Townsend Club Hears Organizer

Members of the La Grande Townsend club heard Howard Willcock, state organizer, Portland, last night at their meeting at the I.O.O.F. building. There was music by the "Log Scalers," and refreshments followed. M. F. Wilkinson presided. There was a large attendance for the program and social hour.

Jaycees Picnic At Pine-Cone

More than 25 persons attended the junior chamber of commerce picnic at the Pine Cone pool last night. There was no formal program and after swimming an hour or two, the Jaycees and their families enjoyed a picnic supper.

Each family brought its own food with the exception of beverage and ice cream, which was furnished by the organization. Don Pearch was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Richard Cash, MOMM 1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Cash of La Grande, has arrived home for 32 days leave, after two years and a half in the navy. Richard is a member of the crew of an aviation rescue or "crash" boat. He has seen service in the south Pacific. A resident of La Grande 10 years, he attended high school here and was in college when he joined the navy. He formerly worked at the Observer, also. He will return to San Francisco for reassignment.

John M. Packard, recipient of the silver star for gallantry in action, arrived from Europe today at the New York port of embarkation aboard the "Monticello." Within 48 hours the veteran doughboy will be enroute to spend a 30-day furlough with his wife, Mrs. Violet M. Packard, and two sons, who live here.

Inducted into the army at Fort Lewis, Wash., March 27, 1944, Private Packard was sent to the infantry replacement training center, Camp Hood, Tex. After 17 weeks of infantry training, he went overseas where he was assigned to the Second Infantry (Indian Head) division. Joining that unit in Belgium, the Browning automatic rifleman fought through three campaigns: Ruhrland, Ardennes and central Europe. In addition to the silver star, he wears the combat infantry badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy, the good conduct ribbon and the European theater of operations ribbon with three campaign stars. Following his furlough, the 27-year-old infantryman will rejoin the Indian Head division at Camp Swift, Tex., where the infantry outfit will train for redeployment to the Pacific theater.

Sgt. Edwin Isaac, turret gunner on a B-17, has arrived home from the European theater of war and is visiting his sister here, Mrs. Carl Herrmann. Later he will visit another sister, Mrs. LeRoy Justice of North Platte, Neb., after which he will report at Ft. MacArthur, Calif. He arrived here Saturday morning.

CPO Charles W. Frost is spending a 30-day leave at the home of his wife, Nina, 1805 Fourth street, after spending 20 months overseas. He entered the service in September, 1942.

Marine Lt. Norman E. West is leaving tonight after spending a six-day leave at the home of his wife, the former Beth Frost, 1805 Fourth street. Lieut. West attended high school and college here before entering the service in October, 1942.

Jack Hendrickson left last night after a two-day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Hendrickson, 1318 V avenue. Lt. Hendrickson was graduated from high school in 1937 before leaving with the national guard in 1940. He spent four years overseas until a wound received July 25, 1944, sent him back to the states. He has been awarded the purple heart.

Soldier Advertises For '85 Points'

DUNN, N. C., July 25 (UP)—The Dunn Dispatch received the following advertisement from an unnamed Erwin, N. C., subscriber: "A young soldier with four and a half years of duty would like to meet a young widow with three children. Object: 85 points!"

The U. S. army can get a small wall tent, a waterproof bedding roll, and a khaki cotton shirt for $75 invested in a war bond.

Civilian Help For Camp Adair Needed

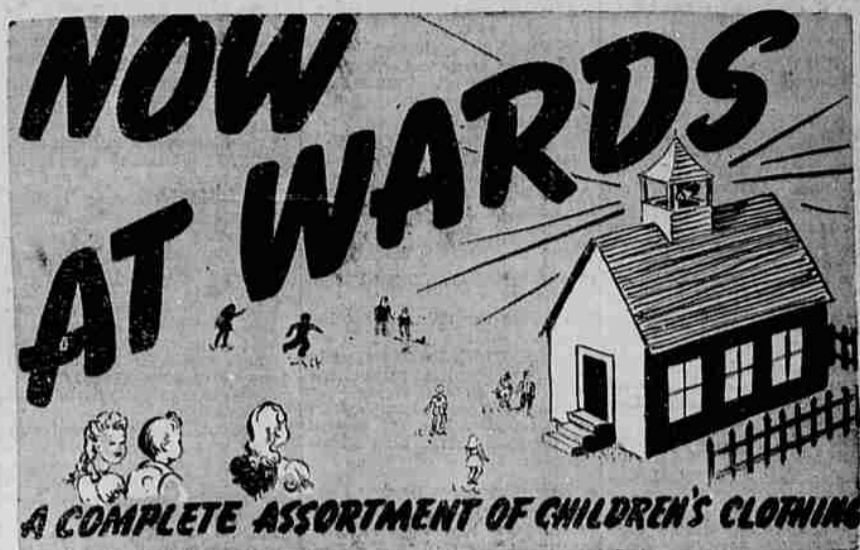

PORTLAND, July 25 (UP)—Civilian help for reactivated Camp Adair is seriously needed, the U. S. civil service commission in Portland announced today.

Men and women—preferably single, because of the housing shortage—are needed for such jobs as automobile mechanics, testers and painters, armament repairmen, small arms repairmen, armament machinists, watch and clock repairmen, meat cutters, furnace helpers and repairmen, laborers, patrolmen, typewriter repairmen, telephone operators, typists, stenographers, dental as-assistants and laundry workers. Located 10 miles from Corvallis, dormitories and barracks are provided at Camp Adair. Hiring is done at Camp Adair and in Portland at the civil service commission.

Fifty-two weeks do not make a year; they total only 364 days.
