

Weigel, Stenkamp Exchange Vows In Our Lady Of The Valley Church

Miss Clara Margaret Weigel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Weigel, of La Grande, and Ben Stenkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stenkamp of Bend, were united in marriage Saturday morning August 9, at Our Lady of the Valley church, with Reverend Father Crotty officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Small bouquets of pink carnations decorated the main altar. A bouquet of pink roses was placed at the foot of the Blessed Virgin's statue, and at the communion gate were baskets of white agapanthus.

The bride escorted to the altar by her father, was wearing a ballerina length gown of imported white chantilly lace over bridal taffeta. The sweetheart necklace displayed a strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the groom. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a small headpiece of chantilly lace over bridal taffeta. She carried a nose-gay of pink rosebuds and stephanotis and a rosary.

Miss Mary Kay Miller was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length fitted gown of nylon lace over green taffeta with headpiece matching that of the bride's.

Miss Teresa Stenkamp, sister of the groom, and Miss Roberta Miller were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of nylon lace over pink taffeta with matching headpiece of nylon lace over pink taffeta. All three girls carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Miss Christy Lou Binder, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of nylon lace over pink taffeta with matching headpiece similar to those of the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of pink and white rose petals.

Tom Stenkamp, Coquille, was best man and the ushers were John Stenkamp, Yakima; and Fred Stenkamp, Eugene. All three male members of the wedding party are brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Weigel, mother of the bride, wore a dress of dusty rose lace over taffeta with tiny seed pearls and rhinestones trimming the neckline. Her corsage was pink roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Jay Binder, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Edith Tucker sang, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" when the bride presented her bouquet of pink roses to the Blessed Virgin before Mass. They sang "Panis Angelicus" during the Offertory of the Mass, accompanied by Miss Patsy Evans, organist. During Communion Miss Evans played "Ave Verum Corpus."

A wedding breakfast for the immediate family and close friends of the bride and groom was held in the parish hall after the ceremony Saturday morning.

A reception was held at 2 p.m. in the parish hall. The bride's table was decorated with a four-tier wedding cake and at the top was placed a miniature bride and groom encircled with an arch of white flowers. Serving the cake were Mrs. Tony Keller, Ontario, and Mrs. Agnes Sander, Fresno, Calif., aunts of the bride.

Mrs. George Russell, Umatilla, assisted at the coffee table. Mrs. Ed Johnson, Union, served at the punch table. Miss Phyllis Snider, Coos Bay, distributed the groom's cake, and Mrs. Jay Binder, Madras, was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Stenkamp, Sr., of Bend; Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, Umatilla; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Binder, Madras; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dudley, Hermiston; Richard Weigel, Portland; Don Weigel, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John Stenkamp, Jr., Jennifer and Steven, Yakima; Mrs. Tony Keller and Tony, Jr., Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson, Union; and Mr. and Mrs. David Johansen and children of Bend.

For going away, the bride wore a dress of embroidered nylon over pink taffeta with headpiece of pink net leaves. Her accessories were white.

After a trip to the coast the couple will be at home in Heppner, where the groom is employed as Operations Officer at the Heppner Branch of the First National Bank of Oregon.

Manufacturers feature a navy blue as the leading topcoat shade. One coat called the "American Warmer" is in navy wool velour with a bright red wool lining.

Tweeds abound, but with a flat surface instead of a rough and

GLADIOLUS PRINCESS—Janean Martin (left) and Barbara Webb are shown by the table display of prize winners in the Eastern Oregon Glad Show.

There were over 700 entries in the weekend show in La Grande. (Observer Photo)

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

The men don't suffer through all the fluctuations in fashion we women do. But this fall there are some changes. First, a slight alteration in shape.

The council said the Ivy League straight lines have given way to a silhouette it called the "American Ambassador" — with some indentation in the front jacket at the waist, closer spacing of jacket buttons and some shoulder padding. Plus, pleated trousers which the true Ivy Leaguer disdains but which help camouflage any waistline bulge.

