

Screwdrivers In The Raw

MILTON, Wis. (UPI)—Milton College students have been getting more than vitamins from the oranges they've been eating between meals, Rock County authorities said today.

The sheriff's office said a freshman was picked up along a country road near Milton Junction.

Officers said that from a distance they saw the student standing next to his car. It looked, they said, like he was using a surgical syringe on an orange. A close up inspection proved this to be correct.

The deputies found the student, who they did not identify, was injecting vodka into oranges.

The youth explained, they said, that he took the oranges to the Milton College campus to eat between classes.

The student said the "screwdrivers in the rough" are the latest "rage at college."

"Everyone's doing it," he was quoted as saying.

SANDRA DEE

One of Hollywood's best bets for top stardom is a pert blonde girl of high school age. She's Sandra Dee, who was famous as a cover girl before she even entered her teens. Sandra now is a young lady whose exceptional ability and beauty has all Hollywood happy.

Currently, Sandra can be seen in Columbia Pictures' "Gidget," co-starring with Cliff Robertson, James Darren and Arthur O'Connell. The new Columbia picture, opening Sunday at the Granada Theatre in Cinemascope and Eastman Color, presents the delightful Miss Dee as a teen-ager who, on her first "manhunt," becomes the mascot of the Malibu Beach surf-boarders.

A beautiful youngster, as delicately wrought as a Dresden figurine, Sandra was only 12 when she was chosen by the "Saturday Evening Post" as one of America's ten top models. She "made" the cover of seven national magazines, went into television and, almost immediately thereafter, into motion pictures.

DIES FOR MURDER
OSSINING, N. Y. (UPI)—Edward Eckwerth, 31, died in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair Friday night for the murder of Rosemary Spizzo, 24, a parochial school teacher, during a rendezvous in a wooded area.

ITALIANS RAISE SALARIES
ROME (UPI)—The Italian Chamber of Deputies has voted into law Premier Antonio Segni's financial "package plan" raising civil servants' salaries, increasing some taxes and easing tax pressure on lower incomes groups. The measures, acted on by the assembly Friday, had been passed by the Senate previously.
