Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 15 and I just decided to be an old maid. If men aren't any better than boys I don't want anything to do with them—ever.

I've been to three high school mixers this year and I'll never go to another one as long as I live. The big problem is there's always a fight about who's going to dance with me. Nobody wants to.

I admit I'm not a very good dancer but I try my best. I just don't feel any rhythm. At the mixer last night one boy actually yelled "HELP!" to his buddy in the stage line. Even then the buddy wouldn't take me off his hands. I plain wanted to die.

Why should dancing be so important anyway? Please tell me what to do. Right now I'm the most miserable girl in town.—Washout.

Dear Washout: I assume you've practiced dancing at home and that you still have two left legs. If so, develop a sense of humor about it. Tell a fellow pronto you're no Marge Champion and that if he'd rather sit and talk, you're willing.

Remember that most fellows are pretty clumsy on the floor themselves but they get away with it because they do the asking. A gal can't say "no" when it's perfectly obvious she isn't doing anything else.

There's more to life than cutting a rug with a real gone cat. If a guy gives you the freeze because you're a bore on the floor it means his brains are in his feet—nawdho needs him?

Dear Ann: I've been married 19 years to a man who has no respect for me in front of friends. When we're alone he's wonderful. But if I express an opinion in a group he says, "Why are you shooting off your face? You don't know anything." After that I clam up.

Several friends have told me he's phoned them the next day to apologize for being rude to me in their homes. But he never apologizes to me. I've told him it's humiliating to be talked to this way but he insists I'm exaggerating. What can I do?—Mute.

Your husband is enormously insecure. He knows he's behaving badly and he's sorry, but he's unable to tell you. He's also aware this puts him in a shoddy light but still he can't control it.

Married couples who compete for the center of the stage are a sad sight. The mate who realizes that his or her partner needs ego-bolstering and is content to sit back and let that partner shimmer and shine, is the real star.

N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stock market staggered forward today. The general list was firm on balance, despite some fairly wide losses in some of the leaders.

The rails were generally firm. Atlantic Coast Line was up around a point at its high.

Leading oil stocks favored the upside although gains were limited to small fractions for the most part. The steels moved ahead fractionally, helped by predictions of excellent second quarter earnings.

Consolidated Cigar ran up around 5 at its best; but American Tobacco and Liggett & Myers were off more than 1 near the close. National Lead lost more than 4 points at its low in an otherwise narrow, featureless metal group.

American Home Products was strong in the drugs and Zenith and Raytheon were in demand in the electronics. Bendix and Cessna were downside features in a mixed aircraft group.

Motors were generally firm. IBM was up more than 14 points at its high in the office equipments. General Time was up more than 4 in its section.

SOVIETS KEEPING QUIET ABOUT NIKITA'S JAUNT

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union maintained silence today on the reason for Premier Nikita Khrushchev's official visit to Communist Albania. Western observers thought he might be there to make up with Yugoslav's Marshal Tito.

Khrushchev arrived in Albania's capital of Tirana Monday with Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky and Deputy Foreign Minister Nikolai Firubin, former ambassador to Yugoslavia. He plans to remain until June 6.

Western sources here believed Khrushchev may be seeking to better relations with Yugoslavia once again. He did it the last time in 1955 with a dramatic visit to Belgrade where he admitted past Russian mistakes.

This time any overtures have been confined in an exchange of greetings. The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported that Khrushchev radioed birthday greetings to Tito as his TU-104 jet flew across Yugoslavia.

"I send you and all the peoples of Yugoslavia cordial greetings and good wishes," Khrushchev said.

Tito replied with thanks and best wishes to Khrushchev.

During previous Khrushchev visits or talks there has been no official or press comment until the final communique, and the Albanian trip seems to be following the same procedure.

First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, who is taking Khrushchev's place during his absence, refused to be drawn into a discussion Monday night on the objectives of the trip when newsmen talked with him at a reception.

Washington Court Hears Arguments On Cowlitz Dam

OLYMPIA, Wash. (UPI)—The State Supreme Court heard arguments Monday on a move by Tacoma to keep anti-Cowlitz dams initiative 25 off the 1960 general election ballot.

Paul J. Nolan, Tacoma attorney, asked the court to reverse an order entered last Feb. 25 by Superior Court Judge Raymond W. Clifford dismissing the city's action to prevent certification of the initiative to the 1959 Legislature.

Nolan also requested that Secretary of State Victor A. Meyers be enjoined from certifying the measure to the ballot. Because the Legislature failed to act on it before adjourning last March, the initiative automatically will be placed before the people unless the courts order otherwise.

Tacoma for years has sought an OK to build dams at Mayfield and Mossyrock on the Cowlitz.

Dale Wyatt Selected To Attend Workshop

Dale Wyatt, vice principal of La Grande Junior High School, is one of 15 junior high school principals from Oregon selected to attend the Junior High School Workshop at Oregon State College June 22-July 17. Wyatt is the only vice principal from Eastern Oregon selected.

Dr. Carl Ginn, junior high school principal from Denver, will be selected as Director of the Workshop for the summer. He will be assisted by Dr. Wendall L. Van Loan, professor of education at Oregon State.

FBI Withdrawal From Case Sparks Senatorial Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) said today the FBI withdrawal from the Poplarville, Miss., lynching case demonstrates the need for a federal anti-lynching law.

But Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) declared flatly that "it means no such thing."

Between the two divergent views there appeared to be a general feeling on Capitol Hill that Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers' withdrawal announcement would bring pressure for passage of civil rights legislation in this session of Congress.

Speaking in New York's Harlem Monday night, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said Congress can't go home again "having done nothing" about a bill giving "minimum justice" in civil rights.

Humphrey is co-sponsor of a pending bill to support the Supreme Court's school integration decision and to give the attorney general power to intervene to protect individual rights.

Rogers announced that the FBI has "clearly established" that there was no violation of federal law by persons responsible for the

Safety Council Warns Travelers

CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Safety Council warned today that 250 persons may die in traffic accidents and another 10,000 may suffer disabling injuries during the Memorial Day holiday week-end.

The estimate was based on past records and the possibility of increased travel on the long week-end.

"But this does not have to happen," the council emphasized. "The size of the actual toll depends entirely on how many drivers heed or fail to heed a few common sense rules that could save their lives and other's lives."

Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate in 1920, ran for the U. S. presidency while in jail.
