Club Entertains Two Former Residents

Guests at the Wednesday luncheon of the women's division of La Grande Country club were Mrs. Charles Young and Mrs. Fred Otter, both former La Grande residents.

Mrs. W. C. Perkins was winner of last week's sweepstakes, winner of the August eclectic tournament, and high point winner for La Grande at the Baker tournament.

On Wednesday, Sept. 12, a low net tournament will be held for 9-hole players, and a trophy will be awarded to the winner.

Miss Madeline Spaeth took second place in a two-day golf tournament held at The Dalles over Labor Day weekend.

A meeting of the men and women directors of the Country club will be held Friday evening at 3 o'clock in Reynolds Insurance office.

The September Sunday night supper will be an event of September 9 at 7 p. m. in the club house. A mixed two-ball four-some tournament will be played during the afternoon. Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling Mrs. John Larison by Friday evening. Each member is reminded to take one red point.

The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Walker, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lumsden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Siegrist, and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman.

Parkdale Club Has Watermelon Feed

The Parkdale club met yesterday afternoon at Riverside park and held a short business session, followed by Red Cross Sewing and a watermelon feed before a huge fire in the pavilion fireplace.

The next meeting will be Sept. 19, with Mrs. Claude Bartmess.

A gift was presented to the president, Mrs. Charles Griffin, who will soon move to California. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fred Patton.

Vivid Coloring Needs Quiet Garb

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Vivid girls who wear vivid dress are apt to sicken audience eyes with too rich a color feast. As a general rule, the more striking your own coloring is, the less flamboyant personal trappings should be.

When make-up is subtle, dress colors are quiet and jewelry is simple, a girl's own attributes have a much better chance to come to the fore.

So, if you have exotic flavor that you want to heighten, go easy on the eyeshadow, the mascara, the complexion tints that are too heavy with color.

Costume colors that will make you look more vivid are hardly colors at all—but neutrals like

Baptist Ladies Aid Hears Report On Summer Camp

Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Jack Jordahl for the regular meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. D. Cannon, missionary vice-president presided at the session.

Mrs. George H. Morris conducted the devotions with "The Spirit kindles the flame of freedom" for her topic. Mrs. Marrs also gave a report on her trip to Portland and Arran Wanna, the Baptist summer camp which she attended.

Mrs. C. W. Chandler who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Jean Cheney in Portland, was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Chandler will return to Portland soon.

The members completed another aghar for the Red Cross. Mrs. Jordahl and Mrs. Gertrude Happerset were hostesses.

beige, griege and gray. Jewelry should be strictly edited by the vivid brunet or reddish to give her discreet sparkle—not noisy color, sharp gleam or arresting design that, combined with her own compelling attributes, almost blind an onlooker.

Nine-tenths of the asphalt used in the United States is now produced in the country's petroleum refineries.