The new silhouette is generally slim, with narrow lapels and narrow trousers. And any hat with a brim wider than two inches is an old hat. This fall, hats are to be worn pinched at the front—"center-dent," the industry calls the crease. Hatband bows are on the side, not the back.

Topcoats, both with the casual raglan shoulder and more formal set-in sleeve, come in a new length or just below the knee on a size 40 male, which is about two inches shorter than last season.

Manufacturers feature a navy blue as the leading topcoat shade. One coat called the "American Warmer" is in navy wool velour with a bright red wool lining.

Tweeds abound, but with a flat surface instead of a rough and

GLADIOLUS PRINCESS—Janean Martin (left) and Barbara Webb are shown by the table display of prize winners in the Eastern Oregon Glad Show.

There were over 700 entries in the weekend show in La Grande. (Observer Photo)

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

The men don't suffer through all the fluctuations in fashion we women do. But this fall there are some changes. First, a slight alteration in shape.

The council said the Ivy League straight lines have given way to a silhouette it called the "American Ambassador" — with some indentation in the front jacket at the waist, closer spacing of jacket buttons and some shoulder padding. Plus, pleated trousers which the true Ivy Leaguer disdains but which help camouflage any waistline bulge.

The new silhouette is generally slim, with narrow lapels and narrow trousers. And any hat with a brim wider than two inches is an old hat. This fall, hats are to be worn pinched at the front—"center-dent," the industry calls the crease. Hatband bows are on the side, not the back.

Topcoats, both with the casual raglan shoulder and more formal set-in sleeve, come in a new length or just below the knee on a size 40 male, which is about two inches shorter than last season.

Manufacturers feature a navy blue as the leading topcoat shade. One coat called the "American Warmer" is in navy wool velour with a bright red wool lining.

Tweeds abound, but with a flat surface instead of a rough and

GLADIOLUS PRINCESS—Janean Martin (left) and Barbara Webb are shown by the table display of prize winners in the Eastern Oregon Glad Show.

There were over 700 entries in the weekend show in La Grande. (Observer Photo)

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

The men don't suffer through all the fluctuations in fashion we women do. But this fall there are some changes. First, a slight alteration in shape.

The council said the Ivy League straight lines have given way to a silhouette it called the "American Ambassador" — with some indentation in the front jacket at the waist, closer spacing of jacket buttons and some shoulder padding. Plus, pleated trousers which the true Ivy Leaguer disdains but which help camouflage any waistline bulge.

The new silhouette is generally slim, with narrow lapels and narrow trousers. And any hat with a brim wider than two inches is an old hat. This fall, hats are to be worn pinched at the front—"center-dent," the industry calls the crease. Hatband bows are on the side, not the back.

Topcoats, both with the casual raglan shoulder and more formal set-in sleeve, come in a new length or just below the knee on a size 40 male, which is about two inches shorter than last season.

Manufacturers feature a navy blue as the leading topcoat shade. One coat called the "American Warmer" is in navy wool velour with a bright red wool lining.

Tweeds abound, but with a flat surface instead of a rough and

GLADIOLUS PRINCESS—Janean Martin (left) and Barbara Webb are shown by the table display of prize winners in the Eastern Oregon Glad Show.

There were over 700 entries in the weekend show in La Grande. (Observer Photo)

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

The men don't suffer through all the fluctuations in fashion we women do. But this fall there are some changes. First, a slight alteration in shape.

The council said the Ivy League straight lines have given way to a silhouette it called the "American Ambassador" — with some indentation in the front jacket at the waist, closer spacing of jacket buttons and some shoulder padding. Plus, pleated trousers which the true Ivy Leaguer disdains but which help camouflage any waistline bulge.

The new silhouette is generally slim, with narrow lapels and narrow trousers. And any hat with a brim wider than two inches is an old hat. This fall, hats are to be worn pinched at the front—"center-dent," the industry calls the crease. Hatband bows are on the side, not the back.

Topcoats, both with the casual raglan shoulder and more formal set-in sleeve, come in a new length or just below the knee on a size 40 male, which is about two inches shorter than last season.

