Borowy Deal Appears To Help Both Clubs

By CARL LUNDQUIST
NEW YORK, July 30 (UP)—Both the pennant-bound Cubs and the hide-bound Yankees cashed early dividends today on the much-discussed Hank Borowy deal.

Nelson, who sprang from a Ft. Worth, Tex., caddy yard to become the game's greatest money winner, begins the final 18 holes with a 54-hole total of 202 strokes, 14 under par and six ahead of his old rival and former "gold dust twin," McSpaden.

If Nelson wins, several new records go into the books, such as (1) a new all-time mark of nine straight individual tournament victories; (2) fourth victory in the five-year history of the all-American; (3) $45,000 in war bonds in seven months of one year; and (4) undoubtedly a new winning stroke record as he needs only a 75 to break the 278 mark he set in taking the 1941 tournament.

McSpaden, who has become golfdom's champion runnerup while pushing Nelson to new records, is six strokes to the rear. Hogan, for three years the game's top money taker before entering the army in 1942, is seven behind with 209 strokes. Snead, the easy-swinging West Virginian, trails by eight as do Sarazen, Sgt. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and the brilliant Toledo, O., amateur, Flight Officer Frank Stranahan.

With Nelson and McSpaden running one-two again, the tournament is in a familiar pattern. Nelson posted a four under par 68 yesterday and McSpaden duplicated his score to vault from seventh to second place as Sarazen slipped from the runnerup spot to third with a 72 and Hogan shot a 70 to lead and Harrison's 71s.

to 2, on the margin of Roger (Doc) Cramer's two-run double. The victory was the third straight at Detroit over the White Sox. Benton gave up 13 hits but stranded 12 runners.

In another single game at Boston, the Red Sox beat the slipping Senators, 8 to 4, with Bob Johnson setting the pace. Johnson had a perfect day with a double and three singles, and ran his major league hit total to 2,002, going over the milestone with good measure.

Split Pair
The Browns, battling hard now to stay out of seventh place, remained tied in sixth with the Indians by splitting a pair at Cleveland. Newman Shirley won the opener for St. Louis, 4 to 0, shading the veteran Mel Harder. Jim Bagby countered with a 3 to 0 Indian shutout.

Brooklyn ran Boston's losing streak to nine straight with twin wins at Ebbets field, 5 to 2 and 15 to 4. Left George Dockins gave the Cardinals an even break with the Pirates at St. Louis, winning the second game, 6 to 4, after the Pirates took the opener with three runs in the 10th. It was Dockins' first complete game and he had trouble winning it. The Giants and Phils were rained out at Philadelphia.

As Joyce goes so go the San Francisco Seals!
It's getting to be an old story, but a true one. Big Robert proved again Sunday that he is practically a one-man show when he takes the mound for the Seals. Sunday he registered his 23rd victory when he set the Oakland A's down with nine hits while winning a 4-3 game in the opener. The Oaks came right back in the nightcap for a 1-0 triumph behind Garth (Red) Mann's five-hitter.

Fall Short
Portland's final bid to quash the second-place Seattle Rainiers' bid for Pacific coast league leadership fell a little short as the teams divided a doubleheader. The Beavers won the opener, 3-2, and dropped the finale, 5-1. The split left the Beavos with a six-game lead over the Suds.

Hollywood, who won all but one game from Los Angeles during their week-long series, swept two games from the Scraps Sunday by scores of 4-2 and 3-2. The Stars are now only two and one-half games from seventh-place Los Angeles.

Nelson, who sprang from a Ft. Worth, Tex., caddy yard to become the game's greatest money winner, begins the final 18 holes with a 54-hole total of 202 strokes, 14 under par and six ahead of his old rival and former "gold dust twin," McSpaden.

Ford Declares Industry Must Not 'Dawdle'

DEARBORN, Mich., July 30 (UP)—Henry Ford, king of the auto industry, today marked his 82nd birthday with an eye to the future and a prediction of great and "unequaled prosperity" if industry does not "dawdle."

He declared it is his belief "the nation and the world are on the threshold of prosperity and standard of living never before considered possible."

"But," he said, "employment hinges on the right of private industry to go forward unhampered. There must be more and more industry; more and more competition for greater excellence in quality. These will bring more and more employment."

Ford asserted "event in the last six years have shaken us from our complacent attitude."

"Labor should be educated so it may know and understand the problems of industry and the full benefits of cooperation. Industry wants to help in that education if given the opportunity," Ford said.

Their six-year-old son was shaken up and was taken to a hospital, but his condition today was reported satisfactory.

