Veselich.

Meantime, General Manager Vic Devincenzi of the Acorns acknowledged that "pressure was brought to bear" in the so-called resignation of Camilli.

"Things weren't going well within the club," Devincenzi said. "We've had trouble staying on the winning side, and Camilli didn't see eye to eye with the rest of us quite often."

Camilli told reporters flatly that he "didn't quit."

"I was fired, and the club owners know it," he asserted. "If they want to say I resigned that's their business. Sure, I was asked to resign, but that doesn't mean anything."

Code Is Modified
The conference board, meanwhile made drastic changes in the bulky Atherton code, providing for punishment of member colleges instead of individual athletes found to have been subsidized.

The 1945 schedule provides that only Idaho will confine its games to the northern division. Four of the five northern teams will march into California for a total of six engagements. California and USC will play 10 games each, with the latter going out of the conference four times and California three. UCLA has a slate of nine games, four of which are out of conference engagements.

The UCLA Bruins will take on their ancient rivals, the Washington Huskies, in Seattle Oct. 27 for their single invasion of the north.

Stanford, Montana Out
Stanford and Montana universities decided to stay out of conference play for the third season in a row. They blamed the continued manpower shortage for their decision.

No action was taken on naming a permanent PCC commissioner, acting Commissioner Victor Schmidt of Los Angeles said. He added that his contract doesn't expire until the end of this year and that the board of athletic control probably will "take the matter up at its December meeting."

Schmidt was named a temporary successor to the late Edwin N. Atherton after the latter's death last August.

Golfing Greats To Open $17,500 Match Play Tomorrow
PHILADELPHIA, June 13 (UP)—Par bustin' buckeroos begin a four-day swing of the Llanerch course in suburban Manoa tomorrow for a $17,500 pot of gold in the Philadelphia Inquirer's second annual invitational golf tournament.

The entry list aiming for the title won last year by Sammy Byrd is the real who's who in golf. Over the years, the 125 or more professionals and amateurs entered have won 22 national titles.

Byron Nelson, the umbrella tycoon from Toledo, O., some $2,000 richer after his 20-under par romp in the Canadian open last week, is the early favorite. The winner of the 72-hole medal play takes down $5,325 in war bonds.

Richest money winner through the winter, Nelson was followed here from Ste. Dorothee by the four who trailed him through his par-crashing exhibition north of the border, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, of Sanford, Me., and Philadelphia; Joe Zarhardt, Norristown, Pa.; amateur Ed Furgol, Detroit, and Jimmy Hines, Great Neck, N. Y., who finished in the order in Quebec, are here.

To complete the picture, ex-sailor Sammy Sneed, particular nemesis of Byron, will match his booming drives with Nelson's velvet touch on the greens. Sneed missed the Quebec tourney.

Zivic Knocks Out Mexican Battler
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 13 (UP)—Cpl. Fritz Zivic, Camp Normoyle fighting mite who is former world's welterweight champion, knocked out Baby Zavala of Mexico City last night in 2:31 of the fourth round of a scheduled 10 round bout.

Cubs Also Need Hurler
Grimm has four of the best catchers in the National league and he's ready to swap one of them for a winning pitcher. The Cubs have skidded from first to fifth place mainly because of the need for another starting hurler. With Lefty Bob Chipman expected to be called into service within a month, Grimm is trying to talk someone out of a pitcher.

Dick Siebert, the Philadelphia A's heavy hitting first baseman, reportedly is on the block as a result of Connie Mack's house-cleaning campaign.

The A's also reportedly are interested in Heath and Siebert may be the kicker in the deal since Cleveland's present first baseman, Mickey Rocco, also can play the outfield.

Yanks Take Close Ones
Among the other clubs, only the Yankees have been consistent winners in sweating out the close ones. They have won seven out of 10 games by one-run margins. Cleveland has won nine of 17, Washington seven out of 13, Boston is even up with six and six, the White Sox five out of 13, the A's four out of 13 with the Browns bringing up the rear.

Fears that Hal Newhouse, left-wing ace of the Tigers, wasn't up to his 1944 form were dispelled when he won his eighth game against four defeats, putting him exactly even with his record at this stage of the race a year ago. He was a miser in the pinches, stranding 13 men on base, as he outpitched Jack Kramer.

Leonard Beats Yankees
Emil (Dutch) Leonard, who makes the second division Senators look like champions when he pitches against the Yankees, beat them for the second time in a week, 5 to 3, knocking them out of the lead.

