Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gorham and children of La Grande visited his father, Arthur Gorham, on his birthday, Aug. 7. Their son Randy, who had been visiting his grandparents, returned home with them.

First Christian Church Setting For Glenn, Wiseman Wedding Vows

By ARLEEN CAMPBELL

In a First Christian church ceremony on Friday, Aug. 1, Miss Joanne Hester Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Glenn of Summerville, became the bride of James William Wiseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wiseman, of La Grande, in a late afternoon ceremony. Officiating for the occasion was the Rev. Gene Robinson, pastor of the First Christian church of La Grande.

The church was decorated with the bride's wedding colors of yellow and white. Baskets of pastel gladiolus with yellow as the predominating color blended with the yellow candles at the altar. Providing the organ music was Mrs. Don Swart of Enterprise and the soloist was Mrs. Forest Masters, of La Grande, who sang "The Wedding Benediction" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length bridal gown of embroidered imported Swiss organdy. The scalloped neckline and hem was accentuated by the bouffant loveliness expressed in the romantic rustle over taffeta. The finger-tip illusion veil was held by a crown of silk leaves edged in seed pearls. Simplicity was expressed by the bride in wearing a single strand of pearls which was a gift from the groom. Her all white bridal bouquet was of Stephanotis with an embedded orchid.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Leland Bolen of Summerville, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Rye, and Mrs. Buddy Downs, both of La Grande. They were dressed similar to the bride in waist-length gowns with a wide yellow hem, sash and matching slippers. They carried nosegays of yellow and white gladiolus centered by rose buds. Their head bands were of yellow daisies.

Flower girl was Miss Ann Wiseman, niece of the groom, in a floor length dress of yellow net over taffeta.

Best man to the groom was Gary Wiseman, brother of the groom, from Alameda Naval Air Base in California. Ushers were Jack Rye and Dwight Gilstrap of La Grande, classmates of the groom, and James F. Thompson, an army buddy, from Roberts, Ill.

4-H Club News

NORTH POWDER (Special) — The local 4-H youngsters enrolled in 4-H clubs in Baker county are in full swing for the Baker county 4-H fair, being held at Baker this week. The following members of the North Powder Livestock club are showing the following animals:

Mina Geils, fat hog, fat lamb and a goat; Leona Young, fat lamb; Gloria Gray, ewe lamb; Judy Isaac, fat lamb; Wanda Pratt, a pen of three fat lambs; and Shirley Powell, Hereford Beef steer. Linda Young's fat lamb became sick and she is unable to show it. The fat animals will be sold at auction on Saturday night.

The Shady Lane Cookers, composed of Judy Isaac, Kay Flower, Wanda Pratt, Karen Arnoldus and Jan Peters, Jim Peters and Dickie Reeves will all exhibit cakes, except Jim and Dickie, who will exhibit muffins.

The Stitch and Chatter club is composed of three different groups. The Sun and Fun group and what they will exhibit includes Kay Flower, dress and peddle pushers; Mina Geils, dress, peddle pushers, blouse and jacket; Wanda Pratt, dress, shorts and blouse; Karen Arnoldus, dress and duster; and Jan Peters, dress and peddle pushers. Each of these members is required to make a dress. Judy Isaac is the only one of the group in Charmingly Yours. She will show a skirt and matching apron. Judy Shadwick will show in the Just Sew Girl group.

In the Busy Bakers group under the leadership of Mrs. Margaret Geils, Judy Monaghan, Sherry Griffith, Pat Rowett, Leona Young and Mina Geils will each exhibit cakes.

The Home Economics clubs held a joint meeting in the home of Mrs. Herman Peters on Aug. 9. Mrs. Doris Roy, Baker County Demonstration agent, met with the girls and advised them on judging cakes, and gave tips on modeling their sewing projects. The evening of Aug. 11, they joined the Muddy Creek clubs for a tea honoring their mothers. The program was a style review of their 4-H sewing.

ternoon gown of taffeta and lace in old rose with a small hat of rose and blue sequins. The groom's mother chose a navy blue silk print with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow rose buds.

The wedding reception was held at the farm home of the bride's parents in Summerville. The green lawn bordered by huge trees and dotted with baskets of gladiolus and boxes of colorful petunias, was the background for the lovely bride and the groom as they accepted congratulations from their many friends and relatives. Adding to this charming scene was the refreshment table covered with white lace over yellow and holding the beautiful four-tiered wedding cake decorated with white and yellow roses.

Wolf Creek Group Plans Threshing Bee Concession

NORTH POWDER (Special) — The Wolf Creek Home Ec. club met at the grange hall on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Guy Smith as hostess. There were 12 members present. Most of the afternoon was devoted to making plans for the refreshment booth, which they will conduct at the second annual threshing bee to be held by Glenn Nice at the Harry Nice farm, Sept. 7, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

The following committee was appointed to be in charge of planning and buying the food for the booth, Mesdames Frank Gulick, Guy Smith, Henry McClure, William Nice, Willard Fordice and Bernice McCaense. The theme and decorating committee for the county fair booth are to meet and complete their plans.

The September meeting will be an all day meeting at the home of Celeste Nice. At this time the booth for the bee will be prepared. All are to bring a sack lunch for an all day meeting with dessert and drinks to be served by Mrs. Nice. Refreshments were served. Three members of the Community service committee met after the meeting to work on this project.
