

Daffy Dodgers Jump To 4th Place Spot

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Those daffy Dodgers are back in the first division today, thanks to one of the neatest jumps since Steve Brodie took his famous flyer from the Brooklyn Bridge.

Only four days ago, the Dodgers were floundering around in the National League cellar, but now they're looking smart and sassy in a fourth-place tie with the Cardinals.

It's the first time they've been this high since the opening week of the season and if they notice some kind of funny smell they may be assured it is only fresh air.

They negotiated the big jump by sweeping a two - night double-header from the Cardinals Friday night, winning the 11-inning opener, 4-3, and the nightcap, 5-3.

Elmer Valo's pinch single with the bases loaded off Larry Jackson in the 11th inning gave reliever Clem Labine, his sixth victory in the opener. Carl Furillo and Don Zimmer homered for Los Angeles while Gene Freese and Ken Boyer connected for St. Louis.

The Dodgers collected only five hits in the nightcap but two of them were homers by starting pitcher Stan Williams and Gil Hodges.

The Milwaukee Braves lengthened their lead to seven games with a 1-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies; Cincinnati snapped Pittsburgh's seven - game winning streak, 6-1, and the Cubs defeated the Giants, 3-1, in 10 innings.

In the American League, the Yankees' lead was sliced to 13½ games when they dropped a 6-2 decision to the Red Sox; Washington defeated Baltimore, 3-1; Kansas City crushed Detroit, 12-5, and Chicago edged Cleveland, 4-3.

Wes Covington drove in the only run in Milwaukee's win over Philadelphia when he singled home Eddie Mathews in the eighth inning. Carlton Willey limited the Phils to six hits in beating Robin Roberts for his eighth victory of the year. One of Philadelphia's hits was a third-inning single by Richie Ashburn, the 2,000th hit of his major league career.

Dee Fondy singled home the deciding runs in a five-run rally that powered the Redlegs to their triumph over the Pirates. Fondy lined his game-winning hit off little Elroy Face, who had relieved loser Ronnie Kline in the eighth, the frame that the Redlegs scored their five runs. Bob Purkey held his ex-Pirate teammates to five hits for his 14th victory. Frank Robinson homered for Cincinnati.

Red Sox rookie Ted Bowfield, developing into something of a thorn for the Yankees, beat them for the second time in five days with a seven-hitter. He held them hitless for 6 1/3 innings in defeating them last Sunday. Bob Turley suffered his sixth loss against 17 victories.

Rookie Barry Latman and reliever Turk Lown teamed up to lead the White Sox to their victory over the Indians. Latman, who was credited with the victory, held the Tribe to one hit until the seventh but then ran into trouble and had to be rescued by Lown. The White Sox scored all four of their runs off starter Hal Woodeshick, whose sixth inning error allowed Latman to score the decisive run.

Blue Team Edges Gold, 7-6 In East Squad Scrimmage

The Blues defeated the Gold team 7-6 last night at the first "game situation" scrimmage of the East Shrine Class B team in training at Eastern Oregon College here for the annual classic set for Pendleton next Saturday night.

The 24-man squad was rewarded for its "all-out" effort by a trip to Portland for the Class A game set for tonight at Multnomah stadium. The squad left by car this morning and will return Sunday evening after seeing the game and visiting the Crippled Children's Hospital tomorrow morning.

La Grande auto dealers Hand Ford, M. J. Goss and Mike Lynch furnished the cars, free of charge, for the boys to make the trip to Portland.

After the scrimmage under the lights, last night, the squad voted on co-captains for the upcoming battle. Breaking precedent, three were named due to the closeness of the vote.

Named co-captains for the game were John Houk of Stanfield, a quarterback; Stan Williams of Sisters, a halfback, and Paul Forrey of Stanfield, line-

Twelve Lettermen Set To Return For Mounty Drills

EASTERN OREGON COLLEGE.—Hard work is in store for Coach Arch Dunsmoor and his Mountaineer gridders with the opening of practice sessions, Sept. 8.

Twelve lettermen are slated to report from last year's squad, but no doubt the most difficult job will be to find a replacement for Dick Quinn, All-Conference halfback, who chalked up a 4.4 yard average per carry in his four years at EOC.

Halfbacks Bennie Houk, Stanfield sophomore, and Al Tolat, junior from Echo could fill the gap.

David Hansen, senior from Maupin who lettered in 1956, is the only veteran candidate for the center position.

The Mounties will have two-day drills in preparation for their home opener with Whitman Sept. 20.

Class A Shrine Teams Battle

PORTLAND (UPI)—Football makes its 1958 debut here tonight in the 11th annual playing of the Oregon Shrine All-Star game in Multnomah Stadium.

The State squad holds a weight advantage over the Metro team but it held the same edge last year when the Metros staged a 28-7 upset victory. Neither team could be called a favorite this year although the weight margin would appear to put State in that position.

The average weight of the starting State line is 198 pounds while the Metro forward wall averages 193½ pounds. The backfields are evenly matched at 176 pounds. Game time is 8:30 p.m. with an hour-long pageant beginning at 7:30 p.m.

PROTHO TO STAY ON CORVALLIS (UPI)—Oregon State Football Coach Tommy Prothro, one-time protégé of the late Red Sanders at UCLA, Friday eliminated himself in advance from any consideration as a successor to the Bruin mentor.