Russ Christopher, pitching three innings in relief, won his 10th game to increase his lead as beating the Red Sox at Philadelphia, 7 to 5 when Dick Siebert homered in the 12th to break up the game.

Southpaw Thornton Lee, winning his seventh game in a courageous comeback from arm trouble which threatened to end his career, gave the White Sox a 1 to 0 win over the Indians at Chicago.

The Dodgers beat the leading Giants, 7 to 4, at Brooklyn to move within a game and a half of first place. Rookie Vic Lombardi gave up seven hits to win his fourth game.

The second place Pirates advanced to within a game of the Giants by topping the visiting Cubs, 9 to 3. Pitcher Al Gerheuser kept Chicago at bay all the way and paced the attack with four hits.

The Phillies, still going in reverse, lost their 15th straight, 10 to 0 at Boston, to set a new club record for consecutive defeats.

Cincinnati and St. Louis were rained out.

Big League Moguls Active As Period For Swaps Wanes
CHICAGO, June 13 (UP)—Manager Charlie Grimm of the Cubs was shopping for a pitcher, the Yankees are after Jeff Heath and several other deals were brewing today with the major league deadline for trades only two days off.

Friday midnight marks the final hour that big league clubs can trade or purchase players, although they may continue to get them from the minor leagues or pick up discarded performers via the waiver route.

All teams, still suffering from the manpower pinch, are anxious to swing swaps, but nobody wants to give anything away—which has the makings of a stalemate.

Yankees Need Slugger
The Yankees admit they would like the Cleveland Indians' Heath hitting for them in Yankee stadium. The 29-year-old outfielder smacks a long ball and would fit perfectly into their big, horse-shoe ball park. Tigers Move Into League Lead As Solons Nip Yanks

NEW YORK, June 13 (UP)—If John McGraw were alive today and could spare a moment from his worries over the collapse of the Giants, he probably would pick the Detroit Tigers to win the American league flag.

It was McGraw, the little "Napoleon" of the majors, who provided the proverb "You've got to win the close ones to win the pennant."

And that is the way the first-place Tigers are going. They are a fairly safe bet whenever they get into a close game. They won their 12th low-score game yesterday, beating the Browns, 2 to 1 in 11 innings at Detroit.

SEVENTH-STRETCH—Grinning happily, Dave Ferriss, phenomenal Red Sox pitcher, indicates with his fingers the seven straight games he won for the Bostonians without a single defeat. He scored his eighth Wednesday.

Today's Sport Parade

By JACK CUDDY UP Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 13 (UP)—A new murderers' row in the major leagues—operating under the skull and bones of the Pittsburgh Pirates—is ready now to wrest first place in the National circuit from the faltering Giants.

The Steeltown Buccaneers are only one game behind the leading New Yorkers, and they're swashbuckling along.

Their chief, Frankie Frisch, keeps his fingers crossed because during the five previous seasons that he helmed the Pirates, they never menaced the National circuit flag. True, they did wind up in second place in '44; but they were 14½ games off the pace set by the champion Cards.

According to the latest averages, the Pirates lead their circuit at the plate with a club-batting mark of .275. They are first in hits with 415, first in runs scored with 232, first in runs batted in with 213, and first in doubles with 77, and in triples with 18.

The Pirates have menacing potential power. If you include regulars, utility men and substitutes who fill in frequently in the "pinches," Frankie has six batsmen with averages that range from .300 to .424. They include Lee Handley, now playing regularly after arriving late and who has fashioned the .424 mark; Tommy O'Brien, .345; rookie catcher Bill Salkeld; .329; rookie Al Gionfriddo, .328; the ex-Yankee veteran Jackie Saltzger, .320; and olster Bob Elliott, .300.

Afield, the Pirates would not cause inspired baseball writers to compose sonnets about the poetry of motion; but they have what appears to be adequate pitching. Their mound staff is led by Truett (Rip) Sewell, the "blooper ball" expert, who has seven victories. Preacher Roe has five; the same as Max Burchett. Nick Strincevich has four. And they have capable relievers.

Has Your Car Been Lubricated for Summer?

IT WILL NOT FUNCTION EFFICIENTLY ON OLD WINTER LUBRICANTS

Sludge, dirt and grime collect after driving which must be removed. Winter oils, too, do not have enough body for hot weather driving. They should be replaced with heavier oils that cling and lubricate working parts. Change now! Stop here for a thorough lubrication job.
