Local Mothers Feted At Tea

Junior High annual Mothers Tea was held in the school with Mary Virginia Speckhart as mistress of ceremonies. The theme was "Paris in Springtime." Carol Paris was the program chairman. Together they presented Mrs. Mary Heassler with an orchid corsage as a token of appreciation of her service as Dean of Girls. This is her last year in that capacity.

The Junior High gym was decorated with pictures of France and Paris, also scenic views. The stage was set as an outdoor cafe, with small tables covered with checked gingham. A mammoth drawing of the Eiffel Tower was in the background.

The program commenced with the Junior High school girls ensemble singing two selections, "Poor Butterfly" and "Molly Alone." This was followed by a Paris in Springtime Ballet, with Vickie Kohler as ballerina.

Jenifer Smith and Susan Fisk presented a comedy pantomime to the recording of "Playmates."

The program concluded with Sherry Stewart, soprano, singing "Give Us This Day."

Mothers were invited to view the various displays of handwork, artwork and manual arts, which were placed about the gym.

Refreshments of punch and homemade cookies were served to the mothers in attendance, in the Home room.

Graduating Class Holds Final Party

SUMMERVILLE (Special)—The graduating class of Imbler High School attended an overnight party at Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bakors log cabin at Kings X Place on the mountain near Summerville.

The party was held the evening of May 27, and the group returned with their advisor, Mrs. Ruby Skeen, to school the next day for commencement practice.

While in the mountains, the students grilled steaks over a huge bonfire, and prepared the remainder of the evening meal out-of-doors.

In appreciation of the kind hospitality of the Bakors, the Senior class presented them with a lovely hydrangea plant for their cabin.