William P. Odum, in 1947, made a 19,645-mile flight around the world in 75 hours, five minutes and 11 seconds.

Valdes Awarded Edge In Fight

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UPI)—Manager Bobby Gleason, who yelled himself hoarse Friday night to stir sluggish Nino Valdes into a narrow split decision over Mike DeJohn, screamed even louder today for a shot at the heavyweight title.

"We don't care who wins the bout Monday night in Los Angeles," the diminutive Gleason said. "My boy rates a crack at the championship. We've been sidetracked long enough."

However, the fifth - ranking Valdes, slow at 214 pounds, was anything but impressive as he decided the left - hooking DeJohn of Syracuse, N. Y., at Rochester's War Memorial Auditorium.

Assistants To Direct UCLA Grid Team

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—UCLA officials showed supreme confidence today in Henry (Red) Sanders' ability as an organizer as well as a coach when they put the responsibility for one of the nation's major football teams in the hands of his assistants for 1958.

Sanders, 53, a master of the single wing, died of a heart attack in a Los Angeles hotel room Thursday. An autopsy showed he had an enlarged, "athlete's" heart and that the immediate cause of death was a small hemorrhage in a diseased segment of a coronary artery.

Sanders' body lay in state today with funeral services here on Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. His body will be returned to Nashville, Tenn., for services and burial Tuesday.

UCLA Athletic Director Wilbur Johns said in Chicago that he would recommend the present coaching staff direct the Bruins this season, without hiring a new head coach to succeed Sanders.

Johns said one of the things that made Sanders a great coach was "his ability to gather capable assistants on his staff and his development of a spirit of loyalty and working unity among the staff working for the best interests of the individual team members."

Since George Dickerson is senior assistant, it is presumed that he will assume the leadership of the well-organized staff which Sanders had used to build one of the nation's finest football teams.

If successful, Dickerson would have the inside track when a new head coach is chosen for 1959, sources close to the scene here said.

Sanders' UCLA teams won 66, lost 19 and tied one over nine years.

Active pallbearers for the service here Monday will be members of his staff—Dickerson, William Barnes, John Johnson, Herbert B. Brackett, Sam Boghosian and Robert Bergdahl. Honorary bearers will include Tom Prothro, Oregon State coach; Jim Myers, head coach at Texas A & M, and Ray Nagel, new Utah head coach. All formerly were Sanders' assistants.

The Mounties will have two-day drills in preparation for their home opener with Whitman Sept. 20.

Garity Named To Head Red Hat Days

PORTLAND (Special)—Selection of 36 county chairmen for Red Hat Days observance in Oregon was announced this week by Governor Holmes. The county leaders will assist the 27 sponsoring agencies for the Governor's Red Hat Days Committee in the statewide observance.

John Garity of La Grande was appointed chairman for Union County. Fred Gray of Wallowa was named chairman for Wallowa county.

State chairman is Rollin E. Bowles, Portland lawyer and newly appointed member of the State Game Commission. Serving with him on the state committee are W. O. Kelsay of Roseburg, Ben Buisman, Arthur K. Roberts and George Brown, all of Portland, Ed Sullivan of Hereford, and J. E. Rutledge of Klamath Falls. Secretary is R. C. Holloway.

William P. Odum, in 1947, made a 19,645-mile flight around the world in 75 hours, five minutes and 11 seconds.

Texas A & M's Conrad Boots Four Field Goals

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI)—Three potential pro greats, Jim Ninowski, Bobby Mitchell and Bobby Joe Conrad, sparked like satellites Friday night to lead the College All Stars to a 35-19 win over the Detroit Lions, but the Cleveland Browns and Chicago Cardinals will reap the future rewards.

Ninowski, from Michigan State, completed 14 of 29 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns and Mitchell, from Illinois, hauled in five of his tosses for 145 yards and two touchdowns. Both have been drafted by the Browns for the coming pro season.

The Lions set two records, with 22 first downs and seven kickoff returns. Gene Gorman ran for nine yards for one Lions score. Ralph Pfeiffer got another on a one yard plunge, and Tobin Role passed to Jim Doran for 24 yards for the first tally.

Score by periods:
All Stars 0 20 2 13-35
Detroit 7 0 6-19

Conrad, from Texas A & M, never had tried a field goal before. He attempted four against the 1957 pro champions and made every one, from the 19, the 44 and twice from the 24 yard lines, and he converted after each of three All Star touchdowns. He belongs to the Cardinals.

All of the Stars displayed polish, but these three and others were standouts: Jim Jones of Washington intercepted three passes by Bobby Layne, Alex Karras of Iowa tackled Tobin Role in the end zone for a safety for the Stars. And Chuck Howley of West Virginia returned another intercepted Layne pitch for 29 yards and a touchdown.

"Ninowski proved himself on the field," coach Otto Graham of the Stars said. "And he'll be around for a long time. It was a great team and played as a unit."

George Wilson, coach of the Lions, who couldn't talk to his team for more than four minutes at the half due to a power failure, said that "we played like the lights were out all over the field."

"It comes down to the same old story. We didn't block, we didn't tackle. They were keyed up, found out they could score on us, and there was no stopping them then."

The two teams set 11 records for the game and tied three others before the 70,000 fans. A Ninowski
