

Miss Helen Smith Becomes Bride of Alex Mackin

Miss Helen Ailene Smith of La Grande became the bride of Alex Mackin, U. S. army, recently returned from overseas, at a double ring ceremony read at 4:30 p. m. Sept. 27, by the Rev. Paul Kunzman, at his home in Vancouver, Wash.

The bride's wedding ensemble was a suit of pale blue with navy blue accessories, with a corsage of pink bouvardia, white roses and white chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Larsen of Portland, were attendants for the bride and groom. A dinner was held for the wedding party following the ceremony.

The young couple, after a honeymoon at Long Beach and other places of interest in Washington, will come to La Grande for a visit, before going to Portland to make their home.

Mrs. Mackin has been employed as a nurse at St. Joseph's hospital for four and one-half years, and before entering the army several years ago, Mr. Mackin was in business in La Grande.