Manufacturers feature a navy blue as the leading topcoat shade. One coat called the "American Warmer" is in navy wool velour with a bright red wool lining.

Tweeds abound, but with a flat surface instead of a rough and

GLADIOLUS PRINCESS—Janean Martin (left) and Barbara Webb are shown by the table display of prize winners in the Eastern Oregon Glad Show.

There were over 700 entries in the weekend show in La Grande. (Observer Photo)

Men View New Fall Wardrobe

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oh to be a man shopping for a new fall wardrobe. No big decisions to make concerning the high waistline, the low waistline or the no waistline.

For the happy male, it's mostly a matter of deciding which stripes. This fall, the man who dresses to the minute will wear more of them than a convict, although the stripes will be subtle and not cell-block bold.

"The man in the gray flannel suit is through," said a stylist for the men's and boy's wear industry council. "This will be a striped year."

Favorite combinations are black and brown. A narrow black stripe, for instance, runs through a brown suit — brown is a leading suit color for fall. Or, a brown stripe is used on a black background.

Women's World

Maxine Nurmil

WO 3-3161

Observer, La Grande, Ore., Tuesday, Aug. 12, 1958 Page 3

In And Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ross, now of Paradise, Calif., who have recently returned from Arabia, where he has been employed by the Standard Oil Co. for the past 20 years, is here visiting with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Meek. They will be leaving today to visit other friends in Oregon before returning home.

They have been camping and fishing on the Lostine and huckleberry picking. They were caught between two land slides in the cloud burst on the Lostine, and had to wait for rangers to clear the road.

Mrs. Esther Hildebrand, of 1116 Washington Avenue, had as guests in her home for the past week, her brother, Bernard Reynolds, and her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bilson, all of Bellingham, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Kent Jr., and children, of Newark, Del. are spending a month's vacation with Mrs. Kent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Greiner, of the valley.

Mrs. Mabel Owen, and her daughter and children, Mrs. Marjorie Monson, Julia, Steven and Dale, are here visiting with the Earl Parks at Summerville and with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hill of La Grande. Mrs. Owen is the niece of Lynn Hill. They plan to be here about two weeks. They live in San Leandro, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirby, of Portland, are here visiting her brother, Dee Davis, and family. They also are visiting friends in this area.

MODEL BOATS

- Ready to run
- Boat Kits
- Motors

Inboards
Outboards
Jet Engines

HOBBY SHOP

1113 Adams Northern Stamps

BACK TO SCHOOL

WITH PLENTY OF TIME TO PLAY

SAF-T-NEE TEXANS

Billy the Kid

YOU CAN BUY BETTER IN LA GRANDE

"School Days" aren't all books and studies. Active youngsters find plenty of time to give clothes lots of rough wear. Saf-T-Nee Texans solve Mothers' biggest problems. These famous jeans have knees that never wear out and color that doesn't fade. Sizes 3 to 14. Regulars & Slims. NAVY, GREY, BROWN 2.98

GENEVIEVE'S

1113 Adams

WO 3-2731

Mrs. W. Brownnton Appointed Head Of Dance Program

Mrs. June McManus, in connection with the Summer Youth Activities group, has appointed Mrs. Wesley Brownnton as chairman of a special summer dance committee.

Mrs. Brownnton plans to appoint a committee of parents to assist her with the arrangements of this dance program. If possible a dance will be held this Saturday evening in the Pioneer Park tennis court or in case of inclement weather in the La Grande Armory.

This summer program is for all teenagers in this area to attend. Further plans will be made known later.

Wax metal wastebaskets to keep them from rusting on the inside. The wax also keeps dust from clinging.

For Back to School Start Willie Off Right!

GIVE HIM THE RIGHT SCHOOL SUPPLIES and the best!

Check the wide Selection at your La Grande School Supply Headquarters

McGlasson's Stationery

1104 Adams

Its Going To Happen

Tuesday

7:30 p.m., The Eagles Auxiliary will hold a special drill team and officer's practice in the hall.

Thursday

12 noon, The Riverside Ladies Aid will meet at Riverside park for a potluck dinner. Bring own table service.

