SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Jacob Is an Example of a Man Who Bettered Himself by Religion

Scripture: Genesis, Chapters 27 and 28

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
Jacob at his worst was one of the meanest and shiftest characters on record, either in Holy Writ or in the secular records of human life. He tricked his elder brother, Esau, out of the birthright, and in other incidents he showed himself a cowardly and selfish man.
But Jacob at his best proved to be a man upon whom something could be built, whereas the more likable, good-natured Esau, like many likable, good-natured men, was weak, and undependable, unwilling to bear much responsibility. Jacob at his best, too, had some remarkable spiritual experiences. Perhaps the Bible tells us so much about Jacob, at his worst and at his best, and about these experiences, because even mean and shifty men can be saved from their meanness and shiftness, and can have visions of ladders reaching to heaven and can find God—for God is no respecter of persons, and does help those who call upon Him in sincerity and truth, even if their characters and past conduct have not been what they ought to have been.

The story in Genesis of Jacob cheating Esau out of his birthright, and of Rebekah's part in

Three Union, La Grande Women Round Out Highway Crew

Drive Pilot Car, Act as Flag 'Men'
On Road Work

UNION, Aug. 18 (Special)— "Women at work" might well be the heading for the announcement the state oiling crew is at work on the streets of Union.
There was nothing unusual in seeing the road crews at work but when a woman is the flag "man" that attracts the attention of the bystander, especially when the situation is covered with such efficiency and tact as was displayed by Mrs. Earl Lamb in her work on the streets of Union Thursday.

Quietly but capably she handled the traffic. Constantly on the alert, she met with tact and poise the impatience of the busy people, who resented the delay. Her appropriate dress, her strict attention to business and the dispatch with which she handled her work, gave Union a practical demonstration of how women can and do work. Mrs. Lamb, with her husband, has been with state oiling crew number 5 since May 4, and during that time Mrs.
Lamb has missed but two days work.

In this crew of 35 there are three women, Mrs. Lamb of Union and Mrs. June Derwitt of La Grande as flagmen and Mrs.
Glenn Pennington of La Grande as pilot car driver.

The crew with Walter Green, supervisor, has oiled approximately 168 miles of roadway since May 4. It has been in Heppner, Pendleton, John Day, Burns, Jordan valley, Halfway, Baker and has just finished oiling up Catherine creek through Pondosa to the county line. From Union it will go to Pendleton and finish up the season there about Sept.
15. Union is well represented on this crew, Earl Lamb drives the gas truck, it being his job to keep the equipment in gas, Homer Lamm, Vernon Allen and William Giles beside Mrs. Lamb are Unionites working with this crew.

Erma Schilling Wed At San Francisco to George R. Tracy

Mr. and Mrs. James Schilling announce the wedding of their daughter, Erma, to George Richard Tracy Aug. 2 in Trinity Lutheran church in San Francisco.
The bride wore a floor-length white satin and tulle gown with a finger-tip veil, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and sweet peas.
Mrs. Tracy attended Riveria school, La Grande high school, and Eastern Oregon college of education. She taught school before joining the service, and is now a ships' cook 3/C in the SPARS.
Mr. and Mrs. Tracy expect to visit La Grande soon.

riet Tulley of Wallowa were in

'Our Hearts Were Young and Gay' Unusual Comedy

Youth will have its day starting Sunday at the Liberty theater when Paramount's whimsical motion picture, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," arrives.
The film, an adaptation of the best-seller by Emily Kimbrough and Cornelia Otis Skinner, is a gay and refreshing story describing the actual experiences of the authors on a trip abroad. Gail Russell and Diana Lynn take the parts of the Misses Skinner and Kimbrough, respectively, and present gay and charming pictures of two beautiful girls who, in search of romance, hilariously complicate the lives of everyone they meet.

There are so many rib-tickling situations, perpetrated by these Bryn Mawr "sophisticates," in which their heart-throbs Bill Edwards and James Brown are a part, that audiences revel in a double-barreled teen-age romance that's unique.

COSTS OF WORLD WAR II—World war II's cost, in money and fighters' lives, is shown on above charts. Actual expenditures, from beginning of the defense program to the present, amount to more than 10 times the direct war cost of World War I and nearly twice the expense of running the entire government, including two wars, for 150 years. The figures for totals of military dead among the big 5 were obtained from the war department and allies' embassies.

Schuster and son Jimmie. The Schusters are spending their summer vacation at their camp at the Bush mine, about 40 miles from Union back in the mountains. The Union party enjoyed the scenery, fished, rode horseback and had a general good time. They are most enthusiastic over the lovely camp of the Schusters, which, though in an isolated spot, is comfortable and in a beautiful location. The Schusters will remain at the camp until September.

Lightning Causes
New Forest Fires

PORTLAND, Aug. 18 (UP)— Flash fires set by lightning in the Madras headquarters area and a small flare-up in the Wilson river fire district south of the Consolidated Timber company camp mark the only changes in the two burning fronts in the state.

The Madras fires in the Warm Springs Indian reservation were quickly brought under control.
A mop-up campaign against the Clear creek and other big blazes was reported going smoothly with predictions that some of the men no won the lines would be relieved in a few days. Patrol of the fire lines will be maintained however.

A flare-up near Consolidated was caused by a burning snag that fell across fire lines, but new trails were quickly constructed.

35 Mile An Hour Speed Limit Over

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UP)— The nation-wide 35-mile an hour speed limit was lifted today by the office of defense transportation. ODT director J. Monroe Johnson has notified all state governors that the ban has been removed effective tomorrow.

Johnson urged motorists to "think twice before attempting to increase regular driving speeds in old cars."

With cars in their present worn-out condition, he said, high-speed driving will increase the frequency of accidents and undue wear particularly on tires.
The order establishing the federal speed limit was issued Sept.
26, 1942, as a tire conservation measure.
