There was a special cemetery board meeting Wednesday in the City Hall.

Howard Manners left Wednesday morning for Condon on business.

77th assembly was formed in the state. The assemblies are sponsored by Eastern Star Chapters, Masonic Lodges or groups of individuals from both of these bodies. Any girl between the ages of 12 and 18 who is the daughter of a Master Mason or an Eastern Star, or the friend of a Rainbow Girl may petition for membership in the order. It is based upon service to others and the assemblies give much of their time and money to doing for others. Each year they have a service project, state wide, known as the Grand Worthly Advisor's project and each assembly donates money to this.

Carolyn Parson chose a three-year project this year: provide a television set at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of Oregon at Forest Grove; contribute to the "east fund" at the Shriners' hospital; and give a Hi-Fi set to the school for the Deaf, and if their third is enough, a merry-go-round for the preschool group at the deaf school.

In addition to this annual project, which varies each year, each assembly has projects of its own along the same line, which of it in the way of entertainment for the aged and ill. They adopt families less fortunate than themselves at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

They make doll clothes, tray favors, stuffed toys and many other things for the hospitals and children's homes. Along with all of this, the girls have a lot of activities including parties, overnights, beach trips, ski trips and the like.
