Lena Winburn Bride Of Oscar Marshall

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Lena C. Winburn and Oscar W. Marshall at 2 o'clock Tuesday. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. E. Stanley Hunt in the First Baptist church.

The bride was attired in a suit of soft brown wool, with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias. A corsage of pink rose buds were the flowers worn by Mrs. Florence Duckett, mother of the bride.

Attending the wedding were the immediate families and close friends of the couple.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner, arranged by the hostess, Mrs. C. E. Thornburg, was served in their home. The table decoration was supervised by Mrs. Paul Gerstel, co-hostess. The wedding cake was used as a centerpiece with a large silver bow and streamers leading to the bride's and groom's place where a gold slipper and shoe were used as place favors. Each place was distinguished by bride and groom place cards and corsages of sweet peas, made by Mrs. Dora Madsen.

Guests attending the wedding and dinner were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg and son, Terry; Mrs. Florence Duckett, Richard Duckett, MM 1/c, USN, brother of the bride, Mrs. Nora Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brush and children, Karren and Billy of Yakima, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hayes of Seattle, Mrs. Weldon Marshall and daughter, Sunny Deaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kerr and sons, Douglas and Richard of Ukiah, Mrs. Paul Gerstel and twin sons, Ian and Ewan, Mrs. Howard Childers of Walla Walla, Mrs. Glennie Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall, Mrs. Carl Baum, Mrs. Beulah Holmes, Darlene, Buster and Deloris Jean Winburn, and the honored couple. Upon their departure for a wedding trip, immediately following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were given the traditional shower of rice and well wishes. They will visit friends and relatives, including the groom's mother, Mrs. Clara Marshall of Yakima.

After their return they will make their residence in La Grande.
