SUMMONS
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR UNION COUNTY

Jess B. Youngs, Plaintiff vs.
Emma E. Youngs, Defendant)
TO: Emma E. Youngs, the above named defendant;

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON;
You are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint therein filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the last day of the period of four full weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in his complaint herein, to wit: for a decree of absolute divorce from you.

This summons is published once a week for a period of four consecutive weeks by order of the Hon. C. K. McCormick, County Judge acting in the absence of R. J. Green Circuit Judge, which order was duly made and entered on August 4th, 1945, and the date of the first publication thereof is August 6th, 1945.

R. J. Kitchen,
Attorney for Plaintiff
Residing at La Grande, Ore.

Sports Boom Will Be Tremendous Following War

By HAL WOOD
SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A period of readjustment—and then the gold-dusted sports attendance and sports participation in the history of the world.

That's the prediction of a man who has had his finger on the pulse of the sports-going public for the last 20 years.

His name is Abe Sapperstein and in the last two decades of handling athletes he has touched every major city in North America, about 75 percent of the middle-sized ones and a goodly portion of the whistle stops.

Sapperstein, in case you recall the name only faintly, is the gentleman who promotes the tours of such clubs as the famed Harlem Globetrotters baseball team. He also books for the House of David baseball and basketball, is part owner of the Birmingham Black Barons in the Negro American professional baseball league, etc., etc.

A Chicagoan who has made a career (and a sizeable wad of cash) out of handling famous Negro athletes, Sapperstein can see only a bright future.

"You can't overlook the fact the army and navy have exposed millions of persons to athletics who never before were interested," says Sapperstein.

"They are going to be intensely interested in sports after the war—both as participants and as spectators.

There will be the finest talent in the land to choose from, in a great abundance. The caliber of play will be superior to anything ever before offered the public," he asserted.

Beavers Lose 2 To Seattle; Now Lead Four Games

San Francisco Also Gains With Two Over Oakland

By United Press

Seattle hung two defeats on the pacesetter Portland Beavers Sunday afternoon and in doing so slashed the Pacific coast baseball league lead to four games. Curvently in second place, the Rainiers are in position to seriously threaten Portland's tenure if they can fatten their averages against Los Angeles next week.

Seattle won the first game, 6-2, on the strength of a four-run outburst in the seventh inning. Veteran Pitcher Carl Fischer held the Beavs to eight hits as Seattle won the nightcap, 6-2.

Seattle's gain came on the strength of a four-run outburst in the seventh inning. Veteran Pitcher Carl Fischer held the Beavs to eight hits as Seattle won the nightcap, 6-2.

San Francisco gained on third place Sacramento with a twin victory over Oakland by scores of 7-4 and 8-2. Hollywood made it three straight over Los Angeles and gained an even split when it routed the Seraphs twice, 7-3 and 8-3. San Diego and Sacramento divided their doubleheader, the Padres winning the opener behind Carl Dumler, 4-2 and dropping the finale when Guy Fletcher chalked up his 19th pitching victory by a score of 9-2.

Don Pulford held Seattle to a pair of hits until the seventh inning of the first game when the Rainiers landed all over him. When the smoke had cleared, Seattle was in the lead.

Three Deals
In the first frame of the abbreviated finale, they scored four times in the first and were never headed.

The Oakland club announced Sunday the unconditional release of Pitcher Italo Chelini and reserve infielder Jim Herrera. The release of these players was necessary to make room for three new outfielders, an infielder and a pitcher, recently purchased by the club.

Outfielder Nick Rhabe, who has been on the suspended list, was sold Sunday by Los Angeles to Portland in a straight cash deal.

Bill Howard Will Coach O. State

CORVALLIS, Ore., Aug. 13 (UP)—A former University of Southern California and professional football, Bill Howard, will coach the Oregon State college backfield for the coming season.

In announcing Howard's appointment, athletic director Percy P. Lacey said it was subject to approval of the Oregon state board of higher education.

Howard was a hard-driving fullback on the Trojan teams of 1933, 1934 and 1935. In 1936 he served his alma mater as freshman coach and in 1937 and 1938 played professional ball. He was backfield coach for the Detroit Lions in 1939-40.

Returning to California in 1941, he became backfield coach for the University of San Francisco. Last season he was head coach for the San Francisco Packers, coast professional league.

Howard will report to Corvallis Sept. 1.

Tigers Win Two, Take Two Game Lead of Senators

Two New Hurlers Come Through to Double Victory

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (UP)—Any dangling doubts the Detroit Tigers mean business about winning the American league pennant were dispelled today after week-end debuts by the two pitchers they picked up as "flag insurance."

The Tigers aren't comfortably in front as yet—only two games to the good with the tough Washington Senators—dogging their tracks—but there is good reason to think they have established a trend which will hold them.

Wins Own Game
Yesterday genial Jim Tobin, the exponent of the fluttering "crawl ball" made his Detroit debut as a relief pitcher in the ninth inning against the visiting Yankees. The Yankees swung themselves weak for three innings against his tantalizing tosses and got nowhere. Then he broke their hearts in the 11th with a three-run homer to produce a 9 to 6 victory. Tobin, top home run hitter among major league pitchers, connected with a 400 foot drive to end the game. Russ Derby had tied the score with a homer for the Yankees, sending the game into extra innings.

After Tobin's feats, Hal Newhouser had an easy time of it in winning his 18th game, 8 to 2, in the nightcap, backed by 12 hits and four Yankee errors.

Senators Split
The Senators got only a split at St. Louis, winning the opener, 9 to 5, as ex-Bronx Mike Kreweich led the 13-hit attack with two doubles and a single. Bob Muncie pitched five-hit ball for the Browns in taking the second game, 4 to 1.

The White Sox lost their first Sunday game at Chicago this season when Philadelphia won the opener, 7 to 0, behind Jess Flores' four-hit pitching. Chicago retaliated to take the second game, 5 to 3.

Dave Ferriss, Boston's debutable rookie, won his 19
