

15 from Union Attending Methodist Camp

Good Fishing at Anthony Lake Reported

UNION, July 17 (Special)—Sunday afternoon, about 15 happy boys and girls left Union en route to the 35th annual institute of the Methodist church, which convened Monday morning at the Methodist camp grounds near Wallowa lake. The Union group was joined by Cove, North Powder, Haines and the two Methodist churches of La Grande, making about 50 in the group from this section of the county. These young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Courtright, Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Fortune and Mrs. Taylor of Ladd Canyon. It is estimated there will be about 150 in attendance. Mrs. O. A. Fortune of Union will be dean of girls and Rev. Mr. Fortune will be business manager.

Mrs. C. J. Mills returned home Sunday from the St. Joseph hospital where she had been for the past few weeks.

Many Visit at Anthony Lake

Union citizens suddenly became Anthony lake conscious and several different parties were there fishing and picnicking Sunday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Posey and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ferguson, who report fine fishing; another party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, Elwin and Richard Davis and Miss Marie Moulton and a third group was composed of Dr. and Mrs. McLean, Alpha Watts and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Puckett and two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Cline, Mr. Parley Newman and Mrs. Verna Gilmore and son Johnny spent Sunday at the lake.

A telegram to his family from Los Angeles Saturday, announced the return to the United States.

Picnic Given For Dorothy Chadwick

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chadwick at the Union depot was the scene of real western hospitality Sunday when friends and neighbors gathered to enjoy a picnic and to visit with Miss Dorothy Chadwick. Miss Chadwick is here from her home in Montclair, N. J., having very recently flown from the eastern coast to Spokane, from there she travelled to Union via train. Miss Chadwick spent her girlhood in this section of the country and has many friends in the Grande Ronde valley. At the gathering Sunday were many friends, among them Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Nolton, son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. Robert Proebstel and two children, Mrs. Kate Hall and daughter Ruth Margaret; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Price, the Misses May Stearns and Mable Doty of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. Neil T. Knight and Betty from Cove, Mrs. Belle Busiek from Union and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hall and two children from Cheney, Washington. Mrs. Hall is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick and she with her husband and children are also guests at the Chadwick home.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griggs, honored them with a picnic supper at Pioneer park Saturday evening. Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reavis and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hill, who arranged for the supper. Treats were furnished by the groom, Mr. Edward Griggs. In addition to the hosts and honored guests there were present Mr. and Mrs. Forest Scroggins, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Griggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Schroeder and young son bid farewell to their Union friends Monday and left to make their home in Longview, Wash., where they recently purchased Scotty's Motel. Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder formerly operated the A's auto court and made many friends during their six years residence in Union.

Supreme Forest Woodmen circle will hold its annual picnic in Pioneer park, July 22. A potluck dinner will be served at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Marvin Titus is in charge of the program and it is hoped that all members and their families will be present to enjoy the outing.

The Social club of the OES will hold its first picnic Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nele Morrison. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 in the lovely grounds of the Morrison home. All members are expected to attend and to bring friend husband as a guest.

Guest speakers at the L. D. S. church in Union Sunday were Parley Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Peck of Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Baxter have disposed of their property in Union and are moving into their new home in La Grande this week.

Mrs. John Ord, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Goff of Provo, Utah, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Othello Lay for an indefinite visit. Mrs. Ord and Mrs. Goff are mother and sister of Mrs. Lay.

Mrs. Charles Strode returned Friday from a short visit to San Francisco, where she visited with her son, Morris West, S. I. C., stationed at Treasure island. On her return she stopped at Concord, Calif., for a short visit with S. I. C. Harold Snodgrass and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denham of Bend, Ore., have bought the property of Dale Baxter on the Cove road and are expected to move into their new home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor and daughter Leatrice left Monday for Ontario to visit with the Everetts Taylor family.

Mr. Ned Conarty was taken to the St. Joseph hospital in La Grande Friday for medical treatment. Mr. Conarty is the brother of Mrs. Anna Horton and Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips of Union.

Annual Convention Of Legion Postponed

PORTLAND, July 17 (UP)—The 27th annual convention of the Oregon department of the American Legion, originally scheduled in Portland for August 17 has been postponed. Travel and accommodation restrictions were given as the reason. The decision was made yesterday, at a state convention committee meeting. However, Fritz Nissen, department adjutant and committee chairman said meetings of the permanent finance and executive committees will be held as planned, Aug. 16. Election of state officers will not be held, and incumbents will remain in office until such time as the convention is held, Nissen said.

$800,000 Paid Out Of Highway Fund

SALEM, July 17 (UP)—The first payment to counties of their shares of the 1945 state highway fund was made by the state department today. A total of $800,000 was paid out. The second apportionment for the year will be made in December, when $1,200,000 will be paid to the counties, with each share based on motor vehicle registrations in each county.

SALEM, July 17 (UP)—All blackout and dimout regulations, instituted as a war measure in 1942, will be lifted in Oregon Aug. 1, Gov. Earl Snell said in a formal lifting proclamation today.

Myrtle Loveless Bride of Soldier, Edgar Cantrell

At a wedding ceremony performed by Justice of the Peace George H. Currey at his home Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Myrtle Marie Loveless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Loveless, 1519 Jackson avenue, became the bride of Edgar W. Cantrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cantrell, pioneer family from Summerville.

The bride, attired in a dressmaker suit of powder blue, with white accessories, was attended by Mrs. Ana Bel McKenzie, sister of the groom.

Ray Loveless, the bride's brother, was the best man. Following the wedding the bridal party was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Loveless at their home, and then the bride and groom left for Wallowa lake where they planned to stay for a few days.

Mrs. Cantrell has been a resident of La Grande for the past 13 years, and for the last three years has been employed in the office of the East Oregon Light and Power company here.

The groom, a technician fourth grade in the army, has recently returned from 38 months duty in Hawaii. He will report at Fort Lewis July 26 for his next assignment.