Friday

12:30 p.m., Dora B. Schelke, Past Matrons club of OES will meet in the City Park at Union. Bring salad or dessert and own table service.

Surprised Lady...

A housewife-motobrist recently paid her first visit to a Phillips 66 Station, and reported as follows...

"All I expected from my Phillips 66 Dealer was ten gallons of gasoline and maybe the windshield wiped. But the first thing I knew they had cleaned the windows all around..."

"Was I surprised when the attendant suggested he check the tires, including the spare! Then the battery and radiator. I figured he must have me mixed up with someone important. Wife of the mayor, maybe?"

"You could have knocked me over with a feather when he started brushing out inside the car. 'You do this for everybody?' I asked. That's what he said... everybody!"

"About the gasoline... I got that, too. And that Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel makes my car run swell!"

STOVE OIL LUBRICANTS! PHILLIP'S GASOLINE
W. C. LAIRD, Phillip's Consignee
East Adams Ave., La Grande Phone WO 3-4621

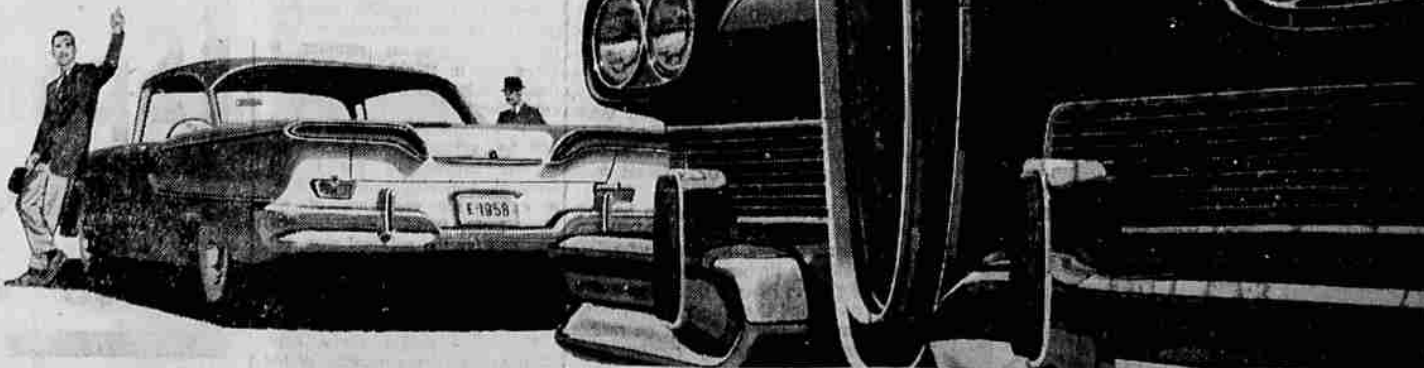

Nearly 55,000 Edsels now on the road!

EDSEL'S DRIVING FOR A FIRST-YEAR SALES RECORD — NOW IS THE TIME FOR WONDERFUL BUYS!

By latest count, nearly 55,000 distinctive new Edsels have appeared on the road in less than a year—a new record for any first-year car in this price class! And now Edsel's shooting for the all-time first-year sales record set by a low priced make of car during a high volume year! This means Edsel Dealers are offering such attractive values on every Edsel deal that you can't afford not to buy right now!

See your Edsel Dealer today. See how little it takes to own a new Edsel with all these advanced features: New exclusive Touch-Drive. New 303 or 315 hp V-8 Edsel engine. New self-adjusting brakes. New contour seats.

EDSEL DIVISION • FORD MOTOR COMPANY

LESS THAN $50 DIFFERENCE BETWEEN EDSEL AND V-8'S OF THE THREE LARGEST-SELLING LOW-PRICED CARS! *Based on comparisons of manufacturers' suggested retail delivery prices.

HAND FORD SALES

JEFFERSON AND CHESTNUT STREETS

IN OTHER AREAS SEE YOUR LOCAL EDSEL DEALER

LA GRANDE, OREGON