The Hult car collided with a truck while enroute to Tollgate Saturday Mrs. Hult died shortly after being rushed to a hospital here. Hult suffered a broken pelvis and leg, in addition to internal injuries. Use of blood plasma failed to bring him out of a coma.

Sanity Hearing For Fanatic Planned; Killed One Child

WARREN, O., July 30 (UP)—A sanity hearing was planned today for Mrs. Doris Higley, 29-year-old widow described as a "religious fanatic," who Saturday night slashed the throats of her three young children, killing one, and then attempted suicide.

Mrs. Higley, who lives in Braceville township near here, cut the throats of her children, 11a Marie, 5, David, 4, and Jonathan, 2, who died shortly after the tragedy. The two older children are in good condition today.

Police said Mrs. Higley became interested in the "Holy Rollers" shortly after her husband, Homer, was killed in an accident at the Republic mill two years ago. Neighbors said that she had appeared "deranged" for the past few weeks.

They said Mrs. Higley succeeded only in nicking herself with the five-inch kitchen paring knife. During regular services of the "Holy Rollers" in the county jail yesterday, she shouted the songs and "hallelujahs" from her basement cell.

Fire fighting equipment from nearby communities was called to assist in quelling the blaze which lasted three hours.

Firemen said the blaze broke out at about 6:30 a. m. in the Lafferty & Woods grocery with flames spreading to the cold storage plant and then to the homes of the Lafferty and Woods families behind the grocery.

Fruit growers pondered the question of where to store the huge pear crop which is to be harvested beginning August 20. The plant, which had a capacity of 90,000 boxes, will not be rebuilt now due to shortage of materials.

Today's Sport Parade

By JACK CUDDY UP Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 30 (UP)—Through the fading echoes of criticism that accompanied Pitcher Hank Borowy's shift from the Yanks of the American league to the Cubs of the national circuit, Borowy has gone all-out to prove the ancient baseball adage: "A change in uniform is usually beneficial for any player."

Borowy seemed to be a natural Yank, because he first distinguished himself as a pitcher for Fordham in the Bronx, and later went through three seasons with the Yanks' farm club, Newark, N. J., before being elevated to the New York stadium in 1942. He pitched well for the Yanks during the past three seasons; but this year he was not doing so well when President Larry MacPhail of the Yanks put the finger upon him as one of the players who had failed to deliver. And he was ousted from the club that pays such good salaries.

Slated
Whether Borowy was sore at being cast adrift from the Yanks, or whether he was elated at establishing a connection with the Cubs who had a very good chance to win the national flag, is not known. Anyway, he made his first pitching start with the Cubs yesterday and registered a 3-2 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds. Borowy was lucky in this first national league start. He is known as a "front runner"—a pitcher who does best when his club is ahead. Bill "Swish" Nicholson bopped a two-run homer in the first inning to give him an advantage. However, Hank gave up only one earned run, and showed no indications of the arm trouble that had prevented him from finishing his last previous five starts with the Yanks.

Won Seven
Borowy may have benefited from the uniform change like other major leaguers who put on new duds this season. Take Pitcher Joe Bowman, for example. Joe seemed to have out-lived his usefulness with the Boston Red Sox. Unclaimed on waivers by the other seven American League clubs, the right-hander went to the Reds. With Cincinnati, Bowman became almost immediately the Reds' most effective pitcher. When he lost to the Cubs, 4-1, in the first game of yesterday's double header, it marked his third defeat against eight victories. Early in the season with the Red Sox, he failed to win while losing two.

Big Morton Cooper is another excellent example of new pajamas making the man. While with the St. Louis Cardinals this year, he smarted because of a salary squabble. He went nearly a month and

Oberon, Muni In 'Song to Remember' Perfectly Cast

Within the walls of the Liberty theater, where Columbia Pictures is currently presenting "A Song to Remember," starring Paul Muni and Merle Oberon and featuring Cornel Wilde, is occurring that rare thing in picture presentation—a perfect accord between film and audience. For two solid hours, the screen is filled with glorious music, tempestuous romance, in a story of the most romantic man and woman of the nineteenth century—Frederic Chopin, the composer of lilting melodies and George Sand, the pants-wearing novelist of many loves.

With most of the story taking place in Paris, there are also sequences in Poland, Chopin's homeland; at Nohant, Madame Sand's country place not far from Paris; and on the Mediterranean island of Majorca.

In the role of George Sand, Merle Oberon also is in a happy position with the audience. She's gentle and alluring, yet at the same time ruthless and savagely completely unforgettable.

Paul Muni, as Elzner, gives something more than an expert Muni portrayal. Cornel Wilde's Chopin, a genius, slightly weak, yet completely lovable and human, is electrifying.
