

St. Ann's Guild Discusses Several Coming Activities

The members of St. Ann's Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church made plans for several coming events at their meeting in the Parish hall.

For the devotional period, Mrs. Dave Wyldie read an article describing the change which a portrait of Christ hanging in a conspicuous spot in a modern living room brought to a sophisticated suburban family.

Mrs. Merritt Owen president, was in charge of the business meeting during which many plans were made for coming events. Mrs. Dave Wyldie, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, discussed plans for the meals which the Guilds are serving for the Rainbow Girls' convention which will be June 15 and 16. She appointed Mrs. Ed Boothman, Mrs. Phil Beauchamp, and Mrs. James Burr to help her chairmen these four meals. Menus were read and discussed.

Plans for the Bishop's dinner held Saturday in the Parish hall were outlined. Turkey, coffee, rolls, butter-ice-cream and cookies will be furnished; the rest is
