Theologian Says U.S. Turns Back

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)-The retring president of Princeton The-ological Seminary charged Tues-day night that this country is turning its back on untold thouturning its back on untold thousands of Christians in Red China while at the same time helping Spain's Francisco Franco "to perstant the worst tyranny in 400. petrate the worst tyranny in 400

Dr. John MacKay, who is re-tiring this summer after 23 years as president of the famous seminary, told delegates to the 171st General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. that Red China is one of the last great frontiers "not illuminated by the light of the gospel."

"How can we speak to China, unless we recognize her?" Dr. MacKay said. "How can the Chinese people learn?" Dr. MacKay said he "rejoices" in the fact that nearly 1,000 dele-gates attending the General Assembly adopted a moderate resolooking with "Christian Hope" for the recognition of Com-munist China under honorable circumstances.

"They may talk rough to them, and we may talk rough to them, but at least we will be looking eye-to-eye," Dr. MacKay told feleve-to-eye," Dr. MacKay told feleve-to-eye, and laymen.
