Goering and Other War Criminals to Face Mass Trial

LONDON, June 22 (UP)—Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering and upwards of 100 other major Nazi war criminals will be tried simultaneously on a single conspiracy charge in the next six months, an authoritative American source said today.

The mass trial will be speedy and should be completed before winter, he said.

The informant said Chief Justice Robert Jackson, chief American prosecutor, may press for action by an Anglo-French-American court in the event that Russia does not agree immediately to the four-power tribunal proposed by President Truman.

The number of Nazi leaders to be hauled into court for the mass trial will be somewhere between 35 and 300. He said, but probably would not exceed 100.

Besides Goering, the group is expected to include former German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, former ambassador to Turkey Franz von Papen, a number of high SS storm troop officers, assorted Gestapo leaders and a group of key Nazi industrialists and financiers.

Ample international law already exists on which to try the accused men, the American said. He indicated they would be indicted mainly under the Kellogg-Briand pact outlawing offensive warfare.

Articles of the Hague convention which made systematic terrorism, slave labor and other common Nazi practices international offenses also will be taken into consideration, the informant said.
