THE LA GRANDE EVENING OBSERVER WILL NEED CARRIERS AVAILABLE SEPT. FIRST

For Autumn and Winter carrying we require boys and girls of seventh and eighth grade ages and older.

We then require carriers capable of scheduling and maintaining required school work. We will need boy and girls whose homes co-operate in the supervision and direction of their time.

This requires above-average boys and girls preparing themselves for a post-war world in which they recognize there may only be opportunity for the ablest in private industry. It requires boys and girls of the sort who way through college. We prefer boys and girls who, in addition to performing their school and home duties and administering an evening newspaper route successfully, recognize the advantages of the Sunday school and of scouting or other character-building organizations or programs.

We believe the finest generation of youth ever reared in America are growing into manhood today and we seek those who aspire to be leaders of that group when they reach maturity.

OH, SO VELLY VELLY HAPPY NOW. PLEASE—White Japanese soldiers in other parts of world mirror their disappointment over loss of war, this group of prisoners at Angel Island, San Francisco bay, Calif., appears happy upon receiving news of capitulation.

Markets

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
CHICAGO, Aug. 18 (UP)—Hogs 400; not enough good and choice to market. For the week; all classes steady. Receipts were sharply curtailed when the country loaded only a few hogs following the Japanese surrender and these were snapped up at full culling prices, $14.75 for barrows and gilts, and $14.00 for sows and stags.

Cattle 400; calves none. For the week, eastern shinner demand held broad all week and strictly choice fed steers and yearlings closed strong. The holiday situation, however, upset all steers recently selling at $17.00 downward, prompting a 25 to 50 cent downturn. The $18.00 ceiling was paid freely for top steers, and sizable supply moved from $17.40 to $17.85. Long yearlings sold up to $17.75, with heifer yearlings at $17.65. Strictly graded choice heifers were firm, but all others lower. Week end dullness was not an accurate reflection of the market due to most packing plants being closed. Bulls finished active but dropped 50 cents. Vealers were steady to 50 cents lower, selling from $16.00 down. Sheep 100; for the week; receipts dropped sharply with no lots of western included in the week's supply. Native slaughter spring lambs and shorn ewes were steady to 25 cents higher. Good and choice yearlings were 25 cents lower, with plainer grades off more. Feeding lambs were absent, and quoted steady, with popular prices $14.50 daily on good and choice native springers, bucks discounted $1.00. The $14.75 top was paid sparingly. Good and choice 96-pound shorn yearlings with No. 1 pelts brought $12.50. Shorn feeder yearlings sold from $10.75 to $12.50.

Third Fleet Looks Like Peace Navy

WITH THE THIRD FLEET OFF JAPAN, Aug. 18 (UP)—The third fleet cruised on peaceful, sunlit seas off Japan today, awaiting the formal signing of the Japanese surrender. Already this is beginning to look like a peace-time navy.

We have not fired our guns in the last 36 hours but the dramatic stories of final clashes with the Japanese still are coming in.

Appropriately the famed fast carrier the Wasp, whose predecessor was sunk early in the war, was credited with shooting down the last Japanese attacker and brushing off the last fanatic kamikaze plane.

It was the Wasp the Japanese attacked in their final suicide attacks.

Control Retained Over Men's Clothes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UP)—A WPB advisory committee recommended today that production controls over men's shirts, shorts, pajamas, and sports shirts be retained until materials become more plentiful.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UP)—Office of defense transportation today revoked effective Aug. 21 an order which prohibited the substitution of bus service for street car or railroad service. The order was issued April 1, 1942 by ODT to conserve buses.

Japs Will Open Surrender Talks Monday at Manila

ing to the Red army. Meanwhile, a Japanese surrender envoy was enroute to Red army headquarters of the far east.

The soviet communique reported Japanese resistance was continuing in some sectors but troops of the Japanese third army were laying down their arms at some points.

5,000 at Once
One Japanese garrison of 5,000 men, headed by a major-general, surrendered to the Red army after being encircled, the communique reported.

The first far eastern army scored advances of 19 to 25 miles and the second far eastern army captured several more towns. Two points on Sakhalin island were captured.

It appears capitulation of the Kwantung army is near.

Marshal Alexander M. Vassilevsky, soviet army commander in the far east, was revealed to have sent Russian planes to Harbin, Manchuria, to bring back the Japanese army's chief of staff for a personal interview.

There was no immediate amplification of the broadcast, but it was indicated the semi-autonomous Kwantung finally had decided to obey Emperor Hirohito's cease-fire order.

The announcement came on the heels of the Russian disclosure that soviet amphibious forces were storming ashore at a number of new points on the Korean coast in a drive to envelop the Kwantung army.
