

Veteran Churchman Is Complimented At Dinner Party

On the occasion of his 85th birthday anniversary, Rev. H. I. Hansen, for many years a Methodist minister in the Grande Ronde valley, was honored when Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen, his son and daughter-in-law, entertained at a family dinner Monday night.

Present for the event were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cozad and their daughter, Mrs. Earl Ring and her baby, Sheryl Ann Ring, all of John Day; Miss Ethel Hansen of La Grande, the guest of honor, the host and hostess and their children, Howard and Carol Jean Hansen.

A son, N. J. Hansen and family of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. G. J. Mehl of Weiser, Idaho, were unable to be present. Rev. Hansen was born in 1860 in Denmark and came to the United States with his parents as a small boy. The family settled in Omaha, Neb., and two of his sisters, one of whom is more than 90 years old, still reside there. He came to La Grande in 1912 and left for a few years while he held pastorates in Idaho and Utah. Rev. Hansen was active in the ministry for 45 years, retiring 15 years ago. Included among his pastorates in the valley are Elgin, Cove and Island City.

SOCIETY BRIEFS

Mrs. R. F. Tyler and Mrs. Roy Skeen are in Caldwell, Idaho, representing the First Methodist church at a conference for Sunday school and youth workers. The meeting started yesterday and will continue through Friday.

Miss Sue Maddock and Miss Jeanne Alford of Portland are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilkins, visiting their cousin, Bob Wilkins, for the summer.

Mrs. W. E. Wilkins, district president of American Legion auxiliary, is going to Wallowa today to install officers there. Mrs. Wilkins also performed that rite in Elgin and Enterprise. She was accompanied by Mrs. George Tiss, Mrs. O. B. Maxam and Mrs. Eugene Millering.

Mrs. W. M. Peare left last night for Portland, called there by the death of her mother, Mrs. T. J. O'Day. Mrs. O'Day's death followed an abdominal operation earlier in the week.

Mrs. Jess Jones and her small son have returned from a six week visit in Pampa, Texas, and Oklahoma City, with her mother and sisters.

Rebekahs and IOOF Have Memorial

Mrs. S. A. Robertson, vice grand, presided at a Crystal Rebekah lodge session last night in the IOOF hall.

Mrs. Thelma Shelton was appointed chairman of a committee in charge of the birthday party planned for June 27.

After their meeting the group was joined by the Odd Fellows for a memorial. Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. L. M. Hug sang two hymns and were joined by the audience in singing "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds."

Thirty-five members and one visitor were present.

CONSIDERED LABEL BILL
The U. S. congress once considered a bill providing $1000 fine for anyone caught displaying American flags which did not bear the stamp, "Made in the U.S.A."

Mrs. Glen Wagner Is Elected Head Of Service Group

Mrs. Glen Wagner last night was elected president of the Wives and Mothers Service club, during a meeting in the USO center.

Other officers elected to serve during the coming club year are: Mrs. Don McLean, vice-president; Mrs. C. J. Shorb, secretary, and Mrs. W. M. Peare, re-elected to serve as treasurer. They will take office next month. Mrs. S. B. Morgan was chairman of the nominating committee.

Outgoing officers presented the program and served refreshments. They were Mrs. Hugh Leonard, president; Mrs. Loren McCoy, vice-president; Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, secretary; and Mrs. Peare.

The group donated $10 to the re-furnishing of Ward 21 at McCaw hospital, the ward furnished by Union county. It was decided to put the name of Union county on each piece of furniture so it cannot be taken to other wards and lost.

Mrs. Harold Dow reported that 25 more afghans have been sent to the hospital and that a request for 12 more will be filled today. The money from the flower sale, $145.31, will be used to buy food for the Do-nut hut the third day of each month. Mrs. C. E. Stalcup and Mrs. Peare will be in charge of the purchasing.

Northside Club Has Afternoon Session

Members of the Northside Improvement club gathered yesterday afternoon in the clubhouse for their monthly meeting.

After a short business session the members read articles and poems. Among them was a letter from Cpl. Ervin Huff to his mother, Mrs. Otis Huff, telling of his daily life in British Guiana, dwelling particularly on the fine recreational facilities for service men.

Mrs. John Miller, a guest, presented humorous readings. Decorations were two huge bouquets of pink and white peonies and pink and white roses. On the refreshment committee were Mrs. Huff and Mrs. B. A. Van Wormer.

Mrs. George Marrs is Hostess to Baptist Missionary Society

Mrs. George H. Marrs entertained the missionary society of the Baptist church on the lawn at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Herbert Voruz, jr., was the assisting hostess.

Mrs. John Speckhart was the lesson leader, her topic being "The American Indian." Mrs. Marrs and Mrs. Voruz, whose husbands are in the air corps, carried out the air corps theme in the table decorations, having a centerpiece of miniature planes, including the types used by Great Britain Italy and America. Small candy airplane favors were on each tray. Bright colored straws and glasses were used to serve the orangeade to emphasize Indian folklore, the topic for the afternoon.

Here's the Quick, Easy Way to Make Marvelous BERRY JAM
8 Cups Ground Berries (Any Variety)
8½ Cups Sugar
1 Package M.C.P. Pectin

Wash, stem, grind 3 quarts fully ripe berries, or crush completely a layer at a time so each berry is reduced to pulp. Measure exactly 8 level cups crushed berries (add water to fill out last cup, if necessary), into large kettle. Add M.C.P. Pectin, stir well and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. NOW, add sugar (previously measured), stir well and bring to full rolling boil. BOIL EXACTLY 4 minutes. Remove from fire, let boil subside, stir and skim by turns 5 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars, allowing ½ in. space for swelling with fresh paraffin. (NOTE: For Strawberry Jam, add ¼ cup lemon juice to each 8 cups crushed berries.)
