Prince Rainier Lets Hair Down In All-Nighter

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (UPI) -Prince Rainier danced till dawn and played the drums in a jazz band today in honor of his 36th birthday. While the Prince turned back the clock to the days of his bachelorhood, his wife, Princess Grace, looked on approvingly.

Rainier let his hair down at a party that started Sunday night with a dinner and cake with 36 candles at the swank Hotel de Paris and then wound up in the ca-baret of the swank Monte Carlo gambling casino.

The dinner party was a quietly sedate affair attended by a group of friends and officials. But then the crowd moved on to the cabaret and things heated up consider

While Rainier whacked away at the drums, millionaire Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis plunked away on the guitar.

The normal custom of Rainfer and Grace, the former Grace Kolly of Hollywood movies and Phila-delphia, is to quit formal parties at an early hour for their pink palace on the rock. But they stayed with this one until 6 a.m.

By that time, the cabaret was empty except for the 14 persons in the princely party Their songs alternated with those of the ama-teur band playing on the stage with Rainier and Onassis showing off their musical provess.
