Marshall Asks For Training of American Youth

Says Four Million Needed Swiftly For Defense

By REUEL S. MOORE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (UP)—Gen. George C. Marshall reported today the United States barely squeezed through to victory in World War II and should be ready to mobilize 4,000,000 trained men swiftly in case war threatens again.

In a biennial report which doubtless will be his last as chief of staff, Marshall offered his recommendations. He advocated:

1. Universal military training to provide a peace-time citizen army that can mobilize 4,000,000 trained men in a year.

2. An intensive program of scientific research and development. Although his report ostensibly was for the two-year period from July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1945, it ranged from the start of the European war in September, 1939, to victory over Japan in August, 1945.

It was highlighted by these findings:

1. When President Roosevelt declared a state of limited national emergency Sept. 8, 1939, we weren't even a third rate military power.

2. Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941, found us still far short of adequate preparedness.

3. The blackest days for the allied cause came in the summer of 1942 when Japan had conquered all of Malasia, occupied Burma and threatened India and German armies approached the Volga and Suez.

4. Only the valiant stand of Britain and Russia in the face of almost certain defeat gave us the time needed.

5. Enemy errors were of almost equal importance.

6. Even with those aids it took complete mobilization of the world to achieve the ultimate victory.

7. The next war will strike more swiftly.

8. Eternal preparedness is the best guarantee of our future security.

New Regulations on Army Enlistments

New regulations governing enlistment period in the regular army have been received by the Oregon district of the military personnel procurement service, Maj. A. B. Croe announced.

Men 18 thru 34 may enlist now in the regular army for periods of 18 months, two years or three years.

Enlistees may choose their branch of service and also any one of the eight theaters of operations. Men who enlist at this time are still eligible for benefits under the "G.I. bill of rights."

This new policy will permit men in the required age limits to do their part in "seeing the job through."

DRIVER INJURED

SALEM, Oct. 10 (UP)—Steve Lubich, Salem, was hospitalized with a broken leg here last night. An automobile he was driving went off the road and overturned near the state training school for girls, state police reported.

SEALING SERVICE

Miss Doris McWhorter, Union county home demonstration agent, announced today that 363 tin cans have been sold, and 232 sealed for overseas mailing.

ONE ARRESTED

Robert Francis Munhall, La Grande, was arrested by city police last night on charge of speeding 40 miles in a 20-mile zone. He was cited to appear in city court today, police records show.

JOHNSON RETURNS

Sgt. Lewis Johnson of the state police is in Vale today on business. He plans to return tomorrow afternoon.
