VERY MUCH ALIVE—Believed dead by his first wife, who has since collected his insurance, Donald Vernon Lovie (above), 25, sought for three years as a draft delinquent at request of Napa, Cal., authorities, was arrested in Seattle by the FBI. Shortly before his arrest, FBI agents said, Lovie deserted his second wife.

Former La Grande Man is Heard on Tokyo Broadcast
Larry W. Quille, former local softball player and employee of the Evening Observer, now a civilian prisoner of the Japanese, is "Okay," according to a Japanese propaganda broadcast intercepted by government monitors and transmitted to Miss Marion Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Christensen of La Grande and an employee of the state department of education in Salem.
The message, forwarded by the provost marshal general's office, says:
"Once again I am offered the opportunity of sending a message to you via Radio Tokyo informing you that everything on this end is okay at the present broadcast. I sincerely hope and trust that Wilda, Chris and you are enjoying the best of health and are keeping up the — and spirit."
"Your card of November 7, 1944 received with much celebration. Time passes slowly but some day it will all be over and then we can make up for all the good things in life that have been absent for so long."
"Please remember me to my folks and also to my friends."

RAILROAD EMPLOYEE IS GIVEN PROMOTION
Appointment of Norman D. Nelson as safety agent on the Union Pacific railroad from Reith to La Grande and Huntington was announced today by officials of the lines.
He entered the employ of the railroad as a fireman on the Washington division in January, 1942, and since last March has been a hostler at Albina.
J. R. Lynch, division safety agent at Albina, has been promoted to the same position on the lines between Reith and Seattle.

Ever think of using a pencil eraser to draw on a smooth coat of lipstick? Vouching that it works is an army nurse who hit upon the trick in the tropics.
Lacking a brush and needing to dig the remnants of a stick from her last container, she hauled out a pencil, cleaned and shaped the eraser, and discovered it to be an applicator that yielded obligingly to pressure in coating her lips and making outlines which she says never look too sharply drawn.
A coil is about three-fourths its mature height at birth.

FAST AMBULANCES
The gas tanks of P-38 fighter planes are used as resting places for wounded soldiers being transferred via the world's fastest ambulances. A plexiglas front attached on the gas tanks allows the wounded man a wide range of vision while he is speeding under the wing of the P-38.
It is safe to hold a queen bee in your hand since they only use their stings on other queen bees.

PELLET-PICKER—Three months with an AWOL soldier in wilds of Washington state were enough for Mary Jane Young, 19, who surrendered to Kent police on burglary charges. One deputy sheriff almost got them and his shotgun blast caught Mary Jane. Her soldier friend dug the pellets out of her legs with a hunting knife, she said. But some still remain in her back.

CAR CRASHES STORE
The front of Trotter's store was racked in several places when the brakes on a car driven by Francis D. Rohan, 602 B avenue, failed to hold, causing the auto crash into the store building.

They found the perfect love that casts out fear. In the depth of their faith they found courage to face persecution and death for their Master's sake, and the more magnificent courage of daring to win the world for Him. When one thinks of the smallness and seeming weakness of that band, in contrast with the vast extent and power of the Roman world, what they attempted and achieved seems miraculous. Even in an outward, historic sense the achievement was amazing; for in a less period of time than our own American history has consumed the Galilean had conquered, and Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire.

But it is the inward triumph of Christ over the skulls of men that is vital, and the Apostolic achievement goes on and is repeated wherever and whenever the Apostolic conditions are fulfilled. Jesus still lead on!
