Eight Graduate Around The House

By Dolores Uria, Your Home Extension Agent

NORTH POWDER (Special)—Commencement exercises were held at the Powder Valley High School gym.

The graduating class consisted of eight members. They are, Charles Cropp, Mary Jo Bodewig, Jo Ann Gard, Barbara Erwin, Frank Pfel, Denece McCause, Lila Umpleby, and Lee Allen Shima. The Invocation and Benediction were given by the Rev. Arlo Robbins, pastor of the Haines Baptist church.

The Salutory address was given by Jo Ann Gard. Mary Jo Bodewig played a solo on the piano.

Next on the program was Lila Umpleby, co-valedictorian. Her topic was "Stairway to Success." Frank Pfel sang a solo and Mary Jo Bodewig accompanied him on the piano.

The senior class motto "The end is important only if it is the beginning of something better," was the topic of co-valedictorian, Denece McCause's speech.

The high school chorus sang one number.

The main speaker of the evening was Harold C. Dorn, director of information and assistant professor in English and Journalism at Eastern Oregon College. He spoke on "Margin of Greatness."

Marvin H. Vancil, superintendent, announced scholarships received by the graduating seniors. He also made the presentation of the senior class.

William Trindle, president of the school board, presented the senior class with their diplomas.

Sherry Hutchinson played the professional and the recessional.

The stage of the gym was decorated in the senior's colors, pink and white and the class motto was on the back of the stage. Bouquets of flowers also decorated the gym.
