With Japan beaten, Dr. Rhee's dream nears reality.

Experienced Rail Workers Needed

PORTLAND, Aug. 24 (UP)—Oregon's railroad industry put out a call today for experienced railroad workers to maintain the state's transportation facilities.

Capt. Ralph O. Hoge chairman of the state railroad urgency committee, said applications for jobs were constantly increasing, but the large majority of those who had applied had no previous railroad experience.

Without sufficient manpower to take care of the heavy traffic, both passenger and freight, there is a possibility the transportation system will break down, Hoge said.
