No Hopes of Quiet Pacific Meeting

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (UP) — Whatever hopes Secretary of State James F. Byrnes may have had for a quiet meeting of the far eastern advisory commission, here were blasted today by Australia.

Evatt's fame stems from the United States nations conference at San Francisco where he became the champion and spokesman for the small nations.

This week Byrnes called for the first meeting to be held here Oct. 23. The commission will be composed of the big five and Australia, New Zealand, Canada, The Netherlands and the Philippines.

County Methodists Ladies Aid Picks New Officers at Union

UNION, Oct. 13 (Special)—Twenty-first annual conference of the Union county ladies' aid of the Methodist church was held in Union Thursday. It was attended by representatives from Alameda, Elgin, Island City, Imbler, La Grande, North Powder and Union. Registration started early in the forenoon, during which Mrs. Wayne Ferguson gave a musical program. Reports of the various societies gave a comprehensive view of the work accomplished during the year. At noon a potluck dinner was served at the church. Afternoon session convened at 1:30 with Mrs. Cheney presiding. Mrs. O. A. Fortune of Union gave the address of welcome, she referred to the work of the women in these church societies, of the large numbers interested and of their accomplishment in a service worthwhile.

Response from Mrs. Gerlie Shaw of North Powder expressed appreciation of the group. The memorial service was led by Mrs. Floyd E. White of Fir Street church of La Grande. A lovely flower was placed in the wreath from Union. Mrs. George South for Rachel Bidwell, Mrs. Nellie Little for Ella Holly, Mrs. W. Halsey for Carrie Crouter, Freda Martin for Grace Martin, Mrs. Terrill for Mrs. Charles Castor and Maggie Van Houton for Mrs. W. E. Mattox.

For La Grande Mrs. L. L. McBride placed a flower for Mrs. E. A. Sayre and Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. Tom Towle for Helen Smith of Cove.

Tributes were paid the workers of the societies and corsages were awarded to Mrs. Hale of the First church in La Grande and Mrs. Nellie Litcher of Union for their long years of service: Mrs. Harold Craig the youngest member present; Mrs. W. E. Alder and her sister; Mrs. Ray Fuller, two members who have not missed a meeting in the 21 years of the society's existence. The invitation to hold the next conference at Cove was unanimously accepted and the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Nell Hefty, Cove; vice president, Goldie Ruckman, Imbler, and secretary-treasurer, Jessie Fisher, Cove. As is the custom, members absent through illness were remembered with cards or flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Avery have received word that their daughter and her husband, Lt. (jg) V. H. Hoseldt will arrive in Union from San Francisco, early next week. Lt. Hoseldt has just received his discharge from the navy after long and arduous service. Nine months as a seabee at Samoa, then transferred to the navy, where he served as communications officer at New Caledonia, from there to the Philippines and then to San Francisco, where he has for the past three months been assisting with the demobilization of returning troops. Mr. Hoseldt with his wife, hopes to enjoy a little leisure and are making this trip to Union, where they will remain for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Hoseldt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nodine has had several surprise guests this week and has enjoyed the visits with the relatives and friends. Monday her cousin, Mr. Willie Carroll, his daughter, Edith, and sister her cousin, Mr. Willie Carroll, Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis of Venice, Calif., stopped for a short visit and Wednesday her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hamilton, their son, Larry, and their friend, Miss Lillian Koford from Portland, were dinner guests. Larry has just returned from overseas and is enjoying his first furlough in three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baird of Ashland are in Union visiting with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Baird are old residents of this community and have many friends who welcome them home.

Program to Control Fruit Moth Designed

SALEM, Oct. 13 (UP)—A program designed to combat the Oriental fruit moth was announced today by a fruit advisory committee which met with state department of agriculture and state college experiment station officials.

The moth was found for the first time in Oregon recently in Malheur county.

R. W. Gray of Medford was named chairman of the advisory committee and Frank McKeon, chief of the division of plant industry at the state agriculture department, was chosen secretary.

Other board members include: John Hickman, Milton; Earl Newberry, Ashland; Glenn Hogg, Salem; Roy Fitzwater, Lebanon; Wayne McGill, Fairview; Moses P. Adams, Salem; E. A. McKune, The Dalles and Leroy Childs, Hood River.

General "Ike" Eisenhower likes to pack his own personal possessions.
