

'Yard Charm' Program Given At Sorority

Xi Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Felix Cavallo. An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Mel Plass, on the subject of yard charm. Illustrations were shown on how shrubs and trees should be in proportion to the shape and style of house. Dec. 13 is the date of the Christmas formal, with a pre-dance party at the home of Mrs. Everett Reynolds. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Jim Voelz and Mrs. Cavallo.

Thanksgiving Day Theme Of Meeting

UNION (Special)—The W.S.C. met Wednesday Nov. 19, with President, Margaret Layton presiding. Louise Smithers gave the devotional from the 85th Psalm and the poem "Start the Day With God" from the "Together," magazine. The program was under the direction of Doris Hannan. She read two Thanksgiving poems, "I Won't Forget" and "Let Us Be Thankful." Members were asked to donate next meeting for a kitchen shower for the church kitchen. The rummage sale will be open this Saturday, Nov. 22. The Adult Fellowship announced that they will have a Bring and Buy Auction Dec. 4 at 7:30. Refreshments were served following the meeting by Lucile Brown and Pearl Pembroke. Clare Happe was a guest for the evening.

Books For Laughs

By Mabel E. Dely, Librarian
One of the popular displays at the Public Library is headed with an attractive poster, "Just For Laughs." The books are fun for everyone and many of them may be shared by a wide range of ages. The following titles are among those displayed and will be fun to read during the cold winter days: "The Grass Is Never Greener," R. T. Allen; "Party Line," Louise Baker; "The Doctor Wears Three Faces," Mary Bard; "Forty Odd," Mary Bard; "How to Build an Orange Crate from Old Pieces of Furniture," Jack Chuet; "Life with Father," Clarence Day; "Mamma's Boarding House," John Fitzgerald; "A Lucky Number," Vera Henry; "The Family Book of Humor," Helen Hoke; "Cocktail Hour in Jackson's Hole," Donald Hough; "Please Don't Eat the Daisies," Jean Kerr; "The Innocents of Indiana," Emily Kimbrough; "Buttons in the Back," Elizabeth Kirtland; "The Egg and I," Betty McDonald; "Onions in the Stew," Betty McDonald; "The Loud Red Patrick," Ruth McKenney; and "Chicken Every Sunday," by Rosemary Taylor.

Lenore Gorsline Circle Meets

The Lenore Gorsline Circle of the First Baptist Church, met in the home of Mrs. Joyce Fuzi, Nov. 18. There were 16 attending the meeting, including several new persons. Members worked on White Cross quilt blocks for the evening. During the business meeting several dates were brought to attention. They included the Young Peoples banquet, set Dec. 6; and the Christmas party, Dec. 15. There will be a gift exchange, and it will be held in the church annex. Miss Verna Balzer brought the devotions for the evening, and Mrs. Blanche Speckhart gave the Missionary story on the young people in the Philippines. A special prayer was requested for a member who is ill. Refreshments were served by Helen Parks and Vivian Burford, at the close of the meeting. ## St. Peter's Guild To Assist In Annual Parish Dinner

The meeting of the St. Peter's Guild Nov. 19 in the Parish hall was presided over by Mrs. J. R. Martin, who also led the opening prayers and the devotional service. Reports were given on the Bazaar. Mrs. Edith Simmons, candy chairman reported that she still has several cans of the Golden Butter Bits on hand. The Bazaar was considered very successful. Plans were completed for the annual Parish Dinner to be held Saturday evening, Nov. 29. This dinner honors Bishop Lane W. Barton who will conduct services Sunday morning, Nov. 30. Mrs. Norval Olson is chairman of the committee which will work with St. Ann's Guild in preparing the dinner. The members voted to dispense with the annual Guild turkey dinner, which has been held for a number of years on the third Wednesday of December. This year on Dec. 17, a Guild Tea and at the same time a Kitchen Shower for the Parish hall kitchen will be given. All members of the Guild are being invited. This will be a social meeting and the new officers for St. Peter's Guild for the year 1959 will be introduced. Mrs. Guy Ellis and Mrs. Fred Sommer are in charge of the Tea. Election of the members of the Board for the year 1959 was held, and Mrs. Louis Jewett, Mrs. Julia Metzler, Mrs. Wilma Camp, Mrs. Fred Sommer, Mrs. Katie Driskell, Mrs. E. C. Bray and Mrs. Guy Ellis, constitute the new board, together with Mrs. J. R. Martin, the holdover member. These ladies will serve as officers and committee members during the coming year. At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Wilma Camp read an interesting article on the life and work of the Right Reverend Arthur Carl Lichtenberger, the former Bishop of Missouri, now the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States. The Reverend Lichtenberger was elevated to the Presiding Bishop's chair at the last General Convention, taking the place of Presiding Bishop Sherrill, who has retired. At the close of the meeting Mrs. A. E. Boothman Sr. served refreshments in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. Miss Fanny Cupid and Mrs. Guy Ellis poured.
