550 Persons Attend Elgin Service

ELGIN (Special) The "Indian Valley Centennial Days" worship service held at the Stampede ground, was reported a huge success. There were an estimated 550 persons attending.

Les Wells was Master of Ceremonies. He is pastor of the Christian Church. The Rev. Volney Johnson, Church of the Nazarene, was choir director and song leader. Dick Lyman was organist and Mrs. Genevieve McCall was pianist.

The presentation of the colors were by members of the VFW, Jim Hicks, J. L. Garrison, R. G. Clum, and Lloyd Trump.

A choir of about 30 voices sang "Let All the People Praise Thee" with Dora Parsons the soloist. The congregation sang "He Keeps Me Singing", and a pioneer choir sang "There's a Church in the Valley", with Mrs. Carmi Hugas soloist.

Mabel Schaefer read the scripture. She is pastor of the Assembly of God.

The LDS ladies choir sang "O Lord Most Merciful." The main choir sang "The Old Time Religion", with Mrs. Mary Carper as soloist. The group then sang "Amazing Grace". Dr. Virgil Bolen of the Methodist Church, led the group in prayer. The choir again sang with Dean Kennedy as soloist.

The Rev. Paul C. Moore of Athena, gave the message. Rev. Moore was named the 1958 Father of the Year in Oregon.

The benediction was given by Joseph Doyle of the Imbler Assembly of God Church.

Those attending expressed the wish that this be an annual affair. Following the church service a community picnic was held on the field near the river East of the stamped ground. The Chamber of Commerce furnished coffee, pop and ice cream.
