ASKS ACT REPEAL
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (UP)
 -President Truman today called for repeal of the Johnson act so as to restore private lending abroad.

Points will be allowed for length of service, overseas duty, combat awards and parenthood,
 the same as for enlisted men,
 and will be computed as of Sept.
 2, 1945. V-J day.

Effective immediately, the war department said, critical scores will be: colonels, lieutenant colonels and majors, 100; captains, first and 2nd lieutenants, 85; warrant and flight officers, 80; nurses, 85; WAC officers of all grades, 44; physical therapists and dietitians, 41.

Army to Release 600,000 officers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (UP)
 -The army will release approximately 600,000 of its 800,000 officers by next July 1 under a new point system for commissioned personnel. The war department announced today.

The president foresaw construction of 10,000,000 to 15,000-
 000 new homes in the next 10 years, representing a private investment of $60,000,000,000 to $70,000,000,000 and employment
 of millions of workers.

To speed the housing boom,
 the president pledged government facilities to maintain moderate financing terms for persons of low income. He proposed federal stimulation of research for better and cheaper housing materials and methods.

Truman stood pat for continued induction of young men into the armed services to relieve veterans who have done their part.
 But he asked congress to provide suitable inducements to volunteer enlistments.

PLAN NEW CHURCH
 SALEM, Sept. 6 (UP)—Rev.
 George O'Keefe, pastor of St.
 Vincent De Paul Catholic parish, in north Salem, today said money is being obtained for construction of a new church. Tentative plans call for a $40,000 structure with a seating capacity of 500.

HITLER MYSTERY: WHICH IS THE HAPPY COUPLE?—It's a wedding party picture, but so far nobody knows whose. The photo above was found among Adolf Hitler's personal effects at Berchtesgaden. At first believed to be taken at his reported wedding to Eva Braun, later investigation indicated it may have been snapped at wedding of Eva's sister. Only persons identified are, front row, left to right: Major Braun, Eva's father; SS General Fegelsin, possibly the bridegroom; Greta Braun, Eva's sister, possibly the bride; Hitler, Eva Braun and her mother. Third from left in back row is Heinrich Himmler.

Truman Seeks Aid To Conversion To Peace Industries

industries must expect at first to produce at a loss until they actually are in mass production again.

Truman proposed limited tax relief effective next year by means of a transitional revenue bill designed to speed reconversion and expansion. He proposed careful modernization of the entire federal tax structure.

Obsolete Wage
 The president recommended a "substantial" immediate increase in the fair labor standards act minimum wage from its present 40-cents-an-hour level and that workers processing agricultural products be made eligible. He said the 40-cent scale had become "obsolete."

For congressmen he urged salary increase from $10,000 to $20,000 a year, and suggested a retirement plan. He recommended, however, repeal of the $2,500 expense account.

These recommendations were accompanied by a plea that congress soon provide "decent wage scales," but for persons in the executive and judicial branches.

He bluntly demanded an emergency reconversion period expansion of unemployment insurance protection which he said now is on too low a standard covering too few persons for too short a time. He asks a maximum basis up to $25 for a 26 week period in any one year.

The foregoing is a temporary, emergency proposal. Truman emphasized it is not to be confused with "the broader question of extending, expanding and improving our entire social security program."

He promised a later message with particular recommendations for legislation to meet the broader question. Still other messages will propose improvement of the national educational program and recommend "a national health program" providing "all Americans" with adequate medical care. The health message also will propose measures to "protect them from financial loss and hardships resulting from illness and accident."

Housing
 Renewing his urgent request for a "full employment" bill, Truman leaned heavily on private enterprise and investment to keep the pump primed, especially on a housing program of "realistic size."

A "vast backlog of orders" for all kinds of goods, and joint federal and private financing of a multi-billion-dollar housing-slum clearance program, were basic in Truman's confidence.

He said that the fundamental principle of new housing legislation should be that "house construction and financing for the overwhelming majority of our citizens should be done by private enterprise."

10 Million
 The president foresaw construction of 10,000,000 to 15,000-
 000 new homes in the next 10
 years, representing a private investment of $60,000,000,000 to $70,000,000,000 and employment
 of millions of workers.

To speed the housing boom,
 the president pledged government facilities to maintain moderate financing terms for persons
 of low income. He proposed federal stimulation of research for
