Plunge into Pool Doesn't Aid Escape

SALEM, July 24 (UP) — A plunge into the prison farm swimming pool yesterday, to avoid the eyes of guards hunting him, didn't help George Earl Wood, 20, any, and he was back under lock and key today in the penitentiary after about five hours of "freedom."

The young prison inmate, who was serving two years for burglary, escaped from a prison farm flag gun yesterday. He was found not long after by Everett Kaiser, state farmer, near the pool after his unsuccessful swim.

MOLALLA, July 24 (UP) — Work was continuing today in rebuilding the A. F. Lowes lumber mill, only 24 hours after the plant was razed by a $70,000 fire Sunday.

Dietrich Thrilled At Beating Yanks In 11 Innings

Puts White Sox In Third Place; Detroit Loses

By CARL LUNDQUIST
NEW YORK, July 24 (UP) — It was simply a well-pitched 1 to 0 victory in 11 innings over the Yankees but it gave Blinky Bill Dietrich of the Chicago White Sox as big a thrill as the no-hit, no-run game he twirled back in 1937.

It was a victory of vindication for the 35-year-old right-hander, who has been beaten 19 times by the Yankees during his long American league career. And it couldn't have come at a more opportune time. The Bombers were dropped into the second division for the first time since mid-June of last season while manager Joe McCarthy remained away from the club, contemplating his resignation.

Near Top
However, it put the Chi-Socks into the intensifying threat of the pennant race in third place, just a game and a half behind the slumping Senators and four games behind the pace-setting but tottering Tigers.

Victory yesterday, a seven-hitter for the bespectacled Dietrich, was a far cry from his no-hitter of eight years ago against the Browns. But for a pitcher who led the league in defeats last year with 17, it represented a fine recovery, giving him his fifth win against three losses in the current campaign. The White Sox won when Oris Hockett hit a scratch single to send home Johnny Dickshot.

Knocked Off
Also helping to "button up" the race were Louis (Bobo) Newsom, the "turnabout" pitcher of the A's, and unsung Ed Klieman of the Indians, who knocked off the leading Tigers and the runner-up Senators in night games.

Newsom, who has won four 12 in a row, topped the Tigers with a 1-0 four-hit job. On top of that he drove in the only run of the game with a single in the second off Frank Overmire to bring home George Kell, who had doubled. In his four winning efforts he has given up just 14 hits.

Holmes Hitless
Klieman also pitched and battled his way to victory, beating the Senators at Washington, 2 to 1. He doubled home Frankie Hayes with the first run in the fifth and Hayes followed up by singling in Jeff Heath in the sixth. He yielded only five hits while John Niegeling and Alex Carrasquel of the Senators gave up 12.

The Pirates made 17 hits, including homers by Jim Russell, Bob Elliott and Bill Salkeld in an 8 to 5 victory over the Braves at Pittsburgh. It was the fourth victory in a row for the Bucs and the sixth in their last seven.

Tommy Holmes, holder of the National league consecutive games batting mark, dropped out of the lead as top hitter in the majors after going hitless in his fourth straight game. He now has been at bat 18 straight times without a hit Walter (Boom Boom) Deck gained the victory in a relief role, his second straight since joining the Pirates.

There were no other games in either league.

Bobby Doerr Looks Forward to Getting Back to Baseball

EUGENE, July 24 (UP)—Sgt. Bobby Doerr, former second baseman for the Boston Red Sox and now stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., left here today for his ranch home along the Rogue river.

Doerr, who has been visiting his wife's parents, said he is anxiously awaiting the time when he can resume his major-league baseball career with the American league club.

Considered one of the best second basemen in organized baseball, Doerr had little opportunity to play baseball during army service. He is on the training staff at Camp Roberts.

Cookes Spoil Title Broth For Others

NEW YORK, July 24 (UP) — Elwood Cooke and his pretty wife, Mrs. Sarah Pajfrey Cooke played monopoly today in annexing all the available titles in the eastern clay courts tennis tournament.

Cooke completed a clean sweep for the Los Angeles couple yesterday when he paired with Sidney Wood, Jr., New York, to win the men's doubles title 4-6, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4, beating J. Gilbert Hall and Ladislav Hecht, both of New York.

Previously Cooke had taken the singles title. His wife won the women's singles championship and paired with Dorothy Bundy of Santa Monica, Calif., to take the women's doubles competition.</
