Investigation Launched To Help American Youth In Mexican Jail

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — California Attorney General Stanley Mosk has launched an investigation into the plight of a Belmont, Calif., youth serving a four-year term in Baja California prison for car theft.

Mosk said Thursday that Robert F. Peterson, 18, who was sentenced last April, may be the victim of a miscarriage of justice.

Deputy Director Melvin L. Hawley of Mosk's office has suggested to the American consul in Tijuana that the Mexican government be asked to release Peterson immediately, if the story told by his mother is true.

Mrs. William A. Peterson, mother of the jailed youth insists that her son merely borrowed the car with the permission of a Tijuana cab driver who had rented it from the Hertz Agency. The automobile was reported stolen as a result of a misunderstanding, she said.

Mrs. Peterson said the car was returned undamaged and that she paid the agency $75 due in rental charges and once received assurances from an American consulate official and an agency representative that the theft charge would be dropped.

The mother said she visited her son in August and found him suffering from knife wounds inflicted by other convicts. She said open sores covered most of his body and that he was underweight and emaciated.

She described the prison, located in Lower California as "filthy beyond words."

Bryant Buckingham, executive officer of the American Consulate in Tijuana, said the mother's statement that the car was returned.

Teachers Target
Of Investigation
For Red Actions
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities announced plans today to investigate alleged "communist party activities" of certain teachers at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said the committee would hold hearings at San Francisco starting June 17 and at Los Angeles starting June 22.

"Members of the teaching profession will be called as witnesses," he said.

The announcement said Walter "wanted it made clear that this is not an investigation of schools or education."

"It will involve the character, extent and objects of Communist party activities of persons entering the teaching profession who are subject to the directives and discipline of the Communist party."

The announcement said that possibly as many as 100 witnesses will be heard. Most of the hearings will be conducted behind closed doors.

Haifield Given
Honorary Degree
EASTON, Pa. (UPI) — Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon today was given an honorary degree by Lafayette College where he was described as a product of higher education who is a popular and forceful government leader.

Hatfield was named a doctor of laws by Dr. K. Roald Bergethon, Lafayette's president.

"Your rise to eminence is a bright reminder that the college ivory can build not merely towers of contemplation but also bridges of comprehension toward a better world," Dr. Bergethon told Hatfield.

The 38-year-old Oregon Republican governor formerly was a dean of students and political science professor at Willamette University, Salem, Ore.

Hatfield was a guest at a luncheon given by the Board of Trustees after the commencement ceremonies. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) was commencement speaker.

Hatfield has appearances scheduled in New York this weekend. He returns to Oregon next Tuesday.

MENTAL CHECK ORDERED
NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — An 11-year-old boy has been ordered committed for an additional 30-day period of psychiatric observation in the slaying of a young girl. Juvenile Judge John J. Wingrave committed Edwin Herty Thursday to the East Louisiana Hospital at Mandeville for observation. Herty, an honor student, is charged with sexually molesting and then fatally stabbing a 12-year-old girl in a blackberry patch.

ANN LANDERS

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann: My husband was a Japanese prisoner of war. He suffered horribly at the hands of the enemy for almost three years. It is a miracle he's alive today.

Dear Ann: We're having a big fat fight over a trifle.

I always like the name Bradley. It was my maiden name. I want to name our new son Bradley to perpetuate our family name as I have no brothers.

It so happens I was once engaged to a fellow named Bradford. I haven't seen or thought about Bradford for 10 years. When I told my husband I wanted to name the baby Bradley he said "You don't fool me. You just want to call him Brad — after your old sweetheart." I got so mad I cried.

Our first child was named after my mother-in-law (to please his clan). The second born we named Junior. Now I think I should be permitted a voice in naming our third. Am I making a mountain out of a molehill or what? — Bunny.

Dear Bunny: Since your husband called the first two shots, I agree that you should have the privilege of calling the third. After all the arguing, some kid will probably label him "Skinny" or "Fats" and that will be it!

WILTON, Conn. (UPI) —Actor Raymond Massey's gardener, who charged Massey lashed him out of his house, dropped the charges Thursday because a "man's home is his castle."

The gardener, Michael Hoshko, 50, had Massey arrested on a breach of peace charge for allegedly ericating him forcibly from the actor's home.

In Town Court Thursday, Prosecutor Julian Gregory said Massey apparently had ordered Hoshko to leave before the tussle began. Hoshko then said he wanted to drop the charges.
